"Of David. A psalm.

The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." The LORD will extend your mighty scepter from Zion; you will rule in the midst of your enemies. Your troops will be willing on your day of battle. Arrayed in holy majesty, from the womb of the dawn you will receive the dew of your youth. The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind: "You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek." The Lord is at your right hand; he will crush kings on the day of his wrath. He will judge the nations, heaping up the dead and crushing the rulers of the whole earth. He will drink from a brook beside the way; therefore he will lift up his head..." (Psalm 110)

TO YOUR HEART

My brother! My faithful friend!

The visions with the rivers of Babylon are still standing before my heart. The wind of fury and malice, which the seven evil spirits of Satan directed against me, was the possibly greatest persecution and suffering, which Jesus had ever permitted in my life for Him. I thank my Saviour that He has made impossible my contacts in flesh with any one of our friends. For, they would see in me a man, who is wretched and pitiable; with deep shades under the eyelids, with eyes, swollen with sleeplessness, with constant headache and cordial trouble. Breathless with this view, they would exclaim:

“Is this the servant of Jesus, through whom He talks to us?”

However, I entreat you, my dear brother, do not be tempted by the fact that I share in my books about the attacks of the evil one and my own state! My reason to do it is neither to complain, nor to boast of my suffering for Jesus. I would like for everybody to know that, if God does not save His servant the devil’s fury and hatred, neither will He save them the men, who receive the prophetic word. So, both the spring and the men, drinking from it, will take equal part of suffering for God. So, the words of God’s man of suffering will be fulfilled in our life. Here are these words:

“Then I would still have this consolation - my joy in unrelenting pain – that I had not denied the words of the Holy One...” (Job 6:10)

Understand, my brother, if there is a pledge that is worth to lay your life for it, this is the pledge not to deny the words of God’s Holy Spirit, but to appear them as Light onto the world. Most people would tell you that it would bring you an excessive suffering; you, however, tell them that the suffering for God does not matter; what really matters is the consequence of this suffering. As Apostle James says in his message:

“Brothers, as an example of patience in the face of suffering, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. As you know, we consider blessed those who have persevered. You have heard of Job’s perseverance and have seen what the Lord finally brought about. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy...” (James 5:10-11)

That is why I make mention of the suffering, imposed on me by Almighty God, in the beginning of many books; so that it might be as an example for those, who want to be confirmed in the sorrow and persecution because of the Righteousness of the Righteous One.

In these days, while the arrows were raining down like raindrops upon my back, I began to hear clearer and clearer the words of prophet Isaiah in my heart; the words, by which he declared for generations the vision against the river of Euphrates. Now, let me remember you these words, because they were the reason for Jesus to visit me again in His Kindness and Mercy:

“A dire vision has been shown to me: The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot. Elam, attack! Media, lay siege! I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused...” (Isaiah 21:2)

While I was wondering how to explain the words of the prophet in my heart, a part of these words not only were sounding into my thoughts, but were even resounding like the hits of a hammer upon an anvil:

“Elam, attack! Media, lay siege!”

What this order was? What these names were and what spirits were standing behind them? Doubtless, the order itself was covered by deep and unrevealed mystery. What is more – the words after the order sounded somehow strange, as if they did not have any relation to the former ones.

“I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused...” – the verse was talking. However, who whose groaning is about to bring to an end? And, what is the role of Elam and Media here? Doubtless – God is He Who has promised to wipe our tears and to stop our groaning, according to His excellent words:

“...and the ransomed of the LORD will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away...”

(Isaiah 35:10)

Here, the verses from Isaiah’s prophecy against the river of Euphrates were still resounding in my heart, so that my lips began to call my Lord and to pray Him, saying:

“I pray You, Lord Jesus! Talk to my heart and let me understand why You are giving to me a burden with the words of Your ancient prophet...”

In reply to my prayer, Lord came before my heart and began speaking to me, saying:

“If you dared stand against the mightiest authority of the devil, enlightening through God’s Holy Oil the seven rivers of Babylon, then, why do you wonder at the burden over your heart? Here, I tell you, Lord has a year of retribution, to uphold Zion’s cause. For the sake of this cause, your God and Father has commanded to be held a competition; in particular, a remarkable relay-race; during this race, His last prophets will unseal and appear the words, spoken by His ancient prophets. You took up the words of prophet Isaiah and his vision against Euphrates and appeared it to the children of God; therefore, the deepest words from the word of the prophet against the wicked river stand in your heart now. Can you feel these words?”

“Yes, my Lord! I feel in my heart the words:

“Elam, attack! Media, lay siege!”

And after them, the significant verse:

“I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused...”

I am straining all my faith to understand these words of the prophet; nevertheless, my mind is fruitless...”

To my last words, Jesus cordially smiled; then, He told me:

“Do you remember the words, written by My Apostle Paul? Do you remember his words that in a race all the runners run, but only One gets the prize?”

“Yes, Jesus! I remember these words perfectly well; and not only them, but also the vision with the Playground of Life, which You gave me in the book against the spirit of Achan...”

“Then, what do you think? Who should take the baton from Isaiah and proclaim it to the last generations? Is not this He Who runs in order to get His prize?”

“Jesus! Doubtless, You Are the Prophet, Who gathers all God’s prophets in Himself. Now, I pray You to make my heart able to understand the deep secret, hidden in the words of prophet Isaiah. Take the baton, Jesus! I will follow You with all the faith of my heart...”

In the next moment, Jesus stretched His hands to me and raised me, laying me on His shoulders. Then, He told me:

“Now, let the Prophet pass the race instead of you! And you, you should only delight in the Power of the Holy One to find the greatest depths of God...”

After these words, Jesus stretched His right hand ahead, so that a vision appeared in front of my eyes. Here, I could see God’s prophet Isaiah, bent down over a parchment. He was holding his grey-haired head, and his face was full of tears. Over the very prophet, a Lord’s radiance had appeared; the rays of this radiance were touching his heart, making him sob in his unbearable grief. Here, I heard the prophet repeat aloud the words of Almighty God:

“A dire vision has been shown to me: The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot...”

After these words, the sobbing of Isaiah became louder. Then, God’s rays went out of Lord’s radiance. In the next moment, the prophet cried:

“Elam, attack!”

And then, he added: “Media, lay siege!”

Suddenly, the eyes of Isaiah grew calm and he quietly said:

“I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused...”

Then exactly, Jesus stretched His hand and took the scroll from the hands of Isaiah, telling me:

“I am Alpha and Omega; the prophet-Alpha and the prophet-Omega. Therefore, look at the baton, which the Alpha passes to the Omega...”

While Jesus was talking to me, the scroll in His right hand shone with the sunlight in its apogee. Then, Lord separated from prophet Isaiah and raised me up, to the Holy Heaven of Father, so that my eyes could see again God’s Sanctuary... Here, Jesus caught me with His strong hands, taking me down from His shoulders, and told me:

“According to the Will of Him Who has called you in His Holiness and Glory and has pointed you according to the intention of His Heart, we will step before Him now. So, fall on your knees before Him, because you will receive devotion in order to become a guardian of God's Holy secrets, locked till the last time..."

So, I fell on my knees in front of the Sanctuary of Father, hiding my eyes with palms. Jesus stepped further to God and Father and told Him:

"Holy Father! Your servant was devoted by Your Son to pierce and cut by the Sword of Truth the creators of Babylon's rivers. So, his faith reached the limit in the knowledge of Your Will. Now, I am praying You, My Father, to devote Your servant into those Holy secrets of Your Heart, which You have kept locked till this last time. For, Your people, Father, pass through grief and groaning on the earth; grief and groaning that are very great and terrible.

Bring to an end all the groaning of My Bride, My Father! Let Your servant, the prophet, see how Elam attacks and how Media is laying siege round him. So, refreshing comfort will come over Your children and piece for all who love You."

In reply to Jesus' words, the Voice of Almighty went to my heart. With Voice like the waters of a waterfall, Father told me:

"Son of Man! Today, My eyes see how Elam attacks all over the earth. Black and frightful, like fire and smoke of eternal destruction and ruin, he devours by all his power those, who have been given over to him by My hand. Here, the Chief of every spirit and being, Lord of the Powers and hosts, is looking at the wickedness of the attacking Elam. He stretches His hand and He commands:

Media! Lay siege round Elam by the mighty Power of Lord your God! Pierce and crush him and let him understand that his wickedness will only befall the wicked men and his evil will only pursue the evil ones. As to those, who love Me and who accept My servants, Mercy and Faithfulness will surround them. I will let them know the depths of My Heart, so that they might see the Law of Him Who never changes like shifting shadows.

Attack Elam, so that Media might lay siege round you!

For, when Media does it, I will already have brought to an end all the groaning of My people.

Here, Son of Man! I am sending you to the faithful Church of My Son! Those, in whose hearts Trinity reigns, will surely understand that I am He Who has sent you! Follow My Son and see everything that you will be open..."

Father's Voice stopped speaking and the wonderful words of God were pulsating into my heart like blazing fire. Then, Jesus approached me, stretched His hand to me and told me:

"Come and abide upon My shoulders! So, you will be able to see the mystery of all mysteries; the mystery of Abraham and Melchizedek; the mystery of Daniel and Darius; even the mystery of that superscription "Mene, mene, tekel, parsin", which Lord's hand wrote on the wall in Belteshazzar's palace. In this mystery, man can see always to shine My Father's words:

"Attack, Elam, Media, lay siege!"

1. THE VISIONS WITH THE APPEARANCE OF MEDIA AND ELAM

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

By all the love in my heart, I pray for you to have the necessary humbleness and faith in order to accept one of the deepest spiritual messages, which Jesus has ever ordered me to proclaim. The need of this message is so big now that if you imagine how many people live in the desert and their hearts are drying up under the scorching sun, you will understand that this message is exactly the rain that will revive them and return them to God. This makes me be so excited and shaken, because of the secret, which Jesus revealed before my heart. He came to me again and told me:

“Have the strong faith to follow Me in what I am going to reveal you. For, thousands of prayers of men, who are drying up inside their hearts and who do not know how to get over the evil, are rising up to Heaven today. Most of them are going round in the vicious circle of some terrible and increased lawlessness, without having known that they are captives of Elam; without having known that My Father has declared against his wickedness long ago and has given an exit way for His children. That is why My Church is groaning. That is why those, who are pure in heart, are bending down like wheat-ears under the pressure of the scorching wind. However, tell Me now: what groan is like? What is for somebody to be groaning because of the Evil?”

“Jesus! When somebody is groaning, he is crying to God again and again with all the grief inside his heart. Now, I remember the words of the psalm that say:

“They repay me evil for good and leave my soul forlorn. Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting. When my prayers returned to me unanswered...” (Psalms 35:12-13)

Here, this return of the prayer into the most inner of our hearts, it goes out of our lips like a repeated breath, as if we would like to tell You, the Holy Spirit and Father that we are very tired of the waiting for Your great deliverance...”

“That is right, My boy! You have really understood in your heart what groaning is like. However, see and understand now what My Father has promised His children with very true words. For, this groan of My children will surely be bringing to an end. This end will happen when the words of the prophet become true:

“Elam, attack! Media, lay siege! I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused...”

Now, tell Me again:

How do you understand this command “Attack!”? What does it mean for somebody to attack?”

“My Lord! I have words in my heart and I can not but speaking them, because You have laid them there. I know now that when Father orders some one to attack, He really orders such man to become open. He might have been hidden and invisible in his deeds. However, Your Word has promised us that there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. And this here – to be disclosed what is concealed and to be made know what is hidden – Father ordered it by the word “Attack!”

In reply, Lord caressed my head. After that, He stretched His hand ahead and told me:

“Then, let what is concealed be disclosed and what is hidden be made known! And you, follow Me in the visions, by which I will reveal you Media and Elam...”

Jesus was still talking to me, when a very splendid vision appeared before my heart. My Lord was the target point in this vision. He was standing in the whole His Glory and Splendour on Lord’s Mount. In His right hand, He was holding a scepter, out of which rays suchlike lightning were flashing. The lightning flashed down and every time, blazes enflamed all over the earth. Here, Jesus looked at me out of His Glory and told me:

“Now, look and see what Your Father is powerful to do for the Glory of His Son. For, I am standing in My Power and I am waiting for My people to gather to Me...”

While Lord was talking to me, I noticed how His Heart shone extremely strongly and His rays started walking over the earth. A dawn, a red and blazing sunrise began to caress the earth, asleep in darkness. Then, people began to come from those places, where the blazes, caused by the lightning of God's scepter, had flared. They were shining even from a long distance; so, I wished to look at them from a short distance. Then, the Power of the Holy Spirit caught me and took me very close to them. Here, my eyes could see young and powerful men, dressed in white clothes. Every one of them had a heart like a tear or a pearl. With smile on their faces, they were coming to Lord's Mount to gather together at Jesus. There was no longer than Lord's Mount filled with lots of young people, who were shining in their white clothes and were looking at Lord's Face. Then, Jesus stretched His right hand to them, still holding His scepter. Suddenly, a door opened in very Heaven over the Saviour. The Voice of Father resounded like a thunderstorm over Jesus and the men, gathered round Him, so that Father was telling His Son:

"You Are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek. You will defeat Elam in the day of Your wrath. You will make judgement among the nations! You will fill the earth with dead bodies and will smash the heads of Elamites all over the world..."

Hardly heard Father's words, I already knew that this vision was a very deep reading of 110th psalm. Then, I looked again at Jesus and the youths, gathered at Him, since after the Voice of Jesus, signs happened. Thousands of lightning went out of the scepter of my Lord, many times mightier than the former ones. Every one of them was already driving into the hearts of all the youths, who were on Lord's Mount. Here, those hearts, which were like tears, shone with the power of the sun. Then, Jesus looked at His people and commanded with very mighty Voice:

"Here, Elam has already attacked! Media, lay siege round him! Repay to the wicked ones through the sharp rays of My scepter..."

After this command of Jesus, His youths suddenly unfolded, forming a huge arc with their hearts. The very arc went down from Lord's Mount, in order to find and repay Elam from the fiery anger of God. Looking at all this, I could not understand yet. Then, Jesus looked at me, stretched His hand and called me to Himself. When the Power of the Holy Spirit approached me to Him, He began talking to me, saying:

"Have faith in Me! Accept Me, so as all My youths, who came to Me, like the dew from the womb of the Dawn, accepted Me, too. For, they all received from Me the greatest and most glorious priesthood, ever possible before My Father's eyes. This is the priesthood in the spirit and power of Melchizedek. I am a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek; therefore, my youths will be active in the same priesthood and in the same power..."

The words of Jesus were very hard for me to bear them; much less could I understand them. Therefore, I bent down my head before Him and asked Him:

"What is this priesthood, Jesus? What do Your words that You Are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek mean?"

In reply to my questions, Jesus caught His mantle with both His hands, so that His chest might be seen. Here, mighty rays burst out of Jesus' Heart; they blinded me, so that I could not see anything more. Then, the Voice of Lord came to my heart again and told me:

"Here, this is the priesthood in the order of Melchizedek – to serve your God and Father with the Law, which He has laid into your heart. This Law is not written by a human hand, but by the hand of Almighty Lord, Who has created every human heart in the Image and Likeness of His Own Heart. Now, do you understand which this Law is?"

I touched my heart with a hand. Then, I looked at it and I saw the same these rays, which were going out of Jesus' Heart. So, I answered Him:

"Jesus! I understand now that this is the Law, which Father has laid into the human spirit, so that it might be Lord's light. As His servant says:

"The lamp of the LORD searches the spirit of a man; it searches out his inmost being..." (Proverbs 20:27)

This is the Law, to which You, Jesus, became a servant. For, this is a Law not to the earth tent, but to the tent of the heart, where You entered as a Forerunner, in order to give us a new priesthood and a new service..."

After these words, Lord again drew aside His mantle, so that His Light blinded me. He told me:

"I gave this vision to your heart, to understand that today, My Father gathers all My youths all over the earth. He gathers them to Me to be My priests in the order of Melchizedek. These youths are exactly Media in your Father's eyes. Youths exactly, Stefan! Youths exactly, because youth is maturity, and where the mature ones gather together, the Perfect Power of the Law, written in hearts, appears there, too. For, conscience that talks according to the written in heart, testifies about this Law, too.

You, however, be ready to see the vision with Elam. For, as there are young and mature ones in God, who gather to Me in the spirit and power of Melchizedek, so there are young and mature men in the wickedness of the evil one, who gather to him in the spirit and power of Elam..."

The words of Jesus were getting much clearer and clearer for my heart. That is why I asked Him:

"Jesus! Does not Elam mean "youth"? Does not Elam personify all those, who are matured for the wickedness of the devil?"

"Moreover, Stefan! This Elam is the spirit that gathers in itself all the captives of increased wickedness. Today, it is time for all My people to understand that the last fight on the earth is the fight between Lord's Law in the hearts of the faithful men and the increased lawlessness in the hearts of the wicked ones. It is a fight between Media and Elam!"

"Shall I understand, Lord, that this is a fight between the sanctified conscience and the scorched conscience?"

"This is how you have to understand it, My boy. Now, for a testimony of all My people, look at the vision with the Elamites..."

After the last words of Jesus, a striking vision appeared in front of my eyes. I could see the devil himself on the bottom of a terrible valley. He was standing in front of a black cave and was spreading his wings, calling all his servants. Here, his servants began to appear before him. They were numerous hordes of people, whose hearts were burning with devastating flames. Malice, fury, envy and most of all – exorbitant ambition – might be seen in the eyes of these men. Gathering in front of the black cave, they were personally standing before the devil and kneeling before him. Then, stretching his hands to the dark of the cave, he was taking out a bow and a quiver with fiery arrows for every one of them. After he had given the bow and the quiver to the man, knelt before his mantle, he screamed to him with a horrible and hoarse voice:

"Go and be active for me on the earth, which I gift you..."

The horror in this vision was so great and unbearable that I looked at my Lord and asked Him:

"My Lord! Are the Elamites such like these?"

Jesus replied:

"The Word of your Father has seen those, who are active in the spirit of the increased lawlessness long ago. It has seen them and has declared against them:

"This is what the LORD Almighty says: "See, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might. I will bring against Elam the four winds from the four quarters of the heavens; I will scatter them to the four winds, and there will not be a nation where Elam's exiles do not go. I will shatter Elam before their foes, before those who seek their lives; I will bring disaster upon them, even my fierce anger," declares the LORD. "I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them..." (Jeremiah 49:35-37)

Now, while you are looking at bows and quivers with fiery arrows, which Satan gives the Elamites, tell Me:

Do you remember the words of My Apostle Paul?

Do you remember how he warned all of you in the message, saying:

"In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one..."

(Ephesians 6:16)

If you have really taken up the shield of faith, in order to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the Elamites, then, tell Me: what does the shield of faith protect? For, many have decided to protect their faith, unable to understand that faith itself is used for protection. So, why is faith used as a shield? What does this shield protect?"

"O my Lord! I understand now that, by faith in You, we protect Lord's Law, written in the depths of our hearts. So, we keep our pure conscience..."

Jesus smiled at my words and kept talking to us, saying:

"How many of My people know that here, this is the lawlessness of sin – to break the commands of Lord's Law inside your hearts?"

How many of My people know that the Day of Judgment is a Day, when My Father will judge the secret deeds of the men, i.e. those sins, which the Law inside your hearts has already condemned?

And, if somebody can not put up with his conscience, due to the fact that it constantly exposes him, then, will not such man look for a fire to burn up his inconvenient conscience? Will not such man look for the fire of the wicked one that is powerful to burn up Lord's Law into the heart? However, these are the descendants of Elam!

MEN, WHO HAVE BURNT UP THEIR CONSCIENCE, IN ORDER TO BECOME MATURE FOR THE WICKED ONE AND POWERFUL TO FULFILL ALL HIS SUGGESTIONS!

Here, such are the men, who kneel before the devil's mantle, in order to take the bows and the flaming arrows. For, Lord's Law is written to pursue lawlessness. However, when the conscience has burnt up and the Law has been destroyed, then, man can see not only lawlessness, but increased lawlessness. Then, such men with increased lawlessness inside their hearts, become the most powerful in the plans of Satan, because inside their hearts, there is not any opposition against the Evil, which they are powerful to do. And, how can one enter the house of the powerful one unless he first binds him? However, if he not only binds him, but kills him, then, this house will surely be plundered and the traitor who betrays and the looter who takes loot will live in it forever..."

I was listening to the words of my Lord. A grief, suchlike the waters of an overflowing river, filled my eyes and choked my voice, so that I asked Him, weeping:

"What is the exit for us, Jesus? Where shall we find salvation? How shall we get over the increased lawlessness?"

In reply, Lord stopped the vision with the Elamites. Then, He opened again the mantle in front of His chest and told me:

"I am the Exit! I am the Salvation! I am the Getting over! I will be an Exit for those, who want to serve Me with pure conscience and innocent thoughts! Such men will become servants according to the Law of heart, as Melchizedek was, too! I will be Salvation for those, who love not the law of their earth tent, but Lord's Law inside their hearts! I will be Getting over for those, who have the humbleness and faith to follow Me into the most living and splendid visions from My Word; visions, in which you will surely see how excellent Media is and how ashamed Elam is. Therefore, follow Me by all your heart and rejoice at the faithfulness, by which I visit you and save you from the powers of Evil..."

After His last words, Jesus looked at me with such a smile that I realized inside my heart that there were moments of Lord's Life, when the Heart of Jesus rejoiced more than whenever. These are the moments, when the human heart meets His Heart on the right time and place according to His Perfect Will.

2. THE VISION WITH ABRAHAM AND MELCHIZEDEK

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

There are moments in the human life, when the mind is astonished, and the heart – extremely excited. As to excitement and astonishment, they come only where Jesus decides to touch us with His Spirit of wisdom and revelation. Then, the eyes of our hearts are enlightened and we understand that He has descended from the immeasurably high Heaven. He has descended to caress us with His hands and to revive us with His smile. Yes, I tell you! There is not any greater happiness for me than this – to see through the faith of my spirit the whole Kindness, Mercy and tenderness, which shine upon the Face of the Saviour.

So now, while I was thinking over His deep visions, Jesus was standing near me and was passionately waiting for the renewing of my mind and obedience of my heart. Filled with questions, I turned to Him and asked Him:

“My Lord! Everything You showed before my heart is very deep and very high knowledge about the Perfect Will of Father. However, I can not understand yet why has looked at His people and has called them “Media” in the prophecy of Isaiah. Now, when my heart expects with thrill to perceive the vision with Abraham and Melchizedek, I entreat You to enlighten me and make me wise as to this choice of Father, concerning the name “Media”...”

Jesus was listening to my words very attentively; then, He began speaking to me, saying:

“Know from your Lord that the name “Media” is given by your God and Father, so that you might have the reason to distinguish between those who hear the law and those who obey the law. In this relation, remember the words of My Apostle Paul about these two generations, related to Lord’s Law...”

“Jesus! Paul declared in his message, saying:

“For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God's sight, but it is those who obey the law who will be declared righteous...” (Romans 2:13)

“Well, as you are convinced by yourself, those who fulfill the Law are more important in God’s sight, rather than those who have only decided to hear Him. Is this right?”

“That is right, my Lord!”

“Then, look at the deeper, which Paul wrote in his message. Since, it was him, who My Father gave to make God’s secret known by most people. So, what were His words?”

“Jesus! His words were related to the pagans in this world. He declared about them, saying:

“...(Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law, they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law, since they show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts now accusing, now even defending them.)...”

(Romans 2:14-15)

“Then, do you understand that, pagans or believers, all the men have Lord’s Law, laid in their hearts? And, if Paul tells you that it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God’s sight, but it is those who obey the law who will be declared righteous, then, you can see here the reason for Father to call the generation of those who obey the law “Media”. In the Old Testament, Father had a nation, to which He gave His Law through Moses. This nation was Israel. However, He also had His Choice over some of the pagan nations, who were listening to His Will and were obeying It. Here, such nations were Medes and Persians. If Israel had a service toward the Law by flesh, then, the Medes and Persians were serving this Law by spirit. So, if Israel was the generation of those who hear the law, then, Medes and Persians were the generation of those who obey the law. The first ones were listening to the Law by flesh; the second ones were obeying the Law by spirit. That is why your Father gave His Son the rank of a priest not according to the Law, given to Israel, but according to the Law, written in the hearts from the beginning, which witness the priest Melchizedek was.

Then, think! The people of Israel, which God called in His Holiness, what was it from its very beginning, from the sources of its origin? Was not it a Gentile? Remember, My Father told through His prophet Ezekiel about the daughter of Jerusalem these words:

"...Your ancestry and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite..." (Ezekiel 16:3)

And, if Abraham obeyed the Law inside his heart to follow the God, then, is every descendant of Abraham doing the same he did? Did not Israel get conceited exactly due to the fact that it became a nation of men who hear the Law, when My Father has always longed to have a nation of men who obey the Law? Finally, remember those satraps, who decided inside their hearts to deceive Darius the Mede. What did they tell him in order to realize their plot against Daniel?"

"Jesus! They appeared before Darius and told him:

"Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered - in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed..." (Daniel 6:8)

"Well, which is this law that can not be repealed, even though the satraps wanted to alter it by deceit?"

The answer was simply shining in the lips of Jesus; so, I answered Him:

"My Lord! This is the Law, written by Him Who does not change like shifting shadows..."

Heard my answer, Lord kept talking to me, saying:

"Do you understand now that there is really a reason for My Father to call the generation of those who obey the Law with the name "Media"? All My people and you will see this in the vision with Daniel and Darius; now, however, let Me show you the vision with Abraham and Melchizedek. For, the clash between Elam and Media begins exactly from there..."

After His last words, Jesus touched my head, so that the vision itself appeared in front of my eyes. I could see the earth from a height, as if I was put on the clouds. Here, my eyes could see numerous crowds of armed men, who gathered together in a black valley to fight between themselves. The shadow of tremendous dark had fallen upon the crowds from the one side; as to the crowds on the other side, the fire of eternal destruction and ruin had blazed upon them. So, the two fighting camps differed from one another too much and my heart was really impressed by this fact. The other I had noticed was the fact that the fiery crowds surpassed in their power the others, upon which the shade of darkness had already fallen. Here, the fight between the two crowds began. The blazing ones attacked at the shady ones, devoured them and killed them on their place. Then, they left the valley, plundering everything on their way, and hurried to go away. Jesus pointed at them with His hand and asked me:

“What do you think? Why was the power of the blazing ones greater than the power of the shady, even if the ones as well as the others were under the authority of the devil?”

“Jesus! The word is about a bow before Satan here. Evidently, these ones, the blazing, have been more pleasing for him...”

“Then, look at the biblical verses, which reveal you this vision...”

Lord was talking to me, and I already knew the verses inside my heart. Therefore, I told Him:

“Jesus! No doubt, this is the war of the kings, written in the 14th chapter of “Genesis”. Now, I clearly see that the blazing crowds belonged to Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of Goiim. However, the most impressive here is exactly the king Kedorlaomer, because it is written in the verse from “Genesis” that the other five kings have lived under his shade. That is why there seemed to be shady in the vision above. As it is written:

“For twelve years they had been subject to Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled...” (Genesis 14:4)

“And, what king was Kedorlaomer?”

“Jesus! He was a king of Elam. Evidently, his yoke must have been very terrible, because the rest five kings rise in rebellion against him and his allies...”

“And, what happened, when the less evil revolted against the bigger one? What is the fate of the shadow that rebels against the fire?”

"My Lord! It goes without saying that fire devoured the shade, so that the Elamite Kedorlaomer smashed those, who rose against him. Evidently, devil's favour has been over him..."

"And, why did the devil deign in the Elamite Kedorlaomer? Why did not he deign in Sodom and Gomorrah, for instance? Since, as you might read in the Scripture, Kedorlaomer took captive Sodom and Gomorrah, and together with them, Abraham's nephew Lot, too..."

"Jesus! Evidently, the word is about different degrees of lawlessness. For, if the lawlessness of Sodom and Gomorrah has been great, then, the lawlessness of the Elamite Kedorlaomer has been increased. Remember that in the vision You gave me, Sodom and Gomorrah were a shade, and Elam was a fire..."

"That is right, My boy! Let now all My people know that the lawlessness of Sodom and Gomorrah is lawlessness against the flesh, while the lawlessness of Kedorlaomer is lawlessness against the spirit. In the first case, bodily tent is desecrated, but in the second case – he who lives in it. So, what do you think? Why did Abraham decide to fight against Kedorlaomer? Why did he gather his brave warriors, three hundreds eighteen in their number, and went to defeat the armies of Kedorlaomer and his allies? Did God's Friend care for Lot's tent, or he cared for him who lived in the tent?"

"Jesus! Abraham went to free his nephew from the fire of the Elamite Kedorlaomer. And, freeing him, he freed Sodom and Gomorrah, too..."

Jesus smiled at my words and His eyes shone with incredible light. He asked me again:

"Do not you think that this is strange? Is not this – Abraham to free Sodom and Gomorrah – very strange, having in mind the later doom of these two cities?"

"It is not strange, Jesus! – I answered, feeling how Lord's Light overwhelmed me more and more. Therefore, I continued:

"As Your words against those, who are active in the wickedness of Elam, are not strange:

"And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths. If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the Day of Judgment than for you..." (Matthew 11:23-24)

"See then what the first repayment upon the Elamites by Lord your God was. For, if somewhere Elam attacks, then, Media will lay siege to it, too..."

I was looking again at the vision from on very high. Here, from among the dark earth, men appeared with God's Light in their hearts. They scattered round, forming an arc, and drove away the fiery hordes of Kedorlaomer. They overtook them, getting over them, and destroyed them. And, after destroying them, they restored all the captives with all their households and possessions. It was a glorious victory of God's Light, which was powerful to pull out everybody from the fire of the Elamite Kedorlaomer. When the battle had already come to its end, Jesus pointed down with His hand, telling me:

"Now, let Me take you near into this vision. So, you will see what Abraham will do after his victory over Kedorlaomer..."

My heart could already see very clearly the coming Abraham and the armies, following him. He had loosened his grip on the sword, and his heart was shining with God's Light. Many round him greeted him the obtained victory and thanked him for their liberation. However, Abraham was not listening to the thousands of voices round him; instead, he had raised his look at Heaven and was waiting for a sign by Him Who had called him to go out of Ur of the Chaldeans. Suddenly, the Heaven over Abraham became brighter. Lord's ray flashed out of the clouds and touched the head of a priest, who was slowly coming near. The man was a personification of goodness and humbleness. Dressed in white clothes, he had in his hands a tray with bread and wine on it; so, he was slowly coming with his servants to Abraham. Seen how Lord's ray was caressing the face of the priest, Abraham left the sword at his feet and ran to the chosen man of God. Provoking astonishment in all around him, he fell at the feet of the priest and bowed before him, kissing his mantle. Then, the priest caught the bread with the one hand, and with the other his hand, he took the cup of wine. He crossed them with his hands and put them over Abraham's head, saying:

“Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth...” (Genesis 14:19)

Then, taking the bread and wine above the head of Abraham, the priest raised his eyes to Heaven and said:

“And blessed be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand...” (Genesis 14:20)

In this blessed moment, the hearts of Abraham and Melchizedek united by God’s Light, so that Father Himself was confirming with His Seal both them. Extremely excited, I did not what to tell my Lord. He pointed at the bread and wine and asked me:

“What do you think? If the Son of Man became a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek, then, what are the Bread and Wine in the hands of Melchizedek? And, why did Melchizedek put the Bread and Wine upon Abraham’s head?”

“My Lord! I believe that in this manner, the Scripture appeared in advance the good news of him, who Father would make to be father of many nations. So, all of us, who are inspired by Abraham’s faith and life, shall see in them Your Faith and Your Life...”

After these words of mine, Jesus caressed my head and quietly told me:

“That is right! Here, I am calling all My youths today; let them know Me as a priest in the order of Melchizedek! Love Lord’s Law inside your hearts! Fill yourselves with My Spirit and be the last generation of those who obey the Law! Be the generation of Media that is ready to lay siege to Elam! And, if Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything, then, you should be ready to give no only a tenth, but a Holy offering. You should offer to the Most High God your thoughts, words and deeds in hundred per cent. Only thus, My Father will bring your groaning to an end and will repay from His Fiery anger over the wickedness of men and demons...”

Lord stopped talking to me. Admired and captivated by Abraham and Melchizedek, my heart felt to be young and full of that faith, by which we will all step to Jesus’ scepter, come like the dew from the womb of the Dawn.

Amen and Amen!

3. THE VISION WITH DANIEL AND DARIUS

My brother! My faithful friend!

Do you understand the message, which Jesus gives you with this book? Do you understand the prophetic target of the words, concerning Elam and Media? Can you comprehend that we all live in the time of increased lawlessness today? About this time, Jesus warned:

“Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved...”

(Matthew 24:12-13)

So, what do you think? If Jesus has seen that wickedness increases, then, has not He looked at the last two days of the world through the Light of God’s Law in His Heart? In fact, wickedness increases where many have broken Lord’s Law. However, if you think that Jesus has had in mind the Law of the earth tent, instead of the Law, laid into the depth of hearts, then, you have not really understood that the generation of Elam has appeared on the earth. What is more – you have not understood that, speaking about the increased wickedness, Jesus has had in mind that this lawlessness is increased in every heart, retreated from God. He has not had in mind that if one gathers together many wicked men, their wickedness will increase, too. What He has really had in mind is that when all the lies, tricks and perfidies of the devil gather together, then, they inevitably burn up every human conscience. So, the increased lawlessness is already a seal upon every separate heart, rather than a mark for most wicked men.

I have listened many times how the lawyers of the devil hurry to lull to sleep their consciences, saying:

“Let us not feel uneasy due to wickedness. For, we are not under Law, but under Blessing!”

Who lied you that you are not under Law? Who deceived you, so that you can neither see, nor comprehend that the Law of earth tent finished its service before Father with the crucifixion of Christ on the Cross of Golgotha? Then, the curtain of the Temple was torn in two; so, there was no longer there a Most Holy place, where the priest had to enter. However, the fact that Father removed the Law for the earth tent, does not mean at all that the Law stopped being active. Contrariwise, the Law found another tent since this moment – the tent of the human heart. The very Blessing by God became the Power, by which we were expected to fulfill Lord's Law inside our hearts. So, the words, written by apostle Paul have to become truth in our life:

"...because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in sinful man, in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit..." (Romans 8:2-4)

Then, do you understand that the Law of the Spirit of life is the same that was also in Abraham, in Melchizedek and in Lord Jesus Christ? And, if Jesus has afforded us the opportunity to live according to the Spirit, instead of according to our sinful nature, then, He has called us through His blood to live a life of Holiness, a life, devoted in spiritual realization of Lord's Law inside our hearts. For, this is how the requirements of the Law are being realized in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature, but in accordance with the Spirit.

I will remind you again the words of Jesus that the time of increased wickedness is now. It is time, when most people hurry to kneel before Satan and burn up their consciences, in order to receive a brief share from the cake of satanic prosperity. And then? What will happen, when the consequence of this increased lawlessness come? What will happen to those, who have violated every sparklet of moral and dignity, honour and adherence to principles inside their hearts? What will happen to the men, who have hurried to read the fashion magazines of the worldly prosperity, but have never read the words, spoken by the apostle of Christ? Here are these words:

"For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And, "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?" (1 Peter 4:17-18)

I can not remain calm, when the apostle asks such questions; at least, because God's judgment begins with the family of God. However, if you have thought that this judgment will begin after the Second coming of Jesus, then, you have not understood again that the judgment for you has begun since the moment, when Father has given you the Holy Spirit. This is the judgment of your sanctified conscience; the judgment of Lord's Law inside your heart, by which God judges and punishes you, so that, in the very punishment, you might find God's forgiveness. For, Lord disciplines those he loves, and He punishes through His Law everyone He accepts as a son. Blessed are those, who, in the suffering of their punishment, have the power to cry to the Judge:

"It was good for me to be afflicted so that I might learn your decrees. The law from your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of silver and gold..." (Psalms 119:71-72)

I began my reasoning with all these words to your heart, so that you might have the faith also to accept the vision with Daniel and Darius. For, this is a vision for all those, who love Lord's Law inside their hearts.

Here are the words, which Lord talked to my heart, a moment before the vision itself. He told me:

"There is a Law inside your hearts that never changes. It has been written to change all of you, but it itself remains eternal and unchangeable. Now, I am going to give you the vision with Daniel and Darius, so that all My brothers and sisters might draw a lesson from it. In it, they will see by their hearts what the outcome will be for those, who do not obey God's Good News, but who dare change what is unchangeable. And you, see what I am going to show you now..."

After the last words of Jesus, a vision appeared in front of my eyes. Here, I could see Prophet Daniel in the whole spiritual superiority and Light, which the Most High God has given to him. The heart of the prophet was shining like some very precious diamond and God's Light was touching everybody, who would stand in the presence of Daniel. Jesus pointed at God's prophet and hurried to ask me:

"What do you see?"

"O, my Lord! I can see that old-testament Father's light that was taking captive every mind to obey God's words and Heavenly Wisdom. That is why my heart is filled with admiration for Daniel and I can not find words to describe this diamond of Zion..."

“You rightly called him a diamond, My boy! Daniel was really one of the precious stones of Father. However, as you can suppose by yourself, the shine of this diamond is strong enough to vex the pots of clay, full of earth and worms. You, however, see now how the princes and satraps, who Darius had appointed governors in the kingdom, look like and what the theme of their discussion is...”

In the next moment, I saw a crowd of people, in whose hearts there was no spark of God’s Light. Instead, their hearts were blazing with the fire of the evil one. In this fire, I could see serpents of envy, avarice and perfidy. The very snakes were wrapping into the fiery flames of their hearts, and the ends of their tails were lashing upon their own lips, so that the satraps were telling each other:

“What shall we do with this Daniel? Darius the Mede has decided to put him over the whole our kingdom! How shall we stop this? How shall we frustrate the royal decision?”

In this moment, the fire of the devil burnt brisker in them, so that they unanimously agree in their thoughts, telling each other:

“...We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God...” (Daniel 6:5)

After having in mind their wickedness, the whole procession of princes and satraps was already climbing up the stone stairs of the royal palace, in order to go to Darius the Mede and so to confirm their perfidy. While I was looking at the running crowd, Jesus gave me a sign with His hand, saying:

“Let Me now lead you to the king Darius; for I would like for you to see his heart...”

So, Lord led me into the royal rooms, in front of the very throne of the Mede. Here, I could see how Lord’s Law was wavering in his heart, and sparkles from it flashed in the eyes and head of Darius. Here, Jesus asked me:

“Do you see the heart of Darius?”

“Yes, Jesus! I see that Lord’s Law shines in this heart. It is not as abundant and mighty as in the heart of Daniel, but I can not controvert the truth that there is conscience in this heart and this conscience is alive.”

“Then, see what the princes and satraps will do, when they come into the presence of king Darius...”

While Lord was talking to me, the whole procession of princes and satraps entered the room of Darius and stood in front of him. Stepping slowly and looking with an air of importance, the men knelt before the king, so that Darius was surprised by their appearance. Then, he asked them:

“Why have you come to me? What is the reason that I see now all my princes and satraps, gathered in this procession?”

Then, the evilest of the crowd stepped near Darius and told him:

“...O King Darius, live forever! The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers and governors have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or man during the next thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the lions' den. Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered – in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed...” (Daniel 6:6-8)

I was listening to the insidious words of the men and God's indignation rose inside me; so, I told Jesus:

“My Lord! What is this terrible perfidy? You see, these men all agreed that the king should issue a decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered – in accordance with the law, which cannot be repealed? In this way, however, these princes and satraps already dare alter the Law that cannot be repealed. Is not this an attempt of these evil men to darken the conscience of king Darius? For, if he has acted according to the Law of his heart, which cannot be repealed, by this very day, then now, he is also required to add to this Law a written decree that insidiously takes aim at prophet Daniel...”

In reply, Lord looked at me sharply and told me:

“Does anybody of these satraps and princes know that the Law of Daniel's God and the Law in the heart of Darius is one and the same thing? Here, I tell you that they do not know, because they have been lied by the spirit of Elam, i.e. the spirit of increased lawlessness. Therefore, keep looking at the vision...”

I was looking again at the vision. Then, I noticed that the heart of the king was misled and the spiritual pressure by the whole crowd weighed over him. Here, king Darius summoned his clerk, dictated him the issued decree and hurried to sign it. Then, a shade appeared in the heart of king Darius; it seemed as if it was about to devour the Law. Very excited in my heart, I told Jesus:

"My Lord! I see a shade in the heart of Darius, which is about to devour the Law..."

Jesus turned His head with a gesture of discontent and told me:

"No, My boy! The shade can stand in the way of the Law for some time, but it can not devour it. Fire can only devour the Law and burn up the conscience, but you yourself see that Darius did not give access of this fire to his heart. Therefore, keep looking at the vision, since I will give it development..."

I was looking again at the vision. Here, the procession of princes and satraps was gathering at king Darius for a second time. This time, however, the hearts of the princes and satraps were very angry and malicious. The vilest of them stepped to king Darius again, asking him:

"Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or man except to you, o king, would be thrown into the lions' den?" (Daniel 6:12)

In reply to their angry questions, the king answered:

"The decree stands - in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed..." (Daniel 6:12)

Then, the evil men began to call down fire and brim-stone on Daniel, telling Darius:

"...Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day..." (Daniel 6:13)

Although the fire of their fury jostled the heart of Darius, he simply made a gesture, ordering the princes and satraps leave his presence, unwilling to let the malice of the evil one inside himself. Then, Jesus pointed with His hand at the royal heart and asked me again:

"Do you notice what happens in the heart of Darius?"

"Yes, Jesus! I notice that Lord's Law begins to shine much more powerfully inside his heart, so that Father Himself resists the fire of the evil one. In my eyes, this is glorious and very wonderful..."

"It is not very wonderful at all!" – told me Jesus and continued:

“If you attentively read “The book of Prophet Daniel”, you yourself will see that this king has been an object of the mighty benevolence of God. My Father has sent to his heart a very strong helper. As it is written:

“And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I (Gabriel – Greek translation) took my stand to support and protect him...” (Daniel 11:1)

If your Father sends to Darius even His Archangel Gabriel, He does it, so that the Law, which cannot be repealed, might withstand in the Mede; for, this Law has been written by Him Who does not change like shifting shadows. You, however, look again at the vision! For, the events follow exactly the orders of Almighty God...”

I was looking again at the vision. Here, the devil’s men were gathering at king Darius for a third time. This time, the words of their mouth were no only angry, but even threatening. They all told the king:

“Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed...”

(Daniel 6:15)

While I was looking at these men, I understood that they wanted to put on scales the royal authority and the burden of the decree, which he has signed by his own hands. Then, Darius immediately reacted. With a firm voice, he commanded to the guards to catch Daniel and to throw him into the den of hungry lions. Here, Lord carried the vision in spirit, so that I could already see the prophet of God, jostled by the royal guards. However, this was not the most astonishing thing in the vision. Something else astounded my heart and filled me with reverence. There, next to king Darius, I could see Archangel Gabriel; he was standing there, even if the king could not see him. In the moment, when the guards was about to throw Daniel in the lions’ den, Darius stretched his hand and embraced the prophet of God. With all the love and light of his heart, he quietly told him:

“...May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!”

(Daniel 6:16)

In this moment, God’s Archangel left the heart of Darius and touched the heart of Daniel. While the prophet of God was already falling into the lions’ pit, Gabriel stretched God’s scepter in his hands and touched by it the jaws of the savage lions. While all this was happening, the whole crowd of princes and satraps, contented with its victory, was frantically crying:

“Seal the den, o king Darius! Place a stone over the mouth of the den and seal it, lest the Law, which cannot be repealed, might be frustrated!”

Looking at the insidious princes and satraps with deep cordial contempt, Darius ordered his servants to bring a huge stone. They laid it over the mouth of the den; then, the king himself sealed it with his own signet ring. After that, he looked at the satraps and told them:

“Lay your rings here, too, so that Daniel’s situation might not be changed...”

Then, satisfied inside their hearts, those princes and satraps were also laying their seals, looking with content at the lions’ den and Daniel among them. In this moment, incited by Jesus, I looked again at Darius, the Mede. Here, tears were rolling down his face; looking at the prophet in the den, he was biting his own lips, as if he could not stand the thought of the eventual death of God’s servant. Jesus approached the king, stretched His hand to him and asked me again:

“What are these tears? What is this groaning of the king?”

“O Jesus! Elam attacked with all the wickedness of his increased lawlessness in the life of Darius. Therefore, the king is weeping and groaning now...”

“Well, where Elam attacks, does not Media lay siege there, too? And, when Media lays siege on Elam, will not Father bring to an end the whole groaning of the king?”

“Yes, my excellent Lord! Father will surely do it...”

“Then, look at the outcome for Elam and let all the children of God look together with you, too...”

While Jesus was talking to me, the vision changed. Here, my eyes could already see the weeping Darius, who, at daybreak, was going to the den, where the prophet had thrown. With eyes, red with sleeplessness and sorrow, he bent down over the very den. With all the sobbing of his heart, he cried:

“Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?” (Daniel 6:20)

With a face, shining with God's Light, God's Prophet looked out of the den and told Darius:

"...O king, live forever! My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, O king..." (Daniel 6:21-22)

While Daniel was answering Darius, Jesus stood next to His prophet and asked me:

"Did you notice which the first words of Daniel to Darius were?"

"Yes, Lord! He told him:

"O king, live forever!"

"Why did Prophet Daniel tell these words Darius? If these are words, spoken by a prophet, are not they prophetic?"

"They are prophetic, Jesus!"

"How many of My people will see then that the words of Daniel come to glorify the Law, which cannot be repealed? Think who lives forever and who the prophetic lips bless in this way..."

"Jesus! You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek! That is why king Darius got up early, at dawn! He wanted to bow before You and Your prophet. He had to show that his heart had withstood the fire of Elam..."

"That is right! Now, let all My people understand that there is not any greater blessing than this, by which Daniel blessed the heart of Darius the Mede! For, this here – to live forever – means for you always to be doing God's Will and to obey the Law, which cannot be repealed, even though the devil tries to repeal it! Finally, see the end of the vision..."

I was looking again at the vision, when I noticed how Darius were already weeping with joy and was giving an order to his servants to remove the stone from the mouth of the den and to free Daniel. When Daniel went out of the pit, the king embraced him with his hands and every sigh and groan had disappeared from his lips. The more cordial and warm the eyes of Darius were, when he embraced Daniel, the more angry and frowning they became, when he cried:

"Bring to me all those, who slandered Daniel and tried with perfidy to alter the Law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed..."

Then, in accordance with the royal order, all the princes and satraps, who had served the devil, came there, in front of the den, full of savage lions.

Elam had attacked, so that Media might lay siege on it!

With anger and contempt to Elam, the king commanded, saying:

"Throw to the lions those, who broke the Law, which cannot be repealed!

Throw all of them, together with all their households!"

Here, all the worshipers of Elam were already falling into the pit and the lions were jumping over them with mighty leaps, breaking their bones yet in the air. Looking with the whole strictness of his royal authority, Darius turned to the thousands of Medes in the vision, telling them:

"May you prosper greatly! (Peace be multiplied on you! – Greek translation) "I issue a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel. "For he is the living God and he endures forever; his kingdom will not be destroyed, his dominion will never end. He rescues and he saves; he performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth. He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions..." (Daniel 6:25-27)

While I was looking at the whole Glory of God upon Daniel and Darius, Lord touched my head with His hand and asked me:

"Did you understand now why the children of God are "Media" in My Father's eyes?

Did all My people understand that until you serve the unchangeable Lord's Law inside your hearts, you will certainly experience the crash of Elam?

For, the fate of Elam is to attack, so that Media might lay siege on him! The doom of each act of increased lawlessness is to be an object of God's wrath and the fair retribution by Heaven!

Here, your Lord is pointing at the descendants of Elam, torn to pieces in the lions' den, and tells all of you the words of the psalm:

"This is the fate of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings. Selah. Like sheep they are destined for the grave, and death will feed on them. The upright will rule over them in the morning; their forms will decay in the grave, far from their princely mansions...” (Psalms 49:13-14)

Do you want to repay Elam? Then, gather to Me at dawn – with pure conscience and innocent thoughts! So, you will receive from Me priesthood in the order of Melchizedek and will rule over your enemies!”

After these last words of Jesus, the vision with Daniel and Darius stopped and Lord led my heart to the last of His wonderful visions.

4. “MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN...”

My brother! My faithful friend!

My heart rejoices and triumphs into the fidelity and might of the Living God. Even if the whole power of enemy stands against His servants, He Himself has the last word. Today, many children of God have bent down their heads because of the power of wicked ones. Many people have neither reason, nor wisdom to see that God allows the attacks of the lawless men with the sole purpose of crushing them and erasing them from the face of the earth.

Some years ago, I wrote a book under God's Perfect leadership. In it, God gave me to see how great the wickedness of Balthazar and his present spiritual descendants is. Although God's Holy exposing became evident for all the churches and their pastors, the descendants of Elam neither were ashamed, nor did they repent and turned to God. Instead, with much greater eagerness, they continued to do their abominations on the Holy place of God. They continued with their business, theology, intrigues, plundering, haughtiness and all the rest wicked deeds that lead to disgust and loathing. It looked out as if they had decided inside their hearts that they are the irreplaceable anointed men and Heaven would not allow such a “tragedy” – to deprive them of their priesthood before God. In fact, there is priesthood only where there are priests. As to the priests – they are those men of God, who have perfectly enlightened their spirit, soul and body and have offered themselves as sacrificial oxen before God's Holy Altar. However, what sacrifice might offer one who hurries to fill his pocket with the offerings of men, poorer than him? What priesthood might you see in men, who, like the princes and satraps, hurry to write various rules, decrees and religious orders with the sole purpose of shackling the hearts in the chains of all kinds of doctrines and servility to men? What conscience might you see in those, who are ready to throw into the lions' den everybody who reads the prophetic word from the Mount Moriah?

Let me tell you, my brother, such evil-doers can not surprise God, but they always surprise themselves. They have accepted to serve to the father of lie, and the devil, as their father, has not told them the truth about their doom. So, this father has deceived his sons, and they have relied on the sincerity of their father.

"He was a murderer from the beginning..." the Saviour talks to us about the devil and continues:

"...not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies..." (John 8:44)

Here this lying father has deceived the men, adopted by him, that their wickedness is righteousness and their stench is a sweet fragrance. You, however, be humble to listen to the words of your Real Father – He Who beloved you and gave His Son for your redemption and Eternal Life. Since, Jesus led me again into God's Sanctuary before His Father. I fell on my face, but He stepped to Him and told Him:

"My Father! Your servant saw Your Son like Him Who is a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek. And, Father, I gave him see how Elam attacks and how Media lays siege on him. Bless Your children, My Father! Bring their groaning to an end; let them hear the thunder of Your Voice and see the majesty of Your Power..."

In reply to the words of Jesus, the Voice of Father came to my heart, telling me:

"Son of Man! Go to My children and warn them that I am raising destructive wind against Babylon! The Medes and Persians will exactly be in the front lines of this wind; this is the generation of those, who keep Lord's Law inside their hearts. To all your persecutors and violators from Babylon, I, Father of all spirits and Lord of the Powers, doom in store for them:

"I will punish the world for its evil, the wicked for their sins. I will put an end to the arrogance of the haughty and will humble the pride of the ruthless. I will make man scarcer than pure gold, more rare than the gold of Ophir. Therefore I will make the heavens tremble; and the earth will shake from its place at the wrath of the LORD Almighty, in the day of his burning anger. Like a hunted gazelle, like sheep without a shepherd, each will return to his own people, each will flee to his native land. Whoever is captured will be thrust through; all who are caught will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives ravished.

See, I will stir up against them the Medes, who do not care for silver and have no delight in gold. Their bows will strike down the young men; they will have no mercy on infants (who are abomination) nor will they look with compassion on children (who are abomination). Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms, the glory of the Babylonians' pride, will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah. She will never be inhabited or lived in through all generations..." (Isaiah 13:11-20)

If somebody has a heart to listen to My words and to comprehend My Will, let such man remember the inscription, which Lord's hand wrote on the wall in the palace of Balthazar:

Mene, mene, tekel, parsin!

Mene, mene – I have numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end. Tekel – you have been weighed on the scales of My Holiness and Lord's Law and you have been found wanting. Parsin (peres) – I divided your kingdom and gave it to the Medes and Persians. For, the last Media knew My Heart, was doing My Will and kept My Law in its heart. It was given the privilege to repay over Babylon.

Attack, Elam!

Attack you, children of robbers and criminals, who plunder the widow and do not show mercy to the orphan!

Attack you, who love the prince of this world!

Attack with your lusts and greed!

Attack with your perfidy and pride!

Attack with your hatred of My servants, the prophets!

Attack with your bows and arrows!

Attack with the fire of Molech inside your hearts!

So, become evident in all your wickedness before Lord and His children!

Come, Media, in order to lay siege to Elam!

Come, you who keep your hearts pure! Come, you who shed tears of intercession and compassion! Come, you who love My Voice and will not exchange it for all the goods of this world! As you see the Dawn that rises from the east, become My priests and kings, by whom I will repay over Elam and will remove the memory of him from the earth!

The words of My Son stand before My Throne! They are the spiritual translation of the inscription on the wall in the palace of Balthazar!

“Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit...”

(Matthew 21:43)

This is the people of the last Medes and Persians, who will come from east and west until I throw the prostitute into the fire of those, who she has loved!

Mene, mene, tekel, parsin!

I pronounced it! I spoke it!”
