TO YOUR HEART

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

After the last book, related with Elam and Media, I felt one splendid state in my heart. It was such that I began to feel and see the Holy Spirit like a White Dove in all my thoughts. Stretched my hands to the Dove, I wanted more than always to catch him and to fill my heart with Him. It was not because of the fact that He had not lived in my heart till now, or had not given to me the wonderful presence of Jesus. No! This way the feeling was much more powerful and fascinating. One love, one Fire, more powerful than everything in me, made me look by all my faith for those revelations and heavenly messages, talking about the White Dove - that Dove, who came flying from the Sanctuary of Father to give us Salvation and Eternal Life.

Devouring hungrily the psalms of David, my heart found a verse that reigned in me and made me long for the White Dove more and more. The words of this verse declared:

“I said, “Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest...” (Psalm 55:6)

Believe me, my brother, that this thing - to fly away and be at rest - means for us to know the Holy Spirit in that perfect fullness and truth that He might really be for us the Dove, Who gifts us His White Wings. So, enflamed by the Fire in my heart, I began to discover this wonderful mystery of the God's personification in the symbol of a White Dove. Here, I heard the Voice of the Spirit in the late hours of one evening. He told me:

“You have already seen Myself like a White Dove and I have raised you highly with My Wings. You already have My Wings, even if you have not realized it by now. Therefore, remember the moment of our first meeting...”

After these words of the Spirit, my thoughts flew back, to the year of my first gulps of living water. Then I saw again with thrill and excitement the blue sky, from which the White Dove came flying to me. And when I stretched my hands and he alighted in my palms, I perceived that the Dove was carrying a letter, like a scroll, attached with a ring to His tender pink feet. The eyes of the Dove were full with overflowing Kindness and Mercy. They were talking to my heart, saying:

“Take the letter, Stefan! For Jesus has written it personally with His hand!”

Touched the feet of the White Dove, I opened the ring and was already taking the Heavenly Scroll, when I perceived that there was upon it a seal, which was not made of wax, but of a droplet of blood. Being excited, I told the Dove:

“How could I open Your letter, Lord? Here, it is sealed up...”

The eyes of the Dove were again talking to me:

“Touch the blood! And when it touch and enlighten you, the letter will come unsealed by itself...”

So I touched the red droplet of blood. Then it sank in my own fingers, flowing into my spirit. And there, before the White Dove and His spread Wings, the unclean waters of all my lawlessness and sins, corruption and lie, revolts and crimes began to go out and flow away. Weeping before the Dove with all the grief of my exposed heart, I succeeded in telling Him with a great difficulty:

“Fly away from me, Lord! My heart and my soul are not worthy of reading the letter that Jesus has written to me...”

The eyes of the Dove were talking to me again:

“I will not fly away without you. I came flying from the Heaven in order to rise you in the Heaven. Here, the letter is already unsealed and you must read it...”

Received Power from the words of the Dove, I unfolded timidly the Heavenly scroll. Then the words of the Crucified and Resurrected One came like a Faith in my heart. By this faith, Jesus was telling me:

“From now on you will see Heaven open. When you stretch your hands to the Wings of the White Dove, you will be elated by them and you will fly after Me. So, wherever I go, there you will follow Me. You, however, remember and know that the Wings of the Dove should become Faith in you and your faith in Me should turn into Wings. Since you can not reach My Father’s Heaven without Wings. The more you fill yourself with the Wings of the White Dove, the more real and alive I will be for your heart..."

Closed the scroll with the Blessing words of the Savior and filled with hope, I was looking again at the Dove and His Wings. In that moment, I already knew that each my step, every my longing and impulse would forever be related with the Wings of the White Dove...

Today, after hundreds beautiful visions and meetings with Jesus, I already know for myself that I not only unsealed and read the letter of the Lord, but I really fell in love with the Wings of His White Dove. Since He was always raising me at Himself just by these Wings, so that He might talk to me all words of Eternal Life. Why, however, Jesus was touching the secret recesses of my heart again and again with that living vision from the years of my new birth? Why I was full again with Fire, which was burning all my thoughts? Was not it because of the fact that the Dove was flying away from the hearts of the apostates in many of the last hard visions? Was not it because of the fact that the Holy Spirit was weeping with pearl tears, when making Him sad, going after the tempter and seducer? Was not it because of the fact that we should know Him perfectly in this last time? I tell you the truth, my brother, and I do not lie that today is the time of the wingless. The time of the moles and scorpions, the serpents and worms! Time, when the Dove is ready to wave His Wing for the last time, in order to raise on them those, who love Jesus and who want to be a part of His world, but not of the world of the Evil One. However, what would it happen when the White Dove left the earth? Will Father send Him again and again to look for the hardened and retreated men? Since the same these men preferred the world of the devil instead of Heavenly Jerusalem, did not they? The same these men preferred their fat bank account on the earth rather than the imperishable treasure on the Heavens, did not they? The same these people preferred drying up from the root rather than glorify Father by the fruit of their hearts. The same these wanted to be deceived and lied, since, even if they went out of Sodom, yet they were looking backwards like the Lot's wife.

The Truth is that there is some most beautiful knowledge of the Holy Spirit. This is when Lord gives us to know Him like a White Dove. If in the beginning He was the Heavenly messenger for us, Who was carrying the scroll of the Good News, sealed by the blood of Jesus, then at the end we should find ourselves raised up in knowledge of Father and Son.

However, only those, who have the Wings of the White Dove, are raised up in high places! Therefore, all visions in this book are devoted to these Wings! By these Wings, Jesus will call again everybody to leave the prostitute Babylon and to stand away from every abomination, which leads to desolation. So the words of the psalm will be realized in our lives:

“I said, “Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest...” (Psalm 55:6)

If you, my brother, want to fly away and be at rest, far from all the malice and wickedness of this world, then be ready to see who people, born and winged by the White Dove, are. They are, whom Father is going to give today an abundant access to the inmost recesses of His Sanctuary! Amen and Amen!

1. THE VISION IN THE GOD'S SANCTUARY

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

Let me now share with you that splendid and astonishing vision that Lord Jesus revealed before my heart. Since the verse from the psalm of David was burning again and again all my thoughts. And I, fallen in my knees before the Lord, pronounced it with my lips, longing to catch not only the words, but the Breath of That One, Who had inspired David.

"I said, "Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest..." (Psalm 55:6)

"Oh, my Lord! Give me the Wings of Your White Dove! Give me to fly away and be at rest in Your Holy Presence! Give me to understand what David has thought when uttering these words in his heart..."

I was still standing and praying to Jesus, when His Holy Presence filled my room immediately. Then Jesus touched my closed eyes and said:

"Oh, if everybody had the Wings of the White Dove! Then they would surely fly away and be at rest. By these Wings, they would take a part in the deep and Holy mystery of their Lord. Since this mystery is related with the true biblical Rest, which My people will find in this last time."

"And what is this true Rest, Lord?" - I asked. Jesus told me in reply:

"There is one true Rest, Stefan! One most perfect state of the powerful faith, when you gather together in the Wings of the White Dove, so that to be one with the Lord. Since the White Dove has been waving His Wings till now, calling all you to come into Him. However, how many of you entered the White Dove? How many of you did He enter, so that to give you the flight of His White Wings? Here, I tell you that many have already forgotten these very serious words of My apostle. Words, by which he warned not the first, but the last generations on the earth, saying:

"So, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion, during the time of testing in the desert, where your fathers tested and tried me and for forty years saw what I did. That is why I was angry with that generation, and I said, "Their hearts are always going astray, and they have not known my ways." So I declared on oath in my anger, "They shall never enter my rest..." (Hebrews 3:7-11)

Then, tell Me: did not many people harden their hearts because of the temptations in the desert? Did not they prefer the rivers of Babylon rather than the River of Zion? How then will such men hear the Voice of My Holy Spirit? How will they understand that the perfect target of the faith is just this:

To enter the Rest of the Lord, your God! Since only those, who have the Wings of the White Dove, enter this Rest.

You, however, think now and tell Me:

Where did your Lord appear like a White Dove, Who wanted to find a Rest for His feet, for first time in the Word? So, if you answer to this My question, you have really received the Wings of the White Dove..."

The words of Jesus were very deep, and in the same time very light, in order that I might not understand the answer. Therefore, I answered Him, saying:

"My Lord! There is one place in Your Word, where the Holy Spirit appeared like a Dove, longing for rest of His feet. This place is in the Noah's Arc, since the very name "Noah" means "rest"..."

Jesus smiled to my words. Then he asked me again:

"Who is the Last Noah? Who is That One, Who told the words about the days before His Second coming?"

"As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man..." (Matthew 24:37-39)

"You Are the Last Noah, my Lord! You Are the Rest, in which enter all who love You, in order to find the peace of their souls..."

"Do you understand now perfectly well the words from the psalm of David? Do you understand why he is praying with the words:

“I said, “Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest...” (Psalm 55:6)

“Yes, Jesus! I understand now that everybody who has the Wings of the White Dove will surely come flying in Your Arc. So he will be the olive leaf that the Dove brought to Noah...”

In reply, Lord caressed my head. Then He raised His hand, point upwards and told me:

“Let Me make you a witness to those unspeakable secrets, related with the White Dove. These secrets should become evident for all My brothers and sisters. All you must see what the Wings of the White Dove are powerful in and what the Will of My God and Father about your faith is...”

After these last words of Jesus, my heart flew after Him, so that Lord raised me with His powerful hands to the Sanctuary of Father. When He opened the doors of the Sanctuary, my heart saw a very splendid and Holy view. There, before the God’s Holy Altar, I perceived the Arc of the Covenant, in which there was a Fire, flaming powerfully. And I saw the White Dove with His spread Wings in front of the very Arc and the Fire. It was an extremely pure and Holy vision, so I could not help falling on my knees and being silent in awe and contemplation. Then Jesus bowed over me, saying:

“Listen and look! Look and listen! So that you might comprehend everything, because of which My Father has called you here...”

I looked again at the God’s Holy Altar, where the Dove and the Arc were standing. And here that the Voice of the Almighty Father resounded from among the very Altar. He told:

“Holy Spirit of My Heart! Spread Your Wings, so that all who have believed in the Name of My Beloved Son might gather together in My Arc!”

In answer to the words of Father, the White Dove spread His Wings. He began to wave them in front of the very Arc, so that there was a strong wind coming out of His Wings, which made the Fire blaze more powerfully. The more the Dove was waving His Wings, the more powerful became the Fire in the Arc of the Covenant. And when the whole Arc was in flames because of the Fire of the Father, the saved souls began to go out of the Wings of the Dove, like olive twigs. They fell in the Arc and poured in the Fire the oil of their fruits, so that the God's Sanctuary was filled with a sweet smell. Then the Voice of Father went like a ray out of the Holy Altar. Dazzling my eyes, He told me:

"Son of man! I called you at My Holy Alter! And My Son led you before My Heart, so that you might see how the Holy Spirit gathers all twigs of David in order to fill with them the Arc of the Covenant. Here, in the Arc, is My Rest! Those, who enter the Wings of the White Dove today, they will surely rise at Me. They will be for Me a sweet smell, Holy priesthood and eternal Glory.

Follow My Son, son of man! Write on paper everything, which the God's Secret Wisdom will reveal to your heart. Today, the White Dove will wave His Wings over the wicked world for the last time in order to gather My last generations into the Arc of the Covenant. Then He will convict the wicked world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment. So the God's people will be gathered at the God, and those of Noah will gather with Noah! However, woes to those, who have never been olive twigs of David! Since My Dove will leave them out and they will be called a generation of the everlasting wickedness..."

After these last words of Father, Jesus touched my head with a hand, saying to me:

"Follow Me, Stefan! Follow Me and your heart will see secrets, hidden and kept for My last generations. Secrets about the children of Jacob and children of Joseph, whom Father has given to be the last olive twigs, who will enter the Arc of the Covenant. Now, follow Me, so that you might look at Me like at the Last Noah..."

2. THE VISION WITH THE NOAH'S ARC

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

Now, I pray my Lord with all faith in my heart. I pray Him to touch and prepare you to comprehend and realize His Heavenly messages. As to me, He has given me such a heart that submits to His Voice and accepts His words. However, do all people have so open hearts, as He would like? Are all people grown up enough to look for the personal communication with the Lord, or they are still sitting under the lid of the human idle talk and fleshly lessons?

I tell you the truth and I do not lie that for many the faith in Jesus is still chained till now by some religious stagnation, i.e. devoid of development and growth. My eyes can still see children, who are sitting on the chairs in the hall. Such men clap in a touching trance and are still singing that song, which words say:

"He sends us His Love, His wonderful Love from Heavens - He sends us His Love on the Wings of a White Dove..."

The song is really beautiful and inspired by the God. However, have the believers really felt the Wings of the White Dove? Have they understood "when Noah was carried upon the waters"(according to the words of the song)? Since, being covered by the lid of the meeting, all they are ready to swear that God has surely sent them His wonderful Love upon the Wings of the White Dove. And then? What does it happen when people leave the meeting? It became that the chief went away - no on the Wings of the White Dove, but by the tyres of his luxury car. As to the rest ones - they have still been crying "Alleluia" under the influence of "the wonderful love" and rejoice to the prosperity of their chief, as if God has given it to them, too...

The Truth is that the last generations of hired pastors and preachers have long ago stopped thinking about the Wings of the White Dove. For the wings of some immense plane, which would ferry them across the ocean, are much more desirable for them. Since they will receive there the most tempting schooling - the schooling to make a business with faith and to become in this way prosperous kings of Babylon.

I do not believe that the White Dove spreads His Wings over the Babylon's meetings. The God's Wonderful Love endures neither the egoism, nor the hypocrisy, nor the careerism, nor the preaching for money. Since these darkened and demonical pastors will not find their destiny in the Fire of Father, but in the fiery lake of the God's anger. That is why, I pray my Lord to visit you personally and let the God's Holy Spirit testify by His Wings to all prophetic visions you are to see in this book. So you will understand that there is no only a White Dove in the spiritual world over your heart. You will also see other birds, ready to offer you their wings, provided that you are ready to ask for them.

Now, let me show to you the very vision, in which Jesus revealed Himself to my heart like the Last Noah. Here are the words He told me:

"Stefan! Know by your Lord that I will provoke terrible quakes in Babylon through the visions in this book. Many of its kings will not only be threatened, but cut off by the Lord's Power. Therefore, I warn by you all the God's children: do not pay attention to the screams and cries, which this book will provoke in the spiritual world! Since there is one nightmare for the devil and I am this nightmare! This nightmare appears in My words, by which I enlighten his wickedness and uncover the shroud of his mysteriousness. And you, what do you think about it? Are there secrets that the devil has hidden and continue to hide from the God's people? Are there personifications of Lucifer, by which he has succeeded in hiding himself from the exposing of Truth?"

"Oh, Jesus! It is really written on the forehead of the prostitute:

"MYSTERY! BABYLON THE GREAT! THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH..." (Revelation 17:5)

If the Revelation of Your apostle and prophet John talks about the kingdom of the devil by such words, it is naturally for the devil to hide in a mystery..."

Jesus smiled to my words and kept talking. He said:

"If it is naturally for the devil to hide in a mystery, then, are not My words deadly for his activity? Did not I tell about the devil and his servants:

"It is enough for the student to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebub, how much more the members of his household! "So do not be afraid of them. There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known..." (Matthew 10:25-26)

Then, what do you think? Why people do not want the Wings of the White Dove, but instead harden in the deceit of the sin? If the Holy Spirit came down on the earth by His Wings of a White Dove, will not the devil oppose to Him his own wings? Does not a bird stand against a bird?"

"So it is, Jesus! The name of the devil is Satan and it means "antagonist"..."

"Then, look at the vision I give you now. For your Lord is the Last Noah in it, the Holy Spirit is the White Dove, but the opponent - you can see him by yourself..."

After these His words, Jesus touched my head, so that the vision itself appeared before my eyes. Here, I could see how the Arc of the Last Noah was skimming over the waters of the worldly wickedness. Inside the very Arc, I set my eyes on Jesus - He was really the Last Noah. When my eyes met the deep pupils of the Lord, He gave me a sign with His hand, saying:

"Come next to Me and you will see and comprehend the sign I am going to perform..."

While Jesus was talking to me, the very Power of the Holy Spirit put me at Him, inside the Arc. Here, the Last Noah told me again:

"Look at Me like at That One, Who is hurry to destroy the old world and to give His children one new world without evil, without sin and without darkness..."

His words were very deep for me to understand them in the first moment. That is why I asked Him:

"What do You have in mind, Lord? How should I understand You? What does it mean for me to look at You like at That One, Who is hurry to destroy the old world?"

In reply, Jesus told me:

"Does not My Word say that God was grieved in His Heart at the multiplied wickedness upon the earth? He was no only grieved, but He decided to destroy the world by flood, saving only Noah and his offspring from the whole mankind. Does not the same happen today, Stefan? Does not the oppression of the terrible defeat come over this world? Are not the Last Noah and His offspring, Who will only be saved from it?"

"So it is, Lord!"

"Tell Me then: Is there a place for Satan and his demons in the new world of the Lord?"

"No, there is not such a place for Satan, because he and his demons are excluded and condemned..."

"Do you understand now how you should look at Me? Do you understand how you should look at That One, Who is hurry to destroy the old world...?"

"Yes, Jesus! I understand now that You Are not only the Last Noah, but also the Judge, Who condemns and throws the wicked out of His Presence..."

In that moment, the Face of Jesus changed and became very strictly. He looked at me with a sharp look and told me:

"See then how the Judge throws the wicked out of His Presence..."

After these words of Jesus, it became something that shook my heart very powerfully. The Last Noah bent down at His feet. In the following moment, His hands picked up a black raven. The Judge looked at the raven with angry look, pointed him the waters of the lawlessness and told him:

"There is no place for you in the new world I am creating now. There are waters of wickedness, coming out of your heart; that is why you will be drinking waters of wickedness during all days of your life. Rest in the old world and go about back and forth until I take My people away from you and until you drag your own in the darkness..."

So the raven flew away from the hands of the Judge. He was flying back and forth over the waters of wickedness, going away from the Arc. Then the Last Noah raised His hands to the Heaven of Father, so that the Holy Spirit, personified like a Dove, came flying to Him from the Heaven. Here, Lord began to speak to His Dove, saying:

"Go and look for a Rest for Your feet. When You found such a Rest - come and let Me know about it..."

So the Dove flew away from the hands of Jesus, going round over the waters of the wickedness. However, He could not find a Rest for His feet; so He came back to the Arc and His eyes were talking to the Last Noah, saying:

“The wickedness is very great and I could not find a Rest for My feet. However, I prepared the time for Your coming...”

After these words of the Dove, Jesus looked at me and asked:

“Did you understand My vision? Did you understand who the black raven is? Did you understand why the White Dove did not find a Rest for His feet at His first flight?”

“My Lord! I understood everything You revealed to me because of Your Kindness and Mercy. The black raven was the devil. You predestined him the fate to go round back and forth by the time he gathered his own from the waters of the wickedness. After that, Your White Dove appeared from the Heaven. If He did not find a Rest for His feet at His first flight, it is because of the fact that it was His old testament’s flying, when Father sent Him only at His servants, the prophets, so that they prophesy to the world about Your appearance like a Son of Man. However, according to the written, at His second flight from Your hand, the White Dove will bring to You an olive twig...”

The eyes of Jesus were looking at me with such sparkles, so that I understood that my answer had satisfied Him. Here, Lord began to speak again. He told me:

“Let Me turn you back to the black raven. Did you remember My words, by which I turned to him?”

“Yes, Jesus! You told him that there was no place for him in the new world You was creating, because of the wicked waters in his heart. You, Lord, commanded him to remain in the old world to go round to and fro until You save Your own people and until he drags his own away...”

“Then, look at the verses from “Genesis”. What do they tell you, Stefan?”

“My Lord! They were talking about the same thing. Since it was written in them:

“After forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark and sent out a raven, and it kept flying back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth...” (Genesis 8:6-7)

“So, as you are convinced by yourself, the raven will be flying back and forth over the face of the earth until the waters of whatever wickedness dry up. However, what does it mean the waters of this wickedness to dry up while the raven is flying back and forth? Is not this verse strange for you?"

"Yes, Jesus! It is really strange. It is difficult for me to understand it. Only You can explain to me its secret..."

After these my words, Jesus stretched His hand, saying to me:

"Follow Me and you will see how the raven keeps flying back and forth. You will also understand why the waters of the wickedness dry up..."

So Lord raised me over the very waters of the wickedness, so that I perceived the raven very soon. He kept flying back and forth by his black wings and raised very big waves around himself. Here the secret was already getting evident. Since all the waters of the wickedness began to gather in the black beak of the raven. He was drinking them with a great power, growing more and more. He was getting more and more powerful, but the waters were getting down. The more the raven was growing up, the more evidently he kept flying back and forth, from the one end of the earth to its other end. It made me ask Jesus:

"My Lord! How should I understand this flying of the raven to and fro? I have a feeling that his destiny, given him by the Judge, is hidden just in this "back and forth", "to and fro"..."

Jesus smiled to my question. Then He told me:

"Is it possible for the Judge to predestine somebody's fate and this person might escape this seal upon his life? For a greater assurance, remember what the words of Satan at his coming before the God were, when My Father would test His servant Job. What did My Father ask the devil? Which were the words, he answered with?"

There was too much Light in the Lord's lips that enlightened my heart. That is why I told Him:

"Jesus! Here, before the Face of God and Father, Satan was asked:

"Where have you come from?" (Job 1:7)

Then the devil answered Him:

"From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it..." (Job 1:7, KJV)

In answer to the quoted verses, Jesus began again to talk to me, saying:

“Go and warn all My people that the more the end of the times is coming, the more the raven will be going to and fro and will be drinking in himself all the waters of the wickedness. So finally, all the wickedness of all people in the world will be gathered in the heart of Satan and he will be the spiritual father of all wicked ones. And when the beak of the black raven has drunk the last drop of the wickedness, given to him, then it will come the moment for his full exalting and raising against the Trinity. You, however, see now how the Last Noah will send for second time His White Dove over the face of the earth...”

After these His words, Lord raised again the White Dove in His hands and told Him:

“Go and gather all My people until it is still a Day...”

So the Holy Spirit flew away from the hand of the Lord, going round the earth. Despite I have been waiting for Him, He did not come back until the sun did not begin to set down. And when it was already hiding below the horizon, I lost my patience and asked Jesus:

“My Lord! Why have we been waiting so long for the return of the White Dove?”

In reply, Jesus told me:

“As long as it is Day on the world, the White Dove will gather My people and will save them. However, a moment is coming, when the Luminary will go down and the darkness that can be felt will appear on the world. A moment before the Sunset, the Dove will come back in the hand of your Lord, so that to bring to Him the last saved generations. Now, look at all this...”

Indeed, in the moment, when the last sunbeams were hiding below the horizon, the White Dove came flying to the Lord with an olive twig in His beak. So the last saved generations, coming with His Wings, began to fill the Arc. Here, Jesus stretched His hands, caressing the Wings of the White Dove with a great tenderness. Then He gave me a sign to see what He was going to do. So Lord touched at first the one Wing of the Dove, tearing off a little feather from It; then He touched the latter, tearing a second little feather. By both feathers in His hands, Jesus approached to me, saying:

“Look at the last generations of saved people, Stefan! These are two generations that found the Way to the God’s Holiness and rose by the Wings of the White Dove...”

I looked at the two feathers and the Power of the Holy Spirit transformed them in a moment, so that while I was growing smaller, the feathers were growing and became bigger. Then those tender white partitions of the plumage turned very soon before my heart into light God’s people, united by one mind and in one thought. Embraced each other, and at the same time, joined in the very stem of the feather, they were really a personification of Holiness and Love. I pointed them to Jesus and cried:

“My Lord! These feathers are beautiful! And the very partitions of plumage are light God’s people, united by Holiness and Love...”

Then Jesus answered:

“They are not only splendid! They are the most glorified God’s generations, since they are withstood in the time of the greatest evil. Since, the more the coming of the Son of Man has been drawing on, the more the raven has been drinking in himself the waters of the wickedness. And going to and fro, he has been corrupting and killing many people. However, your Lord is showing now those, who withstood the attacks of the raven, surviving to the end upon the Wings of the White Dove...”

There was a secret, playing on the lips of Jesus, which I could not still understand. That is why, I asked Him:

“My Lord! What are these God’s generations like? For I see that You showed to me two little feathers, i.e. – two generations of the Holy Spirit. Before that, pointing at the raven – Satan, You also showed to me two appearances of the devil. The appearance “to” and the appearance “fro”, since he was going “to and fro”. Should I understand then that these two little feathers from the two Wings of the Dove have overcome the two appearances of the raven...?”

“Yes, you should understand them just in this way! Remember again My words that these are the two generations of the God’s Holiness. Now, think! Where in My Word is made known the Way of the God’s Holiness? For I am the Way, Truth and Life. Wherever the Way of the Holiness is appeared, there the generations appear, too...”

I looked at my Holy Lord and the two little dove feathers He was holding in His hands. I also looked at the very Arc, shining because of the God's Holiness. Then my eyes filled with tears and some words rose from the depth of my heart. I told Him:

"Lord! Your Way is in Holiness! Now, when I am looking at Your wonderful vision, I can not help reminding the words of the psalm that appears the Way of the Holiness to us. For all Your Holy visions that You gave me in the last books were reflected in the words of this psalm. Now, I am going to confess these words by my lips:

"I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago. I will meditate on all your works and consider all your mighty deeds. Your ways, O God, are holy. What god is as great as our God? You are the God who performs miracles; you display your power among the peoples. With your mighty arm you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph..." (Psalm 77:11-15)

And what might Your arm be, Lord, save the White Wings of Your Holy Spirit? What might Your generations be unless the descendants of Jacob and Joseph?"

In answer to my words, Lord took again the little white feathers in His hands. Then He asked me:

"Should My people stand in the world, when I expect them in My Arc? Should men be led by men, when the arm of the Almighty has written them in the Book of Life like descendents of Jacob and Joseph? Should they be walking in all the ways of the world instead of rising with Me on the Way of the Holiness?"

Here, I tell you that the Sun is already going down below the horizon and the White Dove will every moment drop His Wings in the Arc. And if you are ardent and zealous to be inspired by My prophetic words, then I will surely see in you descendents of Jacob and heirs of Joseph. Therefore, follow Me in the Holy visions that I will give to My prophet. Since the time is very hard, and the raven – very horrible in his power..."

After these words of Jesus the visions with the Noah's Arc stopped, and the Wings of the White Dove filled my heart. It gave me the power to announce the Heavenly message of my Lord and King.

3. THE WAY OF THE GOD'S HOLINESS

My brother! My faithful friend!

Many of us have never understood the God's Heart, nor have ever comprehended how the Jesus' care for our souls and hearts is great and perfect. I want for you to know that the weight of the God's visions over my heart is so great that I have already cried many times to the Lord for some break and a rest. However, this way Jesus told me categorically again that His Rest is more important than mine. For my rest will be refreshment for my own self, but His Rest is a Spirit and Life for all His children.

Then, what do you think? Is it easy for a man to peer in the God's plans? Is it easy all living visions to be born in the human heart? At least – are you thinking about the fact that this Bread, which Lord gives to you through His servant from Heaven, must go through the Fire, so that to become a Bread? That is why my heart passes through a burning, known for few, with every prophetic book. May be it is better to be so. However, when you have passed through a burning, your hunger for at least one warm word and sincere thankfulness increases too much. At the other hand, the persecution upon our heart is very great and we can hardly guess to refresh and encourage our hearts. I tell it with a pain, because our friends have been sowing their finances for the last months, but their hearts have become silent for us long since.

Understand me, friends! Today Lord has still been speaking without being silent, but the day will come, when His lips will give up speaking. It will not because of a revolt or sin of His prophet, but because there is no respect to His words. Then many will cry, saying:

“Talk to us, Lord! Why do not You want to talk to us yet?”

And you, why are you so crooked? Why did you give up being sincere and faithful? Why did you accept the deceit that His prophet writes books only in order to let go the reins? Why did not you see the load he was carrying, so that you might help him? Why did not you remember that the hands of Moses weakened at the fight against Amalek and God gave him a support through Aaron and Hur? Why did you decide by yourself to become a load for the prophet, offering him your burdens instead of devoting yourselves to a fast and prayers, so that the deed of the prophet might overcome the deeds of false prophets? I tell you, brother that if I do not see everything, Jesus sees it. He not only sees it, but there is a reproach in His lips to many, who read His prophetic messages. For such people read, but do not live these words. The relation with the God's prophet for them is prompted by the desire to increase the collections in their bookshelves instead of leading their hearts to repentance. Should I say then that I am at a loss? No, I will not do it! For Jesus knows His Own people and He will never lose them. However, I was in debt before Him to write these lines. For many have exchanged the following of Jesus with some greed of the soul, with one hunger for prophetic revelations and secrets that is not able to correct the spiritual look and to perform an irreversible change into the hearts.

The vision with the Way of the Holiness, revealed to me by Jesus, is very pure and holy; that is why I can not begin to talk about it without preliminary negotiation and advice. Therefore, let me now tell you the words, by which Jesus prepared my heart. As a beginning, He told me:

"Stefan! I will not really speak much more to My children. Since the greater and terrible the deceit has become today, the more visions and revelations I gave them through you. Despite the extremely abundant God's Blessing upon your heart, there were not many before the Throne of My Father, but only few. And if you think that this fact surprises your Father, you have not understood yet that there are verses, by which the Almighty has commanded a destiny for your life. Verses, by which you will become by yourself a sign and miracle against Babylon..."

What are these verses, Jesus?" – I asked. Lord told me in reply:

"These are the verses about the terrible Babylon's doom. Verses that your Father turned into life for you. You will go by yourself through all their pain and trouble. Since My Holy Father looked to the earth and told about the prostitute:

"Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Wail over her! Get balm for her pain; perhaps she can be healed. "We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed; let us leave her and each go to his own land, for her judgment reaches to the skies, it rises as high as the clouds." "The LORD has vindicated us; come, let us tell in Zion what the LORD our God has done..." (Jeremiah 51:8-10)

Here the oil of that balm that resurrects the dead, make the blind ones to see and the deaf to hear poured out from Zion to the earth. And you, taking the balm, had to try to heal Babylon for all ten years.

Here, I tell you, Babylon can not be healed!

Despite you gave to many Holy visions from the Sanctuary, Fire from the Altar and anointing Oil from the perfumer, her people remained the same – unrepented, unhealed and proud, mockers and gossipers. Shameless people, for who the voice of high-standing and well-paid man was of a greater worth than the testimony of the poor and humble one.

Then, why should I speak them? Why should I call them to repent, when this word is forbidden in their hearts? Why should your heart be overfilled with their malice and mockery? They will not really be healed, because they do not wish to leave Babylon. But whoever stands in Babylon, he accepts her abomination, as well as her sore plagues. And nothing of the balm he has drunk will be of use to him. At the contrary – it will open new sores in him, because his wickedness has already multiplied.

Just so the prophetic books, given to you by Me and My Father from the Sanctuary, will open new sores upon the wicked ones. I will command you to leave Babylon very soon, because the sign already appeared and the portent against her has been done. As to you, as well as all My people, you will find a calm and comfort on the crossroads, where you will receive more love and faithfulness, than you have ever dreamt. Yes, I tell you! Your profanation and disgrace by pastors-hirelings and theologians will never be forgotten by the Heaven. The Sword of the Lord will never be removed from your hand, or the Bow of the Lord or His Arrows from your quiver. Now, follow Me and you will see why Babylon was not healed from the balm of the Lord, nor the wicked were changed by your testimony...”

After these last words, Jesus revealed the vision before my heart. Here, my eyes could see the God's Way of the Holiness. It was like a very narrow pathway, enlightened by the rays of the Holy Spirit that went upwards and which end was hidden in the very Heaven of Father. A great number of demons were standing on the both sides of the Way of the Holiness. Flapping their wings, all they made a very strong wind that was blowing against everybody, who would go along the Lord's Way. Then Lord pointed at the Way and told me:

"Do you perceive how many demons are there on the both sides of the Lord's Way?"

"Yes, Jesus! It might be seen very clearly..."

"And did you see how the demons themselves were creating a strong wind by their wings, so that they might deflect that one, who would step on the Way?"

"Yes, my Lord! I saw that, too..."

"Know then that the demons from the right and the demons from the left of the way are working to perform the will of the black raven. As to him, you saw in the previous vision that he liked to go flying to and fro, to the right and to the left..."

"Should I understand then that the demons from the right and from the left are working for the devil's to and fro, right and left?"

"You should understand it just in this way, My boy. Now, let Me put you in the very vision, so that you might feel by your heart what the attacks "from the right" and the attacks "from the left" mean..."

After these His words Jesus caught me by His hands and put me at the lower end of the very Lord's Way. Seen His Presence, the demons bristled up in a moment and came into position for defence, raising wings in front of their faces. Lord pointed at the Way and was hurry to tell me:

"Look now what is going to happen with those men, who the devil will attack by the demons "from the right"..."

Together with the words of Jesus, two men appeared who were already stepping on the Lord's Way. Then the demons from the right began to flap their wings, so that the wind was already buffeting the men. With a forelock, flown by the wind, they bent double because of the demonic whirlwind, since they did not know what to do. And here, the first one told the second:

"Where did we both come? Where did our faith lead us to? It is terrible here! Can you feel it?"

The latter confirmed, saying:

"Indeed, so it is. We are only asking for trouble here..."

Heard their talk, the demons began to blow against their hearts more fiercely, so that the wind was already turning into hurricane. Then the hurricane itself tossed the men out of the Way. And here, the black raven came flying over them. He was flying lower and lower until he took them captive and they became a part of his right wing. It was very terrible for my eyes, so that I could not endure it and asked my Lord:

"What did it happen, Jesus? Why did the wind attack these men? And then, why did the storm toss them out of the Lord's Way of the Holiness?"

Jesus told me in reply:

"If you have heard their conversation, their words themselves have disclosed them. So tell Me, what were these men talking each other?"

"Lord, the former told the other that the place was terrible, but the latter decided that he was asking for trouble on the Lord's Way of the Holiness..."

"Then, what was the problem of these men?"

"Jesus! They were afraid of the devil. They had not the faith that You were able to keep and protect them on this Way until they were talking and living the Truth. Just then the wind tossed them and they dropped out of the Way. And when they dropped out, then the black raven appeared, too, taking them captive by his right wing..."

"Remember then and let all My brothers and sisters know it that such is the attack "from the right". By this attack the devil makes people religious. Because of their fear of him, they can not get over the demonic wind and drop "to", to the right side of Way. Each dropping out to the right is falling away from the God's Power. Such people, fallen away from the Power of the Holy Spirit, stake later on the strength of the flesh. However, where is the greatest strength of the flesh?"

"Jesus! No doubt, this is the power of the idolatry, the strength of the religious rituals, lacking in the Holy Spirit and full with the spirit of whatever heresy and pagan deceit..."

"Then, look at the second attack, which is the attack "from the left". For you will see there people with other problem..."

I looked again in the vision. And here, two other men appeared on the Lord's Way. Just stepped on the Way, they threw glances at each other and the former told the latter:

"Alleluia! We are already on the Lord's Way!"

But the other answered him:

"It is because we are righteous. Therefore, let us go upwards..."

Here that both men really went uphill. However, just made a step, they threw glances at each other again. Then the former told the latter:

"Do you know what I understood on this Way?"

The latter looked at him with pleasure, asking him:

"What did you understand, brother?"

In reply, the first answered:

"I understood that we are not only the God's righteousness. No! We are the God's Holiness! O, Alleluia!"

Just pronounced his words, the first one as if gave a sign to the demonic hordes from the left. They flapped their wings and directed their wind to the Way. The first man, who has already felt the wind, cried again:

"Do you feel how Lord is excited because of our holiness, don't you?"

And the second one replied:

"This puff by the God calls us to go upwards and to keep our hearts from the loathsome heathens. Since we are holy! O, Alleluia!"

In that moment, the demons turned the wind into the real hurricane. Then the first man, swayed by the wind, told again:

"Everything we touch becomes holy. Yes, so it is. Our clothes are holy, our homes are holy, and our praise to the God is holy, too..."

But the second man took out a wad of banknotes and was waving them over his head, telling the first one:

"Not only the clothes, homes and praise. Here, look! Our business became holy, too..."

The first giggled, saying in reply:

"Amen, Amen..."

Obviously, these were his last words. For the hurricane uprooted them from the Lord's Way, sweeping them off, to the left. And here, for my horror, the black raven came down again, flying round their heads. He flapped by his left wing and pulled them at his feathers...

I was looking at the tragedy of the both men and I wished it had not happened. Then Jesus asked me again:

“Do you understand what the problem of these men was?”

“Yes, my Lord! They had neither any fear, nor a thrill, nor whatever benevolence before Your Holiness! Just stepped on Your Way, they decided to be righteous. Just made a step, they decided they were holy. Just made some steps, they made holy even their money. Then the hurricane from the left hit them. It swept them off the Way of the Holiness and made them a target for the black raven...”

In reply to my words, Jesus said:

“Let all My children know that such is the attack “fro”. This attack comes “from the left” and defeats the heart. Such is the destiny of whatever self-righteousness, haughtiness and vainglory. That is why, let everybody of My people remember My words:

IF THE FEAR OF THE DEVIL MAKES PEOPLE RELIGIOUS, THEN THE LACK OF FEAR OF THE GOD MADE THEM VAINGLORIOUS. SO THEY EITHER FILL OUT THE MEASURE OF THEIR FATHERS IN ORDER TO BE THE PRIDE OF THE EVIL ONE, HIS “TO AND FRO” OVER THE SURFACE OF THE EARTH.

For nobody can withstand on the Lord’s Way with fear of the devil and without fear of the God. Apostle Paul warned you once just about these men, who drop out of the Way of the Holiness. He advised all you:

“That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive...”

(KJV – Ephesians 4:14)

What does it mean for anybody to be tossed and carried about, Stefan?”

“Jesus! It means that the raven tosses him “to and fro”. For I saw in the vision that only those men, who could not withstand the winds of the cunning and deceit, were tossed and carried away...”

“So it is, My boy. Since the devil’s “to and fro” is really a tossing and carrying about. However, I want to show to you some other people, who will come on the Lord’s Way of the Holiness. They will withstand the winds, despite all the fury and malice of the evil one. And you, as a beginning, see what the heirs of Jacob will do. Since Jacob always appears before Joseph...”

4. THE HEIRS OF JACOB AND JOSEPH

The words of the Lord filled my being with inner delight and joy. So, I turned my head and looked again at the Lord's Way. Here, my eyes perceived the heirs of Jacob. These were two youths with light faces, who were slowly coming near the Way. Then I noticed that the reason for their slow walking was an immense white and smooth Stone in the shape of refined cube. The men themselves, caught the Stone in their hands, were moving slowly and their feet were already on the Way. The demons from the right side of the Way saw everything done by the men and began to cry in horror, as if they were surprised. However, there really was a surprise. Since which of these dark predators had supposed that the men would go along the Way, carrying the white Stone? So the screams of the demons became much stronger, so that the black raven came flying, evidently called by his servants. He spread his dark wings and began to caw. So he encouraged the demons to continue their attacks against the heirs of Jacob. Incited by the raven, the demons from the right flapped their wings together, so that a hurricane rose to the men on the Way. They, however, bent next to the Very Stone, enveloped Him with their hands and bowed their heads, offering prayers to the God and Father. Despite the fact that the hurricane in its power would uproot even trees, the effort of the demons was on the brink of ruin. The men were still standing bent near the Stone, Who they had embraced. Since the Stone weighed much more than the strength of the hurricane was. This fact enraged the raven very much. Cawing in his fury, he flew upon his own demons, throwing them down with his wings. After that his scream became very strong, so that my ear could catch these words:

"Is this a wind or a slight puff? Until what time will such as you sustain losses for my kingdom? See the wind, by which you can blow..."

So the raven himself stood against the men on the Way, filled with ambition. He spread his wings, raising a terrible tempest on the very Way, many times stronger than the hurricane, created by his demons. Then the men clung to the Stone much more powerfully, despite the tempest was already raising their bodies in the air. With faces, turned to the Heaven, the men called the Lord's Name much more zealously. And here, a miracle happened on the Way. The Stone began to shine powerfully. A Power from the Stone came into the men themselves, so that in the following moment their bodies became stone and they stepped strongly on the very Way. Then the raven squawked again with his croaking voice, saying to his demons:

"This is the hand of the Son of Jehovah. We are powerless against Him. Be hurry to hide and leave this place until the most terrible of His ancient signs pass away..."

A moment after the command of the raven, the demons were slipping into the depth of the earth. But there, on the Lord's Way, a Heavenly sign really appeared. I could see stairs, coming down from the very Heavens of Father and angels, ascending on it, who had in their hands spears and bows with fiery arrows. Only a moment later, the fiery arrows were already flying to the earth, defeating those belated demons, which had not succeeded in hiding. But the God's messengers approached the heirs of Jacob and touched their hearts, saying:

"Give Glory to the Lord! For His Power is excellent in you. Since you came on the Way of the Holiness together with the Chosen and Precious Stone from Zion. And building yourselves in Him, you got over the oppressor. Hear His words, by which He is sealing you like descendants of Jacob..."

In the following moment, one of the messengers looked at my Lord, bowed before Him and gave Him a sign with His hand. Then Jesus, smiling and rejoiced in His heart, approached to the very Way of the Holiness. He stepped over the Stone and joined with It. After that He turned and laid His hands upon the heads of the both men, saying them:

"Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is nothing false! I tell you: From now on you will have the Wings of the White Dove and you will see the Heaven opened. The God's angels will come down at This Stone, upon whom you will build yourselves by faith. And despite the place of your forefather Jacob is always terrible, it is also glorious. For this is a God's Home, Heavenly Door, Way of Holiness, and Stairs to the Eternity. Therefore, let My firmness perform perfectly its deed in you until I come and take you at My Place..."

My eyes were full with admiration, but the joy was springing from my heart in waves. I looked at Jesus and His two elated witnesses and cried to Him, saying:

"My beautiful Lord! Give us always to build ourselves in You! So that we might be smooth and living stones, in which the White Dove has found a dwelling for His Wings. For my heart is rejoicing very much now, when hearing the raven to confess that he is powerless before Your Mighty Hand..."

In answer to my words, Jesus raised His hand, calling me on the Way. When I stepped next to Him, He told me:

"Remember this vision with the heirs of Jacob forever. Since that one, who has the faith of Jacob, he always knows who the Stone for his rest is.

Satan has no invented winds against this Stone!

For the Stone weighs on Its place with that Might, by which the Creator can call everything in life, or deprive it of existence within a moment. If anybody builds himself in Me, having trust in Me like a Foundation of his life and a Stone for his faith, such man will receive the Wings of My Spirit. The Heaven will always be opened over This Stone and the God's angels will be coming down to serve Him.

Where are you, black raven? Where were the strength of your wings and the fury of your croaking lost? Where did your winds disappear? Did not God turn all your efforts in vain? I am your greatest nightmare and the descendants of Jacob are the Stone, whom you can neither swallow, nor remove.

Here, I command to My living Church:

My Bride! Come on the Lord's Way with the faith of Jacob! Lie upon the Chosen Stone with the faith of Jacob! And when you see the Heaven to be opened above your eyes, and the Wings of the Dove to be joined with your hands – be hurry to perform Jacob's deeds! Since that one, who joins together with the Stone of Zion, he is going to fight against the stone of Babylon..."

After these His words, Lord looked at me with a zealous look, saying:

"See now what the heirs of Jacob are going to do and what is the Power of the living stones..."

After these words of Jesus, the vision changed. Here, my eyes could see how the both men approached a meadow, where there were lots of shepherds and flocks. All they had bowed heads and sad airs and were looking at the place of a Well, which entrance was covered by an immense stone. Then Jesus pointed at the Well, saying to me:

“Till when will My eyes see this stone Babylon, who is tempting and killing people? Till when will thousands upon thousands be lacking in the Living water? I tell you, Stefan:

Till that moment, when the faith of Jacob appeared amongst these shepherds and flocks. Therefore, see what My witnesses will do...”

I looked at the both God’s men. Here, they approached the sealed Well. They caught the stone by the God’s Power in their Wings and removed it aside, so that the waters of the Holy Spirit gushed out in a moment, and the thirsty sheep rushed to drink from it. However, the vision was not finished like that. Since the Heaven was still standing opened upon the heirs of Jacob. Here, one powerful angel approached my Lord and bowed before Him, asking:

“What is Your Will, Jesus? What must it be done to this stone, which has lied flocks and shepherds that he is the Chosen and Precious One of Zion?”

Lord, with a very great anger in His Voice, commanded to His angels, saying:

“Perform the signs of My Word! Let all who are tempting, lying and killing the faith of My sheep be punished severely together with this stone...”

A moment after the words of Jesus, the angel raised the stone in his hands, but Lord caught me to raise me after His angel. Then my eyes saw how the angel stood upon the sea. Then he threw the stone away in the sea by power that I could not even imagine, crying aloud:

“With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again...”(Revelation 18:21)

While I was looking at the giant waves, rising from the sea, my Lord was talking to me again, saying:

“If anybody of My people has not known this mystery from My Word, let him now see it and understand it. For the stone Babylon, thrown into the sea by the angel in the Revelation, is the same, by which the devil has sealed on many places the Well of the Living water. And if I command today to the heirs of Jacob to stand on the Lord's Way of the Holiness, it is because you should be filled with the Power of the Stone from Zion, Who is immeasurably more powerful than the stone of Babylon. For the present cursed masons and hired preachers have rejected My Foundation and have lied thousands upon thousands with the stone that is tempting.

However, I am calling Jacob! I am calling the heirs of Jacob, who will perform the deeds of Jacob! Come on the Way of the Holiness! Let the Wings of the White Dove raise you at My place!"

After these last words, Lord looked again at me and told me:

"If the descendents of Jacob are powerful to build themselves firmly into the Stone, then let me now reveal to you the vision with the descendents of Joseph. For if he was the excellent one of Father in the antiquity, his offspring would be excellent, too..."

So the vision by Jesus returned on the Lord's Way of the Holiness. Then my eyes noticed the heirs of Joseph. No doubt, their clothes were the most impressive part of their air. Imagine, my brother, white and light clothes, made of the clearest fine linen. So white and clear that the very whiteness was shining upon them by itself. So people approached the Lord's Way and I saw how they both had light ropes in their hands. If the one end of the ropes was in them, then the other their end was going into the very Heaven of Father. So, being pulled by the very ropes, the heirs of Joseph appeared on the Lord's Way of the Holiness. Their sudden appearance provoked a noisy response by the demons from the left side of the Way. Having in mind their task, they were hurry to flap their wings, so that the wind attacked the God's men. However, both men held fast to the Heavenly ropes, so that the wind did not succeed even to shake them. This fact forced the demons to attack again, increasing the wind to a hurricane. But their efforts were again in vain. Furthermore – the strong wind turned the clothes of the men so white that it was evidently how their hearts were shining under the white pleats of the clothes like sparkling diamonds. Without being able to endure the light from their clothes, the demons clamored so terribly that the black raven came flying again. He saw the shining clothes of the men and began to caw ominously, saying to his demons:

“Were you really afraid of these luminous rags? Can not you really pull out these ropes? Gather something more than a storm! Take a mud and dirt and pour them over their clothes, so that the light might not irritate you more...”

Listened to the croaking of the raven, the demons began to bend down and to pick up mud and dirt from the earth. Then they whirled them like a muddy storm, which was already falling down upon the clothes of the men. And here that their clothes really looked dirty and polluted. This fact grieved my heart very deeply. Despite all, the ropes from the Heaven remained white and luminous, and the hearts of the men were still shining like diamonds under the polluted clothes. Keeping hold of the white ropes, they sobbed before the Lord and cried to the Heaven, saying:

“Help us, Lord! For You have beloved us with relations of eternal love! Help us to endure the oppression and malice! Help us to overcome all the mud and dirt, by which the enemy disgraced our names. Help us to keep that devotion, which You gave us...”

In answer to their words, Jesus was moved to tears. Then He told me:

“Did not I promise all godly men that they would be covered with disgrace and abuses because of Me? And did not My apostle Paul warn about the same thing, saying:

“In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived...” (2 Timothy 3:12-13)

Here, I tell you truth that only few have heard from the Lord’s mouth:

THERE IS NO CLEAR AND FINE LINEN THAT HAS NOT ENDURE DISGRACE AND PROFANATION BECAUSE OF ME! AND A CLOTHING, UPON WHICH THERE IS NOT EVIDENT THE PERSECUTION BECAUSE OF MY NAME, IS A DECEITFUL SILK OF SATAN, BY WHICH HE DRESSES THOSE, WHO ARE IN LOVE WITH THEIR OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS!

You, however, come with Me to My witnesses. So you will see what I will do with them...”

After these His words, Jesus approached the descendants of Joseph and told them:

“Everything that is considered as disgrace upon you by the world, the Heaven sees it as a Glory. From the side of the devil, you are abused, but you are glorified from the God’s side. For even till now you remain pure and your clothes are splendid. As to what pulsates under your clothes, it can neither be corrupted by dirt, nor darkened by obscurity...”

In the following moment Jesus, shining like the sun, touched the clothes of His witnesses. So all the black fell down from them and they restored their exquisite beauty and whiteness. But Lord was talking to me again:

“Do you want how the disgrace and abuses are falling from the clothes, without leaving even a speck upon them? Know then that such is the deceit of Satan:

TO COVER THE PURE WITH IMPURE, SO THAT, LOOKING AT THE IMPURE, THE MEN MIGHT BE HURRY TO SLANDER AND DISGRACE MY WITNESSES.

However, what will it happen with traducers and mockers, when I make their sin evident? And these men, who are hurry to cry that somebody is impure, only because the others around them have done it, where will they appear? What is this folly and madness of the perverted ones, who have forgotten the disgrace of the Lord in the yard of the chief-priest?

You, however, see what more will happen with the descendants of Joseph. For I removed the impure from the pure and this will surely enrage the black raven...”

I and Lord were both examining the Way of the Holiness, when the black raven appeared again among his demons. Looking at the light clothes of the God’s men, he downright went crazy and croaked terribly with his voice, saying:

“These here will not escape from me. Let my name not be Satan unless I stop them...”

So the raven spread his wings and stood across the very Lord’s Way. Then clouds of darkness went out of his wings and covered the God’s witnesses. This made my heart shudder, so I was hurry to tell Jesus:

"My Lord! Why do not you interfere? Look – the devil covered the heirs of Joseph with darkness!"

In reply, Jesus smiled to me so sweetly that I understood how naïve was my question. Then He pointed at the darkness, by which the raven wrapped the heirs of Joseph, and asked me:

"If Joseph was in a pit in the antiquity, and then passed through the years of jail, was there a reason for you to wonder that his heirs would have the same privilege, too..."

"Is it really a privilege, Lord?" – I asked again. But Jesus, caressing my head, looked at me with His deep pupils, saying to me:

"Where is the greatest privilege for one luminary – when it is shining in Light, or when it is shining in the darkness?"

I was ashamed of my question and I answered Jesus in this way:

"My Lord! Of course, the darkness is a privilege for the luminary. For it will display its excellence just in it..."

"And what is the superiority of the luminary, My boy?" – Jesus asked me again. The answer was very clear, so that I could not help uttering it. Therefore, I told Him:

"Jesus! The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it!"

"Do you understand now that in all things God works for the good of those who love the Wings of the White Dove? Do you understand now that you also passed through this jail in your life? Since you have pointed by My Father to appear the Prophetic Word. However, how might this word be appeared? What words did Apostle Peter tell you about it?"

"Jesus! He declared in his message:

"And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts..."

(2 Peter 1:19)

"Hence, as you see by yourself, the light shines first in a dark place. Joseph was shining just in this way, since he refused to accept the adultery of the Potiphar's wife. Instead he prophesied from the jail the destiny in the dream of the cupbearer, as well as in the dream of the baker. Therefore, let Me lead you again at My witnesses...”

I and Jesus, we both went down on the Lord’s Way of the Holiness. And here, when my eyes saw the dark cloud of the raven from nearby, I also perceived that the hearts of the Joseph’s descendants were shining like precious diamonds. The very light irritated the raven too much, so that I could feel his own agony. But Jesus stretched His hand out and I cried to the heirs of Joseph:

“Come up before your Lord – children of His Holiness! Since the dungeon is temporary, but the Glory is eternal. For the Baptist and Peter, Paul and Silas, James and John were shining in jails, too...”

While Jesus was talking, mighty rays of Light went out of His lips. They defeated the black cloud and singed the wings of the raven, which squawked and was hurry to fly away. Lord stretched His hands to the heirs of Joseph and told them with a great Kindness:

“Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning. The youth may have come from prison to the kingship, or he may have been born in poverty within his kingdom...” (Ecclesiastes 4:13-14)

Here, I tell you that from now on all living creature on the earth will bless you, since Father gave you to be Zaphenath-Paneah and to lead in the God’s Kingdom the many, who would come from East or West. By that time My Father will drive out before Himself the old and mad kings of Babylon, who were born in darkness, so that to be devoured by darkness...”

After these His words, Lord touched the light ropes, dropped down from the Heaven and cried in a loud Voice:

“Raise them in Your places, Holy Spirit! Give them to find the Rest of Your Wings! For neither their eyes failed in the dungeon, nor the light of their faces darkened there!”

In answer to Jesus, the White Dove appeared in the very heavens. He raised the heirs of Joseph by the white ropes and at once sheltered them in His Wings. I was so captivated and seized with rapture and joy that I told silently Jesus:

"My Lord! I don't know with which of Your generations I am in love more. With the heirs of Jacob, who became living stones, embraced the Precious One from Zion, or with the descendants of Joseph, who were shining like diamonds in the jail and the raven could not darken the light on their faces..."

Jesus smiled to my words. Then He said:

"This Holy Spirit, Who spreads His Wings in your heart, He will give you the Holy Truth of the Lord's Way. And this Truth teaches you that fathers bear sons, and the sons turn soon into fathers. So that if anybody has the faith of Jacob, his children will surely be Joseph. And when Joseph becomes a father, he will surely seek the faith of his father Jacob. So that the descendants of Jacob are always the fathers, but the heirs of Joseph – the sons.

Go and give these My Holy visions to all people, who want to find themselves on the Way of the Holiness. For your God and Father has no many patterns of faith, which He deigns in. He has created the Eternal Seal of His Benevolence already in the antiquity. He seals by it those, who are looking for the same biblical example of faith, Holiness and Love.

Here, the Last Noah is talking to His children and tells them:

Babylon hates you, but the Heaven loves you! Babylon despises you, but the Heaven blesses you! Babylon treats you like animals, but she has forgotten the Eternal mark of the Lord's Arc. Since the animals will be saved in this Arc, but those, who were dragged away to and fro by Satan until the time for his destroying come, they would be doomed.

Whoever hears My Voice today, let him call Me in his heart!

Whoever wants the Wings of the White Dove today, let him ask for the faith of Jacob and Joseph! For the Day for Salvation is still now!

The Day of the olive twigs!

The Day of Noah and His offspring!

I pronounced it! I spoke it!
