TO YOUR HEART

My dear friend! Whoever you are, whatever you are, wherever you are, I pray to the Living Lord and God to reveal Himself before your heart by the word in this book – so as He revealed Himself before me and my heart. I wish my Lord chased out of you the unbelief of Thomas and laid the Paul's longing in you. Since, the time, we live in, will bear more and more doubting and unbelieving men. Lord, however, want for every one of us to be attentive in His fateful words. Remember, how He has told us:

“However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?” (Luke 18:8)

I do not know how much faith Lord will find on the earth, but I am convinced that on the earth, His faith can not live in anybody. There is such deep secret in the very question of the Lord that, in my wish to understand it, I opened my heart for all splendid revelations of this book. From my following and submitting to the Lord for the last ten years, I understood that He would find faith only in Heaven and only in those, who had already been settled by the Holy Spirit to live in Heavenly places, far above than each darkness, every sin and evil. You see, however, that there will always be one Judas and one Thomas among the followers of the God's Son. And, if I do not even want to think about Judas, since he has already betrayed Jesus for the silver-coins of this world, then, for Thomas, I have great love in my heart and strong longing in my spirit. Since, I know that Lord incited me to think about all those, who had never known the appearance of Jesus in their life, even if they had confessed and accepted Him as Lord.

Now, I ask you to go together with me and Jesus into the depths, which this book will reveal to you. Since, by it, Lord Jesus Himself will enter your life, will take your hand and will put it on His wounds, so that you might fall in His knees and confess your heart before Him:

“My Lord and my God!”

Let the Holy Spirit envelop you with the whole God's Mercy and Kindness, so that you might understand the spiritual challenges of this prophetic book. And, touched by the words of Jesus, live so as He would like for you.

Amen and Amen! The Author

1. THE LIBERATED BLOOD

(THE VISION WITH THE LORD'S WOUNDS)

I would like for you to know, my dear friend...

I want for you to know, my dear friend that, for the last months of my service to the Lord, I have passed through the persecution, which drew me nearer to Jesus. The sorceries, oppressions, embarrassments, insults and malice against me became as natural as natural the shade of a man, stood under the sunbeams, is. In the fire of each suffering, the spiritual nature of man becomes so sensible to the spiritual world that the spiritual eyes are often opened and, according to the God's Will, you can see what many blind men can not perceive. I know that the Salvation by Lord Jesus has been preached since two thousands years on the earth. I know that He is powerful to change the life of hundreds and thousands men. However, I was convinced in other thing, too. If, two thousands years ago, Jesus made one hearth, whose flames were touching and kindling hearts, you could not find any hearth now. You can only find here and there people with little flames in their hearts, which have not been extinguished by the spirit of the world. That is why, Lord appears Himself to the men and talks by His servants in this last time; He hopes to find hearts, which would repent and turn to Him.

When Jesus decided to visit me in writing of this book, He gave me a vision. The Holy Spirit visited me and I found myself in the Living Gospel. I looked around myself and I saw Lord Jesus, only some meters away from my look. He was walking on the way to Golgotha, jostled by a Roman soldier, and Simon, the Cyrenian, was going some meters in front of Him, carrying His cross. There was a noisy crying crowd around my Lord, Who was suffering. Most people were looking at Him with such malice, which could not be described. Suddenly, something strange happened in the vision itself. I saw how Heavenly Light began to shine from the torn clothing of Jesus, there, where the wounds from the flogging were. This Light went out of the Body of the Saviour and was trying to touch the hearts of the men; however, they were rejecting it, because there were wolf's teeth inside them, which were furiously opening and closing. After that, I looked again at the Saviour and saw how the same this Light came out of His head, on which there was a stuck thorn-crown. The prickles were stuck into the forehead and temples of Jesus, which were bleeding. I could no longer see the flowing blood, but only Light. Here, when my Lord was led to the place, called Golgotha, the Roman soldier jostled Him and He fell to the Cross. Then, more Roman soldiers surrounded Him, caught His hands, tied them with ropes and drove nails into them. Then, they did the same with the feet of the Lord. Finally, pulling the Cross by ropes, they raised it, so that its end entered the earth into a narrow pit, made in advance. In this moment, the Holy Spirit incited me again to look at Jesus. I fixed again my look upon His wounds.

THEY WERE NOT WOUNDS! THEY WERE DOORS!

Such a Light was flowing out of the pierced places, what I had never seen in my life. My Lord had revealed Himself to me before in His Glory and Majesty; however, all my previous memories grew pale at this vision. The Light, coming out of the Lord's wounds, made me understand that it was THE MOST PRECIOUS that my spirit and heart had always strived to. Can you understand me, my brother? Can you comprehend the words, which I talk to you? Every man bears with creative spirit and heart, which he wants to fill. He has been feeling it for whole his life; nevertheless, it still remain unfilled. However, when Father gives him to go next to the Cross of Golgotha and see the wounds of Jesus, then the Blood of the Lord flows into this heart and it understand that it has found everything it has been looking and asking for. It has found everything it has needed to. I had read many times the messages of Paul and I was confused by some his confessions. Now, however, when I was before the Cross, looking at the Light in the wounds of Jesus, I understood well what the Apostle had had in mind, when he had written:

“For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified...” (1 Corinthians 2:2)

In this moment, still under the influence of the vision, I fell on my knees and called my Lord with the whole my power. I wanted from Him to explain this vision to me. I wanted to understand the appeal of the Holy Spirit, by Who Lord visited me. Just then, the vision stopped and I felt how my Lord stood close to my heart. In difference to other visions, when the look of my heart was directed at other appearances of Jesus, here, in this coming of my Lord, I was entirely devoured by wish to look at His wounds. He told me:

“Do not you understand yet why you received this vision? Do not you know yet why I called you to see My wounds?”

I answered: “Lord Jesus! Who can say what there is in Your heart, except for the Spirit of Truth, Who filled and raised me in the Living Gospel? I was looking at Your wounds and they were the dearest wish and thirst of my spirit and heart. Please, tell me now, why did You give me this vision?”

Jesus stretched out His pierced hand to me and touched my head. Then, He said:

“According to the Father’s Will, you have been born in time of revolt and disobedient men. According to the Father’s Will, you have been called to give the Word of the Prophetic Spirit to those, who listen, but do not hear, look, but do not see, neither understand. Since, how many are those, who look at the Lord’s wounds so as I want for them to see? And, if My wounds make your spirit thirst for accepting the Light, coming out of them, then, do you understand that there is one cry of My blood inside you? It is a cry, powerful to do the most excellent and perfect destiny for the Kingdom. Since, I sprinkled you with My blood. My blood is upon you. If the blood of Abel was crying out to the Father from the ground once, now, My blood is crying to you from My Heaven and from your heart. The question is:

Will you understand its cry? Will you understand why My blood calls for you and what it wants to do?”

“Lord, I know that Your blood gives me remission and Eternal Life. It washes me from my sins and makes me pure. It restores me before my Father’s eyes. It makes me a God’s child...”

Then, Jesus added:

“Yes, Stefan! My blood really does all this. However, it does many other things, which have not been preached to you, neither have they been given to you like an example for you to follow. For the whole My Life on the earth I have prepared Me for the time, when My Blood will speak from the Heaven things, better than those, spoken by the blood of Abel. However, the blood should be liberated, so that it might speak.

The vision, I gave to you, comes to show what the liberated blood might do..."

The words of Jesus were more than deep. Moreover, however much I tried to understand them, I could not succeed in it. Therefore, I asked Him again:

"What do You want to tell me, Lord? How should I understand Your liberated blood?"

Jesus replied:

"Understand it just like liberated, not like closed in the Body. Since, if the blood is in the Body, it gives Life to the Body Itself; however, when it is freed, it will give Life to many people! Then, think when your salvation and eternal life came. Was not it the moment, when the Son of Man shed His blood for you? Would you have the Eternal Life unless you have a touch to the blood that gives it to you?"

"No, Lord! Only Your blood gives to me this Eternal Life..."

"Then, have the understanding that My blood has had to be liberated from My Body, so that your heart might be sprinkled with it and you might receive the Eternal Life. If I had lived on the earth for My sake, would I shed My blood for you? Would be there any Salvation if I was interested only in My Own Life, but not in yours? However, this is the reason for My Father to listen to Me from His Holy Heaven. This is the reason for Him to open doors for My blood – the same doors, which you saw. In fact, they are the Lord's wounds, from which the Kindness and Love of Father stream..."

The words of my Saviour were the most splendid and cherished words, which He had spoken to me once. Being excited and shaken, I asked my Lord:

"Lord, is this what You want to say - that just Your wounds were the doors, through which the Love and Kindness of Father came to me?"

"This is not everything! My wounds are no only doors, through which Father touches and saves the hearts.

MY WOUNDS ARE DOORS, THROUGH WHICH ALL PEOPLE, WHO LOVE ME, SHOULD PASS.

Since, it is not enough for the Light of Father to pass through My wounds, coming to you. You should also pass through My wounds, so that you might go to Him. Since, when I caught the hand of Thomas and put it in My pierced ribs, no only the Light of Father came to him, but he also went into the Light of Father, and his heart exclaimed:

“My Lord and my God!”

There, in the moment, when Thomas touched My wounds, he was moved with his spirit in that Glory and fullness, in which he no only knew Me as Lord, but he touched My Father, too. That is why, all My brothers and sisters should understand that when My blood entered their hearts and gave them Eternal Life, it would always want to go out and be free.

THE BLOOD, HOWEVER, BECOMES FREE ONLY THROUGH THE WOUNDS!

If there are no wounds, there is no blood, too. It is inside them, but there is no man to feel it and live in it. Blessed and holy those men, who let Me enter them and live instead of them. Then, they will surely accept in themselves the marks of the Lord. Since, I do not want to do anything else in the hearts of My people, except for freeing My blood in them, so that they might have My wounds in their life. Only in this way, the doors of the Eternal Salvation open. Only in this manner, I can become real in the life of the men...”

I was listening to the Lord and my heart was flourishing in the fullness of His Kindness and Love. Then, I told Him:

“Lord, only now can I understand what the life of your Apostle Paul has been. Since, he wrote in his message:

“Finally, let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus...” (Galatians 6:17)

If Paul has undoubtedly had Your marks, he has surely been crucified with You, so that Your wounds, Lord, might be witnesses of his life for You...”

Jesus smiled to my words. Then, He said:

“Here, these are the deepest and most important truths of the faith, which I will inspire you to write in this book. Since, My Father determines now time for My wounds. Everybody, who gains My wounds in his life, he will acquire My Eternal Life, too.

NOBODY, WHO HAS NOT THE LORD’S WOUNDS, APPEARED IN HIS LIFE, AND TESTIFYING FOR MY BLOOD, HAS THE ETERNAL LIFE!

Since, the power of Life is in the blood. The power of the wounds is in the sacrifice. And the power of the sacrifice is in Love. That one, who loves Me, he will want to suffer for My Name with joy. So, My wounds will appear in his life. That one, who does not love Me, he will not want to suffer for My Name. Such man will testify with the whole his life that he has not My blood, neither the longing of the Spirit, nor My Father's call.

Today, I am going to visit again My people! Today, I am visiting all people, who, like Thomas, have become full with doubt and hesitation. Here, I say and righteous words go out of My mouth:

Reach your hands and I will take and put them on My pierced ribs! Open your eyes and I will reveal to you My pierced hands! Humble your hearts and I will fill you with Me Myself! Free My blood and it will perfectly remind for itself!"

After His last words, Lord made the vision stop. Only a moment later, I was in front of my Bible, overfilled with the wisdom and Light of the Spirit, by which I took up writing all the precious words of this book.

2. THE APPEAL FOR THE LORD'S WOUNDS

My dear brother! I would like to be sure that you have not believed in vain and that, deep in yourself, you have the conviction that you belong to the Lord, Who has redeemed you by His blood. There is so much vain faith, so many corrupted truths, so many perverted readings of the Bible that it is not strange that all ways to the hell are interpreted like doctrines for salvation by any god. However, the God, Who I am going to talk about in this book, is very Holy and Most High; so you can not presume to determine Him or disparage Him to human scales. He is no only God. He is the Only God. It would be better for you to catch His hand, instead of any oily and clammy hand that knows nothing but gathering the envelopes with the tithes and gifts and holding the steering-wheel of a lustrous limousine. I still know that I do not know in fullness Lord Jesus. That is why, with tears in my eyes, I pray Him to forgive the whole my ignorance and imperfection. See, however that when He comes in your life, the same Gospel that you read, revives in your heart. It explodes in anointing and inspiration. It erupts and does not leave you until you lead under its power all people, who you love and who Lord wishes to touch by you. This is the reason for me to write books. Since, when Lord gives me His revelations and wants to give me wisdom, the most pernicious thing I would do, is to make my own safe for personal revelations, when my brothers no only die, but perish by the tentacles of deceit. Therefore, I advise you to be very attentive in this theme, because through it, Lord will lead you into the understanding of His perfect appeal. Now, let me read you this appeal:

“If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it...” (Matthew 16:24-25)

Do you see these words, my brother? Do you know how few people would like to live them? And, do you know how many people prefers to go after the first lustrous idol, ready to give them money and help, but unwilling to follow That One, Who shed His blood for them? When I asked Jesus how I should understand His appeal and why many do not want to live these words, He told me:

“Stefan, I have never pronounced even one My word for the sake of the men. I have pronounced all My words in the Gospel and I have confirmed My teaching for My sake. You yourself have not the power to cover My Way, to speak My Truth and to appear My Life. I am That One, Who goes on His Way, talks His Truth and lives His Life. If anyone wants to go after Me, such man must know that his “-self” will never want to follow Me. The Only One, Who can follow Me, I am...”

At first, the words of the Lord seemed to me very strange; later, however, I understood how deep and all-embracing the wisdom of Jesus was. Then, I told Him:

“Lord, if anybody denies himself, he stopped living for himself and by himself. Then, You enter the heart of such man in order to live Your Life inside him. Is this the way I should understand You?”

“Understand Me just in this way! Be wise to see that the marks of My presence in you are the same as the marks I had in My Life. Since, see and read My appeal once more. I no only tell you to follow Me. I tell you to take up your cross. However, what is one cross used for, Stefan? Since, the religious men would tell you that they use it as adornment; by it, they demonstrate that they are believers...”

“Lord, one cross is useful for the man to crucify himself with You on it, so that he might have the marks of Your wounds in his life. Here in this way I understand Your appeal...”

Lord smiled and I understood that my answer was right. After that, He said:

“When you take up your cross and I begin to live in your heart, then you provoke all powers of Evil. They do no longer see you, but Me, Who live in you. Then, My Father allows to you suffer for Me and you become associate to My sufferings in order to inherit My Glory, too. Then, what do you think? Will the wounds of the Lord appear in your life? Is not the purpose of My appeal with taking up the cross just this – the appearance of the Lord’s wounds in the life of My followers? Since, the wounds will appear the blood, and the blood will appear the Spirit, Who testifies to it. Then, how do some men want to appear the testimony of the Holy Spirit, when they have not My wounds, so that

My blood might testify, too? However, I talk in Spirit and My words are Spirit and Life. Let nobody understand them wrongly! Let everybody, who wants to test himself, look at My sufferings spiritually and wish to take a part in them. Since, I shed My blood many times and every time, some of My wounds testified about Me. Now, look at My wounds, Stefan! Let everybody, who read My words, written here, see them! So, My marks will surely turn into Heavenly doors for all redeemed people, but the faithfulness of My Covenant – the only way for them to enter them...”

After His last words, Lord began to show me visions, in which I understood the perfect Light of His words. See and be participant in these visions, my brother, so that you might have the most splendid privilege – the privilege to suffer for the Lord and to appear His wounds in your life.

Amen and Amen!

3. THE WOUND BY FLOGGING

Are you ready to follow the Lord? Are you ready to go in His Way? Then, only leave aside all the mouldy doctrines and go after Him in the Living Gospel. You know from your reading of the divine messages that Jesus was hated and despised by the religious authority of Israel. The Lord's nation has always had one heavy chain that has bound its feet and among the people, faithful to the God, there have always been men, born by their "father, the devil", who want to carry out their "father's desire". It was not possible for the God's Son to come in one world, which breathes death and violence, without being noticed by the devil as a target. It was not possible for That One, Who was giving Life and Light, to escape the arrows of hatred by those, whose mouth had always been "an open grave". However, our Saviour did not come to break the Law, but to fulfill it. That is why the Law has an essential place in this first wound. May be, you will be astonished how it is possible for the Law to have a hand in the Lord's wounds. However, think that the Law demanded sacrifice for sins, and Jesus became this Sacrifice. What is more, He not only became the Sacrifice, but He provoked all dark powers and Satan himself. Now, look at the vision, which Lord gave me, because without it, I myself was blind for the first wound of Jesus.

The Saviour revealed an especial view before the eyes of my heart. I was in the Temple of Jerusalem, even if Jesus was not close to me. Then I realized in my heart that Jesus Himself would take a part in the vision itself. So, I began to examine the things around me. I saw hundreds, even thousands people. There was a great mess around the stalls of the merchants and money changers. The scales were swinging and I could see how silver coins glittered on them. Lambs were baaing, doves were cooing, oxen were mooing. Chief priests and teachers of the law were slowly walking, and people around them noticed them and glorified them by their bows. In fact, the Temple of Father had turned into a den of robbers. The Holy place, built to be a house of prayer for all the tribes, had become a place of business, exchange, jobbery and deceit. Moreover, the Holy Spirit spiritually directed my look and I saw how Lucifer was standing on the roof of the temple. I was not surprised by this fact, because I knew from the biblical tale that he was that one, who led Jesus to the highest point of the Temple and tempted Him to throw Himself down and to put the Lord to the test. There was a satisfied smile on the face of Lucifer. This was his place and his abomination. However, the crowds moved as if a puff of wind passed over them. They were shaking. The spirit of this place was startled. Then, I saw Jesus. He was shining with Heavenly Light and He astounded those, who were looking at Him. My Lord made a whip out of cords and began to hit the backs of the merchants and money changers, crying:

“How dare you turn My Father’s house into a market? It is written that the house of My Father will be called a house of prayer, but you are making it a den of robbers...”

After His words, Lord began to overturn the tables and scales of the merchants, so that hundreds silver coins were scattered on the earth, and His whip kept hitting the astounded merchants, who could not believe to their eyes. Every thing, that my Lord did, made Lucifer roar painfully from the roof of the temple. Here are the words, which Lucifer, in his anger, pronounced against the Lord:

“Tooth for tooth, eye for eye, whip for whip. I will really revenge this humiliation! Yes! I will really revenge.”

After the last words of the devil, the vision stopped; then Lord stood next to me and told me:

“Who of you can see that if I received My first wound, it was because of the fact that the evil one received his wound, too? Whip for whip, Stefan! If Pilate flogged Me and delivered Me up to death on a cross, it happened in order to be fulfilled the Law. Now, I call to all those, who want My sufferings in order to acquire My Glory, too:

Chase the merchants out of My Temple! Chase away the spirit of the world, who stains the Holiness of My Father! Chase out all those, who have considered Lord your God to be business and prosperity! I have never visited the hearts of robbers and thieves! I have never testified in their favour. However, the time has come, when My blood will testify against such men. Then, think, did not I give to you a whip of cords, so that you might chase the merchants out of the Temple! Did not you write, by My anointing, one trilogy that was a whip in the hand of your Lord?”

"Yes, Lord Jesus! I wrote it!"

"After that, what did it happen in your life? Did not most people abuse you? Did not they spit on you? Did not they hate you? Did not the whip of hatred from all Pilates in the Temple begin to crack over your back, so that you might be embarrassed in your soul to death? And you, would you have felt the whip of the merchants on your heart unless they had felt on their hearts the whip by the Lord your God?"

Splendid Jesus! What could I answer to You, when there is such a Light in Your words; and it is not possible to be added to it, neither to take away from it! Therefore, I told Jesus:

"Lord, if I have done anything, it is due to Your great kindness and mercy. Since, the true and right words from the message of Paul emerge in my spirit and heart now. They said:

"When we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned with the world..." (1 Corinthians 11:32)

"I believe, Jesus that even then, when the merchants have felt Your whip on their backs, it has been, because You have wanted to save them, not to condemn them. However, most of them did not want to understand all this and I was accused of bringing a spirit of condemnation..."

Here, Jesus smiled and kept talking:

"If anybody does not want to be judge by Me now, he will be condemned by Me afterwards. Since, the Son of Man condemned the sin in His flesh on the Cross. And, if you are My flesh and Body now, should not I condemn the sin in the Body? Should I keep abomination that leads to desolation, in My Body? Here, such is the first wound, testifying for My blood:

THE FIRST WOUND IS THE WOUND FROM THE FLOGGING! EVERYBODY, WHO LISTENS TO MY VOICE AND WANTS TO PURIFY MY TEMPLE FROM THE ABOMINATION THAT LEADS TO DESOLATION, IS DESTINED TO SUFFER FOR ME AND TO BE FLOGGED BY ALL WORSHIPERS OF THE WORLDLY SPIRIT!

I, Lord and God Jesus Christ, tell such My faithful servant:

Do not be afraid, My servant! Since, even if My blood flows out from your wounds, it will not finish in you! Therefore, give freely your life to abusing and your soul to flogging, so that you might be found among those My precious people, who it is written about:

“Some faced jeers and flogging, while still others were chained and put in prison. They were stoned; they were sawed in two; they were put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and mistreated - the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground...” (Hebrews 11:36-38)

If anybody considers the world to be worthy, the world will consider him to be worthy, too. However, if you do not think the world worthy, then, be ready to receive My first wound, to which My blood testifies, too.

Now, let Me lead you in comprehension of My second wound...”

4. THE WOUND BY THE THORN-CROWN

My brother! I want for you to know that the wound from the thorn-crown surpasses in its pain the effect from all the rest possible wounds and injuries. For years, I could not understand this wound. I have been revolting for years, when Lord has been putting it on my head like an imposed trial. The truth is that I have been blind for His Life. The Truth is that my personal egoism and my own righteousness have been of more importance to me, than the wish to answer the God's expectation in a God's way.

Before revealing to you the vision, given me by Jesus, let me tell you some more words in the spirit of this reasoning. You yourself know well that the mankind bears the consequences of the deeds of Adam and Eve from the fall of man till now. Once, they sinned and the Most High pronounced before them some words, charged with a great destiny in them. Since, when God chased Adam out of His presence, He told him these words, too:

“Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, “You must not eat of it,” Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life. It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field...” (Genesis 3:17-18)

When Father utters a curse, His words will stay. They have stayed no only from Adam to Christ, but they have been staying from Christ till nowadays, too... What do I have in mind and why do I want for you to be attentive just in the God's warning? Look, my brother that Jesus had healed each illness and weakness among the men and He had preached the good news of the Heavenly Kingdom for three and a half years. For these three and a half years, the fallen mankind decided to repay the Saviour for His deeds. As a gift from the unrepented hearts and poisoned souls, as a payment for the pure and Holy deed, which the God's Son did, He was rewarded with one thorn-crown. These ungrateful hearts and corrupted souls willingly gathered the thorns and twined them in a crown. I wish you were attentive in this fact. Jesus received a thorn-crown. Do not these thorns remind anything to you? Did not God tell Adam that the earth would bear thorns and prickles for him? And, if Jesus was called by Paul “The last Adam”, could not you guess yet that:

WHAT THE LOT OF THE FIRST ADAM WAS, THE SAME THE PART OF THE LAST ADAM WAS!

Since, my brother, if I was able to go into the time of the Christ Life on the earth and if Lord had given to me to see His Face, I would twine a crown of the most beautiful flowers. I would look for roses, crocuses, saffron, lilies and violets. I would look for those splendid gifts on the earth, which Father clothes in a glory, greater than this of Solomon. I would kneel before Jesus, and I would put them humbly upon His head. However, those, who were the living witnesses of His deeds, twined a crown of thorns for Him...

Do you know what the spirit of the word "crown" is? "Crown" means consequences, and final reward, and glory, too. When Apostle Paul receives news from the Lord that he will soon be taken in Heaven, he writes these words:

"For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day - and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing..." (2 Timothy 4:6-8)

Do you see what the joy of Paul was? Do you see what delight there is in his hope? There is a hope for crown from the Lord, which Lord Himself will put upon the head of His righteous servant. Now, think... Did not Jesus deserve such a crown at the end of His tireless preaching and service before Father? Was not He the most worthy, on Whose Holy forehead befitted a crown of glory and righteousness? Then, why did He receive a crown of thorns? This is the question, which torn away from my heart, while Lord was preparing me for His deep revelations. Then, my Saviour gave me a vision.

I was in the garden of Gethsemane and, according to the Father's Will; I was standing before the kneeled Lord. Then I heard how Father told the Son:

"Do not expect a crown of Glory and thankfulness from this wicked generation! Since, the Scripture must be fulfilled and You must be numbered with the transgressors..."

In this moment, I saw a Heavenly Light around the Lord. In the Light itself, there was a splendid Heavenly crown. The crown radiated some state of admiration, thankfulness, and especially – real Love. I understood that Lord Jesus had always wanted to receive such a crown from the human children, who He had been feeding, healing and touching. However, Father was raising this crown above. In this moment, I saw how the Face of Jesus doubled up with some terrible pain and grief. Then, Jesus said quietly:

“My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will...”

A moment later, I saw Satan himself, who had other crown in his hand; it was twined with thorns. He stood over Jesus' head and pressed the crown on His head. In this moment, the Saviour began to pray more eagerly, and the prickles of the crown, put by the devil, made wounds on His forehead, so that His blood began to drop onto the ground. I was astounded by this vision. Only now did I understand that, a moment before the men succeed in twining Him a thorn-crown, Lord had already received the spiritual weight and wound from one other abominable crown, twined by the devil itself. The vision was horrible - so horrible that, without the God's Power, nobody could endure the Lord's pain. Then, Lord stopped the vision, stood next to me again and told me:

“Lay this in your spirit and comprehend everything from this vision deeply in your heart. Since, the wound from the thorn-crown is the most terrible of all and it might be endured only by My Power and firmness...”

“Lord, how should I understand this wound?” – I asked. Jesus replied:

“To wear a thorn-crown on your head, it means for you to live with the greatest contradiction in you. It is the contradiction to be condemned without any guilt and to be hated without any reason. It is the contradiction to sow good, but to reap evil. This contradiction is best described in the psalm, which said:

“O God, whom I praise, do not remain silent, for wicked and deceitful men have opened their mouths against me; they have spoken against me with lying tongues. With words of hatred they surround me; they attack me without cause...” (Psalm 109:1-3)

Do you perceive the written, Stefan? Do you notice that the enemies no only have opened their mouths against the God's servant, but they also “surround” him with words of hatred?”

"Yes, Lord! I notice that!"

"Well, does not this surrounding mean that the devil has twined a thorn-crown for you? Does not the crown surround the head, so as the evil words surround the enlightened heart?"

"Yes, Jesus! There is really "a thorn-crown" here, but I have never read this psalm with Your eyes in order to understand it."

"Then, look how it continues. Since David, praying, also says these words:

"In return for my friendship they accuse me, but I am a man of prayer. They repay me evil for good, and hatred for my friendship..."

(Psalm 109:4-5)

When I gave to you the vision, did not you see Me in a prayer? Did not the men repay your Lord all the evil of their hearts, for all the good, which He appeared to them?"

"Yes, Jesus! So it was!"

Lord raised His two pierced hands and put them over my head, even if He wanted to confirm entirely my heart. Then, He said quietly:

"Finally, you understood what the thorn-crown of the devil upon My head was. These were His oppressing thoughts, which he was trying to suggest to me! This was the cruel injustice, which I had to drink, like a bitter cup in My Life. Did not My witnesses and followers drink it, too? Can you really forget My deacon Stefan? Does not the name "Stefan" mean "one, who wears crown"? Was not he surrounded by all those thorns, who He was talking to with ardour and thrill, but they killed him with stones? Here, your Lord tells you and let all My faithful people know that:

"Do not try to take off My thorn-crown from your heads! Do not pray Me to repay over the enemies of My Gospel on your time! Since, in this manner, My blood would disappear from your foreheads and your righteousness would be glorified, not Mine. Let everybody, who had a thorn-crown on his head, pray the Lord for power and I will give it to him to endure. Since, there is a little while, and you will see Me. The Son of Man will come in His Glory. There, on My wedding supper, I will gather around Me those, who endure in My trials and who are not tempted because of the evil, which comes. As to the rests, they will be sobbing, because the written will become true:

“Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and all the peoples of the earth will mourn because of him. So shall it be! Amen...” (Revelation 1:7)

As to the wounds on My hands and feet, look at the My next dedication to you...”

So, Lord stopped His vision to me. Then, my dear brother, I felt that I had begun to wear a thorn-crown yet from the beginning of my devotion in the God's Prophetic Spirit. Everything that Lord had talked to me here became reality. As a reward for the God's Love, which Jesus filled me with, most people became my enemies. They were hurry to tear and burn out all the word, which Lord was giving them freely. Therefore, I will keep wearing the thorns on my head and if you have believed in the God's words, shared here, you begin to wear such a crown, too. In the fire of the greatest sorrow, you will experience the greatest miracle in your life. Since, the Word is always active. If it was written about Jesus that in the moment of a supreme grief, an angel appeared and was supporting Him, then, think, who will appear in the grief of your life to support you...

I say “Amen” to His faithfulness and Power to keep us perfectly from all kinds of evil!

5. THE WOUND BY THE NAILS IN THE HANDS AND FEET

Do you know how many people read the Word with such dioptré of short-sightedness before their hearts that the letter not only kills them, but it turns them into killers, too? Such men with short-sighted faith have decided to walk in the possibly widest way, preaching the easiest coming into the Kingdom. However, there is not such entering. There is not such a way. Such entrance and way are only mirages into the desert of the most abominable and disgusting vainglory, in which thousands churches sink. I do not want to frighten you with it. I do not want to take away the joy of Salvation from you. I want for you to grow to Salvation, instead of staying in faith that Jesus has done everything and your only duty is to go to the wedding banquet. Therefore, let me read you some words of Apostle Paul, because I believe that they are said so categorically that even the blind man would see and the deaf one would hear them:

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified...” (Romans 8:28:30)

Do you see how the Apostle has told you that Father makes us to be conformed to the likeness of His Son? Now, think! Which moment did Father begin to make us conformed to His Son from? Was not it that moment, when His Son rose and sat down from the right of His Power? Did not deacon Stefan testify about that? He said:

“Look, I see Heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God...” (Acts 7:56)

If Father began to make us conformed to His Son after His rising and sitting next to Him, then, think, what was the Holy Spirit, Who poured out in the day of Pentecost, charged with? Since, the God’s Truth will confirm in your heart that:

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS CHARGED WITH THE POWER TO PICTURE IN YOU THAT JESUS, WHO STANDS FROM THE RIGHT OF FATHER!

And, That Jesus, Who stands from the right of Father, stands before Him with His eternal marks – marks in the hands and feet, and a mark on His side. Therefore, have in mind that when Jesus wants to see you conformed to His Son, He will want to see not only the Image of His One and Only Son, but also the marks, which Jesus received for the time of His Holy service before Father. Then, tell me: are you ready for the Heaven? Have you got the Lord's wounds on you – as clearly visible as Paul had them on himself? Do you know that when Lord raised me in Heavenly places to see His servants, I saw that, with no exception, all they had the Lord's wounds on themselves? Then, do you know what fateful power is hidden in the words of Jesus? Do you understand that if you do not live His Word, if you do not raise your cross and follow Him, you are the most pitiable of all men? Since, you deceive yourself that, one day, you will be in His Heavenly places without having even suffered for His Name? That is why I ask you to fall on your knees and ask Jesus to put on you that Power, which you need in order to gain the Lord's wounds.

Now, I would like for you to know that, when you deny yourself and raise your cross in order to follow Jesus, you have not only denied your own "-self". No!

YOU HAVE DENIED ALL PEOPLE, WHO SERVE THEIR OWN "-SELF" AND WHO DO NOT WANT TO BE CRUCIFIED TOGETHER WITH THE LORD!

You will no longer find common ground with such men. Since, when they come in the place of abomination that leads to desolation, they will begin to chuckle and cry "Alleluia", but you will be disgusted and revolted at such place. Such men will bow before each merchant, but you will take out the whip of the zeal. Such men will heap abuse on you that you do not plunge with them into the same flood of dissipation, but you will be touched and incited by the Lord to separate from them and to go out from among them...

Then, tell me, my brother, what will the attitude of such believers be to you since this moment? Is not the short-sighted faith so near-sighted that it perceives only creeping brutes and insects, whom it bows before and whom it exalts? Will such faith be able to see one free dove, flying above in Heaven? No! It is impossible to happen, because faith can reach only to the place of its target. Now, there is faith in the financial prosperity and its target reaches no farther than the foyer of the bank. Today, there is faith in one human Logos and its target reaches no farther than the lustrous diploma. However, that real faith, which Jesus left us, can not be found on the earth. You will acquire it in your heart only if you crucify yourself together with the Lord. Then, not you, but He will believe instead of you. And, He knows how to believe. His Faith comes, when you faith is dead.

THE CROSS IS THAT PLACE, WHERE YOU WILL LEAVE YOUR FAITH AND WILL EMBRACE HIS FAITH!

Therefore, let me reveal to you now the vision that Jesus gave me in order to show me spiritually His faithful followers.

I was again before the cross of Golgotha and I was looking at my Lord, Who was jostled by the Roman soldier on the earth. I saw how some more soldiers were binding His hands and were holding His feet, in order to fix them with nails to the wood. In that moment, while I was looking at the crucifixion, the Heaven darkened over me and dusk descended upon the earth. One light ray flashed in the dark arch of heaven and stood over the cross with the crucified Lord. Then, blinding Light began to go out of Jesus, so that the outlines of the cross openly disappeared. Suddenly, a voice came from the Heaven, which was saying:

"...I will greatly increase your pains in childbearing; with pain you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you..." (Genesis 3:16)

When the speaking aloud stopped, I clearly saw the Cross again and I was shocked and shook to the depth of my heart. There, on the Cross, I did no longer see Lord Jesus, but His Bride, the Church. She was likened to a woman, on whose face there was described humility and grief. The Bride Herself was also crucified, and the blood of Christ was flowing down from her hands and feet. In this moment, I felt the Lord's presence next to me. He asked me:

"Do you see My True Bride? Did you understand the voice from Heaven?"

I answered: "Lord, I think that this was the voice of Father. In His words, I recognized the promise that He gave to Eve, a moment before chasing her out of the Eden's garden..."

Then Jesus continued:

"The voice was really My Father's voice, and the words – His Holy activity, a moment before the end of the world. Since, My Father is not ready to take whatever Bride in His home. He can take only that Bride, who has become one flesh with the Bridegroom, so that the words, pronounced by Adam might be true:

"...This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called "woman," for she was taken out of man." For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh..." (Genesis 2:23-24)

Think, Stefan! If the devil makes many crucify the Lord second time in their hearts now, then, will not the marks from My wounds appear again upon My Body? And, if the Church is My Body, why do you still wonder to the vision itself? Does not it come to show you that the last nails of the last Roman servants will fix again into the Body of your Lord? All men, who are one flesh with Me, will feel the pain from the nails, so as I felt it once. That is why My last Bride will come to Me crucified and pierced by all worshipers of Rome, which is the spiritual personification of the worldly spirit. So, the ancient word that Father spoke to the woman of the first Adam will be realized again, because it comes like a burden upon the woman of the Last Adam. Therefore, I tell all My faithful men:

"I will greatly increase your pains in the true Gospel. All your desires will be for Me and I will rule over you..."

Then, remember, Stefan, what Gospel were My apostles preaching? What were they teaching all new-born in Spirit to?"

While Lord was talking to me, the true verses from "Acts" emerged in my heart. I told the Lord:

"Jesus, it was written about Your true witnesses what their activity was:

"...strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. "We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said..." (Acts 14:22)

Hardly read the verses, Lord added in my heart:

"Is there any grief, greater than the grief of My wounds? Is there any sorrow greater than the sorrow, by which you see how the nails of the worldly spirit drive into your heart? Is there any suffering, greater than the suffering to appear My example, while dogs, hyenas and wolves are crying and calling you "antichrist" and "heretic", only because you do not want to bow before Mammon, as they did it? How many are those, who will crucify themselves together with Me? How many are those, who, even being crucified, will not feel to be worthy, as My Apostle Peter was? Since, My servant, who did the deed of the Gospel single-handed, did not find him to be worthy and he insisted to be crucified upside-down. Here, such servants, Stefan, My heart longs to find.

SERVANTS, WHO REMEMBER THAT THE CHURCH IS MINE AND THEY ARE NOT THEIR OWN! SERVANTS, WHO SHOW AND PROVE BY ALL THEIR LIFE THAT EVERY THEIR WISH IS SUBMITTED TO THE LORD AND HE RULES OVER THEM!

As to the nails, by which the world crucifies My last faithful people, think better over the words, by which I warned you in "The Gospel by Matthew". Did not I say that the love of many will grow cold? If anything is getting cold, it comes a moment for it to become very cold. And, when what is very cold become colder, it comes a moment for it to turn into a stone. Finally, when what is stone become colder and colder, it turns into iron. Such iron generation has filled the church temples now. It is the generation, which it was written about:

"...those whose teeth are swords and whose jaws are set with knives to devour the poor from the earth, the needy from among mankind..." (Proverbs 30:14)

Since, when the darkened multitude preaches doctrines about earth glory and treasures with undisguised lust and avarice, then My poor and needy men are really devoured. Such poor men are pointed by church rich men; they are humiliated and accused of little faith. Then, My poor brothers really feel how nails of common disdain and abuse pierce their hearts. Those pure God's children, who are My hands, doing My deeds and My feet, walking on My Way, are crucified by the nails of abomination. Do you understand now, what does it mean to have in you Lord's wounds on your feet and hands?"

"Yes, Lord! I understand now that if I want to have Your wounds, I should make the Heaven my homeland; so, the world should be crucified for me and I should be crucified for it. To have Your wounds – it means for me to be devoted only to Your Heavenly Cause and to accept like a lamb and in a perfect humbleness all nails, by which the evil one would attack me in his fury..."

Lord smiled and added:

"Know then and let everybody knows that the greatest test for the hearts since the creation of the world is now. Now, My Father will gather and seal by My Covenant all people, whose feet and hands have been pierced because of Me. A moment before the taking in Heaven and the wedding supper, My Bride will take in herself My wounds, so that she might participate in My Glory, too. As to the question how to get over the fury and hatred of the devil, look better at My last wound – the wound in My ribs..."

6. THE WOUND IN THE RIBS BY THE ROMAN SPEAR

My dear reader! One of the most important spiritual experiences, which Lord gave me to acquire for all years of my communication with Him, was that I understood about the existence of one inviolable spiritual principle. This principle consists in the fact that, the more real Lord becomes for the man, the narrower the door of Salvation is getting. Since, Salvation is not in us, but in Him. If we are changeable, He never changes. However, the last generations of Christians displaced the target point of faith. They decided that there were clear enough model of godliness on the earth and we had not need to peer so much into the Author and Perfecter of our faith. Tragic and catastrophic was the fact that the fleshly mind had created hundreds and thousands theological manuals. It was the same as if they had seen one photo of Everest and had decided in their hearts that they were already alpinists. However, no matter whether one man considers himself to be alpinist, Everest will rest so high, as it is. So it is with lots of Christians. They believe that they have known Christ and that Christ personally knows them. However, either they believe or not, the test by Father will stand in the life of every one of them. The true God's children will clearly show up only when they receive in themselves the Lord's wounds. As to the rests, who will bow before the devil in order to escape the wounds, they will also receive their destiny in their time.

Now, I ask you to be attentive in this theme, because there are secrets in it, kept silent for millennia. I clearly understood these secrets, when Lord made me participant in the two visions, which He gave me. Here is the first vision.

I was again before the cross of Golgotha and I could see how my Lord had already given His Spirit to Father. Over the very cross of Golgotha, I saw the devil, surrounded by many chiefs of Evil. Lucifer was triumphing and saying to all his subordinates:

"He is dead! He is already dead and He will no longer stand in my way! However, for greater calm to my heart, pierce Him in the ribs, too, because His Power by Jehovah was there..."

Then, one of the Roman soldiers approached His crucified Body and drove his spear into His ribs. Water and blood flew out of the pierced place. The water and blood were shining in the vision itself, and their light touched the heart of one of the soldiers. Looking at the pierced ribs of Jesus, this soldier said quietly:

“Surely this man was the Son of God!”

So I understood that in the ribs, from which water and blood flew out, there was Power from the God. It was so great power that it touched the heart of the pagan and he confessed the Son of the God. In the next moment, I was already fallen on my knees and I was praying Lord to reveal to me the secret of this vision. Lord listened to me and made the vision stop. Then, He came close to my heart and told me:

“Remember and tell all My brothers and sisters about everything you saw in the vision. Since, with the piercing of My ribs, the devil did the greatest evil against Me. Moreover, as he did it once, so he is doing it again now...”

I was listening to Jesus, but I could not understand Him. Therefore, I asked Him again:

“Lord, why did the devil tell his chiefs that the Power of God Father has been in Your ribs? I could not understand this...”

Jesus smiled and caught my hand. After that, He took it close to His Body and He told me the same words, which He had told Thomas:

“Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe...” (John 20:27)

So, I put my fingers into the pierced side of my Lord. Then, something wonderful happened with my spirit. Light, whatever had never suffused me, flashed over me. I felt myself forever joined together with my Lord; so, I could not understand yet the fullness of the secret, which He was revealing to me. Then, Jesus took pity on the weakness of my mind and He gave me a vision again.

I was in the Lord’s Garden of Eden among the splendour and perfection of the God’s creations. Then, my look noticed Adam. He was lain among dense green grass and his eyes were closed, because he was sleeping. Then, my Lord Jesus approached him. He bent over Adam and touched his ribs with a hand. So the Lord’s hand separated one of the Adam’s ribs and raised it. After that, Lord bent down again over the sleeping Adam; He touched his body on the place, where He had taken the rib from, and filled it with flesh. In this moment, My splendid Creator turned to me and told me:

“Do you understand now that I created Eve from the rib of the first Adam?”

“Yes, Jesus! I understand this!” – I answered. Lord kept talking; He asked me:

“If Lord created the first Eve from the rib of the first Adam, then, would not Father create the Last Eve from the rib of the Last Adam?”

“Yes, Jesus! So it is!” – I replied. And Lord kept again talking to me, saying:

“Now, look at the first Adam! See his nakedness and think over this: Was Adam ashamed of being naked?”

“No, Jesus! Adam did not feel ashamed. Since, it is written that:

“The man and his wife were both naked, and they felt no shame...”
(Genesis 2:25)

Then, Jesus continued with a question, which was like an opening of a blindingly light door:

“Who of My servants knew that he was born by the flesh and bones of the last Adam, so that he might live with the faith that he must be the Last Eve? Who did not wish to put on him anything from the world and rested naked, but he felt no shame? Who declared in his messages that he wandered in rags “to this very hour”?

I answered with excitement:

“Lord, this was Your Apostle Paul. He knew that he was born by You. He knew that he had nothing from this world; that is why he was naked for the world. And, when most people thought that he was ashamed, the same this Paul, born by Your bones and Flesh, declared:

“I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes...” (Romans 1:16)

Jesus smiled and kept talking:

“Now, do you understand where the spear of Rome points at? Do you realize now, which the most frightful attack of the devil is? Tell all My faithful people and let them know that:

THE SPEAR OF ROME POINTS AND DRIVES INTO THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST, TO WHICH THE LORD'S RIBS TESTIFY, TOO! SINCE, EVERYBODY, WHO HAS BELIEVED IN ME, IS CREATED FROM MY FLESH AND MY BONES!

Therefore, Lord your God warns you with His words:

Today, and to the end of the world, the devil will raise servants in the spirit of Rome, who will not have any other aim, than to pierce and destroy the Power of My Gospel. Now, and to the end of the century, the devil will make many feel ashamed of My Gospel, since they are dressed for the world, but naked for My Kingdom. Now, and to the end of the world, the spear of the worldly spirit will drive into the Lord's ribs to destroy the Power of God, which creates the Church. Only those My servants, who survive in perfect humbleness and who are completely devoted to Me, will perform the Evangelic signs of My wounds of the cross. Since, when the spear of the worldly spirit pierced the ribs of My people, they would not answer to the spear with a spear, but only Spirit, water and blood would flow out of their hearts.

"For there are three that testify: the Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement..." (1 John 5:7-8)

That is why I do no longer call, but I command:

Leave those meetings, in which the Holy Spirit does not preach from the pulpits, but the spirit of Rome! Since, meetings, in which financial prosperity and worldly theology are preached, such meetings have for chiefs Roman soldiers with spears, always ready to perform the expectations of the evil one.

Survive in My Gospel, because it will give to you the Power of My bones. Let the Spirit of Truth, the water of repentance and the Blood of Salvation well out of your hearts always, when the devil tries to pierce you with the spirit of the world. Only in this way, you will survive in Me! Only in this manner, you will glorify in your life the wounds of the Lord your God! Only so, you will answer to the cry of My blood!

Here, I am coming soon!

Those, who pierced Me, will look at Me! I will take in My Heaven those men, who bear My sufferings in them!

I will lay a crown of righteousness upon the heads of all people, who do not feel ashamed that they are naked for the world, but who have overcome the prince of this world with the word of their own testimony and by My Blood!

I pronounced it! I spoke it!"
