

THE SILENT WATERS OF SILOAM

A MESSAGE FROM THE CIRCLE OF WINE

STEFAN GLAVCHEV

www.moriah-servant.org

CONTENTS

To your heart.....	3
1. The vision with the noise in Heaven.....	8
2. The vision with the waters of Euphrates.....	13
3. The vision with the noise of the retreated churches.....	19
4. The silence of humbleness.....	24

TO YOUR HEART

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

One more especial book has fallen in your hands now. It is unusual book. It is a spiritual regard over the state of our spirit, which the state of the whole our life is dependent on. For the last years of my communication with Jesus, I received visions, which radically changed my attitude to the world, to the fellow-men and to the God. I realized that, the more holy and highly-standing our Heavenly Father was, the more terrible the chains, by which the world detained those, who had rejected the stretched God's hand, were. What is more – while I was examining the life of men by the abundant God's anointing, I comprehended that they were no only captives, but victims of the worldly spirit. In the moment, when I realized all this, Jesus made me examine my own life and compare it to the life of those, who did not want to accept the radical appeal of the God's Voice. This examination was long enough and tiring for me. The more I was staring into the marks of my own life, the more it was getting different from the life of the rests. So, it came a moment, when I did not want to examine my life, because the conclusions made me feel separated from all the rests. Yes, my brother! My heart noticed a mark, which had been hanging like an invisible shroud over my spirit for all years of my communication with Jesus.

This mark was the silence...

Coming back to the last years, I could see how the whole my being had been striving for silence. There was no one book, which I had written in noise or among the talk of the town and the topic of the day. At the contrary – I turned my nights into days. At night exactly, when all voices were calming down, Jesus was coming like a sun in my heart. Then, His rays were touching the most secret recesses of my heart. Amidst the God's Light, my eyes had begun to see, in order to see everything invisible and hidden. If beforehand, I was delighted with the fact that God visited me to talk to my heart; now, He Himself made me feel no only His benevolence, but the atmosphere of my communication with Him. This atmosphere was steeped in silence; silence, so realer than the natural one that I understood – it itself was a state of my spirit. Exactly the silence in my spirit has allowed me to hear the God's Voice and has made possible the appearance of Jesus inside my heart. Then, in the instant of my comprehension of silence, Jesus was again next to me. He told me:

“I gave too much to My brothers and sisters through you. Now, however, I demand your complete humbleness, so that I might give those, who believe in Me, one of the greatest wealth for every heart – the wealth to hear My Voice!

I give you to hear it not only in some moment and on definite places, but always and everywhere. What do you think? Is that possible? Is it possible for a man to follow Me and to obey to Me, so that to be able to hear My Voice always and everywhere? Not his own voice or the voice of the people around, but My Voice...”

I was listening to Jesus and I knew that He was waiting for me to answer Him. Therefore, I told Him:

“Lord, it is probably possible for me to hear only Your Voice. However, I confess before You that I often remain out of Your Presence, where Your Voice might be heard. Then, my heart feels very depressed because of the many other voices, which it has had to listen to...”

“And what do you need in order to hear My Voice? Which is the best atmosphere for you to hear somebody’s voice? Is not this the silence? For, who would hear what he is spoken, if his ear is irritated due to the loud noise? Should not such man look for silence, in order to hear clearly what he is spoken? Then, do you understand that, if I have talked to your heart and spirit for all these years, it is due to the fact that you have sought the silence in order to hear Me. I have not in mind only the silence for the flesh, but the silence for the spirit. Then, think why My Gospel is namely Good News. Is not It intended for being heard by the ears and preached by the lips? However, whose ears would hear the Good News? And, whose lips would preach it?”

“Jesus, it is evident that, to understand Your Gospel, we need silence; silence - deep enough for us to hear the Voice from Heaven...”

“Then, remember how those shepherds, who first had the splendid privilege to hear the Good News, received This Voice from Heaven!”

“Jesus! There is one splendid song, by which the God’s people bow down before Your birth on the earth. It begins with the words: “Silent night, Holy night...”

“Silent exactly, Stefan! For, if anything is not silent, it can not be Holy, too. Here this is what My Church has lost and what she should retrieve, so that she might really be Holy before the Face of My Father - that silence, in which all hearts confess that they need nothing but the Lord’s Voice; that silence, in which all hearts silently kneel before the God. For, God talks only then, when the others are silent. However, if the others talk, He is silent.

Do you better understand now why you have sought the silence for all days of your communication with Me? How would I have poured in your heart the whole Heavenly Anointing and the whole Heavenly fullness unless your heart had abided in silence? However, you humbled your heart and were silent before Me; that is why I talked to you. To be silent, when everybody around you talks; to look for silence, when everybody around you prefer the noise – here this means for you to pay the worth and to be a vessel, in which the God’s Voice pours His words. And this God’s Voice has declared in His Word long ago where the places of the spiritual silence and the Perfect God’s Benevolence are. Here about this place, I am going to give you to talk in this book; about the silent waters of Siloam, in which all silent hearts will abide from now and forever. Remember what the psalm of David was declaring. Do you remind how the God’s anointed man appeared the marks of the Perfect God’s benevolence?”

The words of Jesus were so pronounced that I knew in myself which one this psalm was. Therefore, I answered to the Lord:

“Jesus! Your anointed man declared in his splendid psalm, saying:

“The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not be in want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake...” (Psalms 23:1-3)

“Well, as you yourself see, I like leading My sheep in green pastures, beside quiet waters. Why beside “quiet waters”? Why do not

I lead them at the roaring waves of the sea, but beside the silent waters of Siloam?"

"My Lord! You Yourself talked us in Your Word about the sheep with the words:

"My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand..." (John 10:27-28)

"Then, do you understand that My sheep must really be led beside quiet waters, so that they might listen to My Voice?

However, by whom else would Lord lead them, but through His servants, who listen to His Voice?

And how would My people recognize the silent waters of Siloam, but through the testimony of the Lord's servants?

For, I have loaded them with the whole burden of revival and resurrection of My Church now. Therefore, I turn at the whole My Church now, and I tell her:

My Church, awake! My Church, rise! My Church, leave the noisy places of the word, because you will neither hear My Voice there, nor will you follow the servant of My Father.

If I was abundantly pouring out from My Heavenly treasures through My servant, it was, because his feet were always dipped in the silent waters of Siloam. And, if Siloam means "messenger", it is because Lord draws His people out of the power of Babylon exactly through His prophets, sent to you. So, you will be able to find the quiet and calming places of My Spirit. So, you will understand that I am gentle and humble in heart and I give peace for your souls now. I give silence for your souls from the exhausting noise of the world..."

After His last words, Lord turned again at me and told me:

"Now, be ready and entirely give your heart in My hand. For, I will not only lead My people beside the quiet waters of Siloam, but before that, I will show them the whole noise of the world and its prince. So, you will understand the prophetic words of your Lord, by which I warned you in the Gospel. So, you will also understand the anger of My Father, Who, through His prophet Isaiah, sealed the wicked men under the very true prophecy that declares:

“Because this people has rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoices over Rezin and the son of Remaliah, therefore the Lord is about to bring against them the mighty floodwaters of the River (from Greek translation – River Euphrates) the king of Assyria with all his pomp. It will overflow all its channels, run over all its banks and sweep on into Judah, swirling over it, passing through it and reaching up to the neck. Its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land, O Immanuel!” (Isaiah 8:6-8)

Behold, Lord speaks in open!

Those one, who are quiet, will surely hear His Voice!

They will understand that if there are two generations on the earth, there will be two rivers, too. If the river Gihon and the stream of Siloam are intended for the God’s children, the river Euphrates and the waves of the world are for the God’s apostates. The firsts will abide in the silence of peace; the others will rest in the chaos of noise. The firsts will humble their souls in the Lord’s calm, but the others will raise their hearts in the uproar of the devil. What is more – I will devote My prophet in the visions I am going to give him: visions about the noise of haughtiness and the silence of humbleness. Blissful are those, who deny the noise and look for peace now. They will be the Lord’s trees, planted at the silent waters...”

After His last words, Jesus stretched out His hand and touched my head. By the divine touching, my spirit was filled with the waters of the Holy Spirit, which raised me highly up in heavenly places. So, I could see those hidden truth, which Lord generously appears to His Church now.

My brother! My faithful friend!

I pray to My Saviour to give you quiet heart, so that you might find yourself in the Life of the God and your spirit – to be enlightened by the Lord’s Voice! Amen and Amen!

1. THE VISION WITH THE NOISE IN HEAVEN

My brother! I do not know whether you are quiet or noisy. I do not know whether you prefer silence or noise. Before the Lord and His Holiness, however, I am obliged to warn your heart with the visions in this book. For, if there is a tragedy that has least been realized by the fallen mankind, this is the tragedy of noise; the tragedy of the many voices and grumble that not only make the tympanums of the ear tremble, but drown the God's Voice. So, man could not find an exit way in his life. I do not intend here to remind you what happened in the camp of Israel, while Moses was at the top of the Mount of Sinai. I do not intend also talking about that ugly noise from the crowds in the ears of Pilate, by which the devil deafened not only the God's Voice to the Roman governor, but the voice of his conscience. However, I really want to devote you in the vision, which Jesus revealed before my heart. This vision fully convinced me who the father of noise was and when this noise was conceived and born. Now, let me show you the vision itself, given to my heart by the Lord. Here are the words of Jesus, a moment before my devotion. He said:

"Let me show you now who the father of noise is and how the noise itself was born..."

After His words, Jesus touched my head. So, after a little while, the majesty of the Heavenly places revealed in front of me. There were hundreds and thousands Heavenly angels, who were lightly spreading their wings. They had surrounded the Mount Zion. Then, Jesus told me:

"According to the God's foreknowing and the categorical Will of My Father, you are now laid in a vision, which will show you the moment before the fall of Lucifer. Therefore, follow Me, so that we might enter the God's Sanctuary..."

After His words, Lord went to the God's Palace of Holiness, and I followed Him. There was no longer than my feet stepped over the opened gold door, behind which the space was shining with fiery flames. Still holding my hand and leading me further, Jesus quietly told me:

"You are in the God's Sanctuary now. Here is the Holiness of My Father, which receives the praise and worship of the whole Heaven and its inhabitants. Therefore, listen to the sounds, which the very God's Heart is listening..."

After the words of Jesus, my spirit felt a puff of Heavenly music, which millions of voices were flowing into. It was the most splendid music for my heart. Everything in it was perfect and harmonic. The praise was like the waters of an invisible river, which waves were gently touching the heart. It was as if they were caressing and fondling it with the greatest possible love and endearment. It was a moment of the God's intimacy; a moment of that most splendid and elevated love, by which the whole creation was bowing before the Creator and loved Him with such sincerity and selflessness, what only the Source of Love and Eternal Life may deserve. It was a quiet praise, so peaceful and majestic, so tender and elevated that, there was not more blissful and splendid state for that one, who would be floating in the music and words of the God's worshipers. I knew that I could rest in this state not only for hours, but for the whole eternity. The delight and happiness here called after them more delight and happiness, so that the praise and worship were traveling to the God's Heart. Then, waves of Paternal touching and enlightening were coming out of the Father's Heart and were traveling back to the creations. It seemed to me that it was the perfect height of the most perfect experience of the Life of Father and His creations.

Exactly then, in the moment, when I delighted in the perfectly gradating waves of harmony and word, some noise reached my heart. It was a harsh jar, like a glaring dissonance and a false singing among the whole sincerity of the creation. Here, this jar grew louder, so that my heart could no longer feel the Paternal benevolence and touching. What is more – the noise and the false voices were growing louder and louder, sometimes deafening the clearness of the praise and worship. Figuratively said, the noise reminded the breaking of the huge sea waves against the firm rocks of the shore. With trouble in my heart, I raised a look at Jesus. The eyes of My Lord were full with tears. Waves of such grief began to flow out of His Heart to me that my spirit wept. In my lament, I quietly asked the Son of God:

"What is going on, My Lord? Where were the clearness and beauty of the perfect praise before the Heart of Father lost? And, what is this noise, which broke the perfect harmony, like?"

In reply to my question, Jesus rose. He took my hand and led me out of the Palace of the God's Holiness. Then, He pointed with His hand forwards, and advised me:

"Look now what happened to the praise of some Heavenly creatures..."

Indeed, I looked and saw that one part of the Heavenly praise was flowing to the God's Throne like a light river; other part, however, had turned aside and its waters were no more looking for the God's Heart. At the contrary – they were like waves, which were terribly roaring, looking for an entrance to rush into any other heart, different from the God's one. In this moment, the whole Heaven was roaring with this repulsive and ugly noise. Jesus looked at me with very careful regard and said:

"Let Me lead you to see where these waves of praise, which refused to flow into the Heart of My Father, flow into..."

So, Jesus went forward and I followed Him. Very soon, I saw the cherub Lucifer himself, who had spread his wings and overshadowing power was coming out of them to the lots of the Heavenly creations. Those of them, who had yielded to his overshadowing, had begun to praise the creation Lucifer, instead of the Creator Himself. So, their praise had the effect of very loud noise. This noise was flowing like high waves into the heart of the guardian cherubim. My heart could hardly endure this vision. Therefore, I raised my hand, pointed at the terrible abomination and I asked Jesus:

"Lord, how should I understand this noise? Why is it so loud and terrible? In the last reckoning, why is the praise to the heart of Lucifer coming like high waves?"

Jesus replied:

"Remember from Me that noise appears there, where lots of voices rise against the Only God's Voice. If silence is in the admiration and inspiration by the God, then, noise comes from the hearts of those, who have got conceited and do not want any more to bow before Him and to serve Him. So, these multitudes of noisy angels, who you see now, did not keep their positions of authority and their dignity. Their hearts became haughty toward the Creator and they decided to praise one overshadowing cherub..."

"Is that the reason, my Lord, for their praise to be no more calm waters, but roaring waves?"

"That is right, My boy! Through the noise of haughtiness exactly, Lucifer corrupted one third of the Heavenly angels. The voices of these corrupted creatures rose like roaring waves highly against the Holiness of Father. Therefore, examine now how My Father will answer to this noise and this wickedness..."

While Jesus was talking to my heart, I noticed how a fiery ray of Light, resembling to a sword, went out of the doors of the God's Palace. This ray rose above the roaring waves. After that, for a little while, less than an instant, it cut them off the God's Heaven, so that, amidst a horrible rumble and noise, the waters fell down on the earth and splashed on it in all direction. It was the God's wrath against a great number of Heavenly angels and against their inspirer Lucifer. In a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, they all were rejected from Heaven and fell on the earth in rumble and roar. In this moment of the Father's anger, one mighty Voice shook the Mount Zion and heavens themselves, saying to the falling Lucifer and to all his angels:

"All your pomp has been brought down to the grave, along with the noise of your harps; maggots are spread out beneath you and worms cover you..." (Isaiah 14:11)

Jesus, who was firmly looking at my speechless heart, said:

"Go and tell My Church My words. Go and tell all those, who trust in the God's Word that, the moment has come for them to understand the God's questions, asked by His Prophet Isaiah. Once, My Father asked through His Prophet:

"How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the earth, you who once laid low the nations!" (Isaiah 14:12)

Now, I answer you through My servant Stefan:

Here how fell from Heaven morning star, son of the dawn! Here how had cast down to the earth that one, who was laying low the nations; who was bringing them to ruin! For, he did not wish to abide in quiet praise before My Father, but he turned into noisy praise of himself. From son of the dawn, he turned into a prince of darkness.

From child of silence, he became a father of noise. Then, all his pomp brought him down to the grave. So, Lucifer became a prince of the perishing world; this world that raises highly the waves of its noisy praise to its own destroyer and devastator.

Do you understand then that the moment, when I am leading you out of the authority of the world, is now? Do you understand that, one and all, you should abandon the noisy meetings of Babylon? For, the same fallen angels, who raised the noise in Heaven, are working in these meeting now. By these fallen creatures exactly, the devil is raising the waters of his river Euphrates now. By his noise, he wants to drag away all those, who hate the God's Voice and who do not want to be led by the God's Spirit.

That is why I am going to give to My Prophet now the second vision, related to the noisy waters of Euphrates. For, that one, who was noisy in Heaven, he will surely keep making noise on the earth, too. Woe to those, who rest in his noise and do not wish to enter the silent waters of Siloam..."

After the last words of Jesus, the vision with the heavenly places stopped, and my heart thrillingly began to expect the vision with the waters of Euphrates. Now, let me continue with it.

2. THE VISION WITH THE WATERS OF EUPHRATES

My brother! My faithful friend!

Do you understand the words of our Lord? Do you understand that all of us, who call ourselves with His Name, are called to be like Heavenly angels in the middle of the perishing world? In a moment, when the hearts of the men overflow with worldly noise, our hearts should overflow with perfect humbleness. Lord our God is a Holy God. And, one Holy God only speaks Holy words. Holy words, however, could only enter the hearts that strive for Holiness. The Heavenly Father longs exactly for such hearts. He has seen the whole vain noise and the whole corruption of the haughty and conceited men. He has seen how the hearts, on which the deceit of Lucifer has stuck, like to raise and exalt themselves. Such are the noisy hearts. Such are the mouths that are very willing to speak. They do not only speak, but they provoke the anger of the Almighty One. That is why He has written such words in His Scripture, too:

“Be still before the LORD, all mankind, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling...” (Zechariah 2:13)

If the Word tells you that Lord has roused, do not think that He has been asleep! You should rather understand here that the very God’s Mercy is the mark of the Personal engagement of Father with the salvation of your heart. In a moment, when the Almighty God has begun to talk through His servants, you should really keep silent your heart and lips. You should neither murmur, when the God’s words expose you, nor speak aloud, when your selfishness suffers. However, let me continue with the waters of Euphrates. For, this is the devil’s river, which drags away the whole world today. Here what Jesus showed to my heart. As a beginning, He asked me:

“You have not forgotten what your Father did in His anger, have you? You certainly remember how He threw out the rebellious cherubim together with a third of the Heavenly angels. The, see what happened to them on the earth! For, the whole host of Lucifer turned into one proud and ungodly river...”

After the words of Jesus, a vision appeared in front of my heart. I could really see what my Lord had said. The millions of angels, fallen together with Lucifer on the earth, were really looking like a river with high waves and raised waters. This river was ruling over the whole world and its waters were overflowing every place, lacking in a God's Mercy and benevolence. Jesus, Who was pointing at the river with His hand, told me:

"If anybody believes in Me, he will remember My words. And I warned all of you that, in the last times, the love of many will grow cold and the wickedness will increase. So, we all had to realize that this river of the devil was given to test the whole world and to corrupt all people, who hate the God and His messengers. Therefore, look and see what Euphrates will do, according to what your Heavenly Father has allowed to happen..."

I turned at the vision again. So, I noticed that the devil's river flew its waters into an immense sea, a personification of the world itself. The spirits of all heathens, as well as all the rests, who had not been enlightened by the Lord's Light, were in this sea. When the devil's river flew into it, the sea began terribly to roar; its waves grew very high and began to overflow every dry place. While I was looking at this tremendous vision, Jesus asked me:

"What is your strongest impression with this vision?"

I looked at the vision again and I understood that my answer could only be one. Therefore, I told Jesus:

"Lord, I was mostly impressed by the noise, which could be heard, when Euphrates flew its waters into the sea..."

"And how would you interpret this noise? Why does the devil need any noise?"

"Jesus, from everything You have spoken to me by now, I understand that this noise is exactly intended to deafen the God's Voice, so that the men might be unable to hear It. They will be impressed by the noise to such extent that they will wish it and will never abandon its authority..."

"Then, remember My prophetic words! Look at the written in My Gospel, which says:

"There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea..." (Luke 21:25)

What do you notice in this prophecy?"

"Jesus! You talk here about signs in the sun, the moon and the stars; You also talk about anguish and perplexity of the nations at the roaring and tossing of the sea..."

"Well, as you can see by yourself, there is anguish on the earth, and in the same time, the nations are in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. How can you interpret the anguish and how – the perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea? And those, who are in anguish, why are they in perplexity, too?"

The words of Jesus were deep enough for me to explain them. The very word "perplexity" brought to perplexity me, too. Therefore, I told Jesus:

"Lord, perplexity appears there, where the men are at a loss, i.e. where they sharply feel the lack of reason and wisdom to understand any sign. In Your prophecy, the nations are in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. However, I can not explain this perplexity; despite I clearly see how the sea is roaring and its waves are tremendously tossing."

Jesus smiled and caressed my head. Then, He said:

"How could you comprehend this, if it is not you, but I am That One, Who can throw Light on His words? Therefore, let Me lead you close to the waters of Euphrates and to the roaring and tossing sea. So, your perplexity will disappear and you will understand the other perplexity..."

After His words, Lord took my hand and a moment later, we were both over the very roaring sea and over the river of Euphrates that was flowing with its waters into it. The view was terrible enough to be described in fullness. However, as far as I am able, I will tell you that millions of demons were attacking the waters of the world and were coming into the fates of the men with very destructive power. So, the illnesses, misery, wars, disasters, hatred and deceits were coming into the life of the men. All this was pressing the world of the heathens. However, it was not the sign in the vision itself. No! Jesus, Who was pointing at the rough waters of the world, said again:

"Look, Stefan! Look and see what most people are blind now for. As to the men, who have been smashed and killed, they all go to the bottom of the sea. So, they are far from the spiritual look I am giving to you now. For, I give you a look over the sea, not at the bottom of the sea. Then, look and see who remain on the crests of the sea waves! They do not sink, but they are the true reason for the roaring and tossing of the sea..."

So, I looked and I saw that all men, who had gained the Lucifer's benevolence, were swimming on the crests of the worldly waves. They were church leaders, who had bowed before the devil and his money. They were pastors-impostors, working for the cause of Babylon. They were witnesses of the earth prosperity, who were dragging hearts after themselves. Here, the picture was getting clearer and clearer. On the one hand, the anguish of the nations was great enough and the powers of death and hell were swallowing souls with great might. On the other hand, despite the disaster and the anguish, there were crowds on the crests of the sea waves, who were tremendously roaring. They were competing in crying "Alleluia" and making great noise with their feasts and conferences. In a moment, when death and hell were swallowing millions with illnesses, wars and disasters, when the world was perishing in its anguish, those on the crest of the waves were raising their noisy exclamations louder and louder. Then, I turned at Jesus and told Him:

"Lord, I am really perplexed! Despite this last disaster and so great evil over the nations, there are people, who loudly rejoice and feast. How is this possible? Does not the Church see that she is exactly that one, who must stay in the breach and intercede for the lawless people, so that evils and curses might stop? Does not the Church see that she must detach compassionate and merciful men, by whose intercession; You would save the lost sheep and would give comfort to the afflicted ones? Instead, thousands upon thousands are standing on the crests of the waves, making a noise in their feasts! They are really perverted in their wickedness! They are darkened in their hearts! Only now understand I that the devil has deceived them to make a noise and roar, for fear that they could hear the God's Voice and repent. For, in a moment, when we all must fall on our knees, weep and pray because of the death of the sinful men, most of the Christians make banquets and are noisy in them as in a feast-day. They consider themselves righteous among the perishing world. They have no mercy for the heathens in their hearts and they could not see at all that the day of the increased lawlessness is now..."

Jesus looked at me with a very sharp regard and said:

“Everyone, who is alert, will certainly understand My words. For there, in the sea, the noise and roar is on the crests of the waves, not in the bottom. The prince of the world raises on the crests of the waves only those men, who have pleased to his heart, in order to tempt by them all the rests. For, the waves are rough and noisy, but the bottom is smooth and still. Here, I tell you:

For that one, who has fallen on the bottom, there is more hope than for those, who are on the crests of the waves. For, the bottom is not noisy and it can not make anybody be noisy and roaring. However, those, who the devil raised over the waves and enriched with all earth goods, they hurry to make noise in order to deafen no only the God’s Voice, but the voice of their own consciences. Should you rejoice then that you are righteous, when the others are wicked? Should you be noisy, since you believe that the punishment is intended for the sinful men, and will surely omit you, the sinless one?”

I was listening to the questions of Jesus and I fell in His feet. Then, I told Him:

“My Lord! Father punishes those, who He loves, as every father punishes the son, who he is fond of. For, there are not sinless men before His eyes! So, I understand that the noise and roar of haughtiness are the greatest lawlessness before the eyes of Father today. However, I also know that the Heavenly retribution over the God’s apostates will not be late.”

Jesus caressed my head and added:

“That is right, My boy! For, there is no longer and the moment comes, when the verses of the God’s retribution will shine before the Throne of My Father. A voice of wail will be heard from the earth; wail, which the prophet has written about:

“The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians. (land of the Chaldeans – KJV) The LORD will destroy Babylon; he will silence her noisy din. Waves will rage like great waters; the roar of their voices will resound. A destroyer will come against Babylon; her warriors will be captured, and their bows will be broken. For the LORD is a God of retribution; he will repay in full..." (Jeremiah 51:54-56)

And to you, who are the God's rest in this last time, I will give to you the silent waters of My Spirit. Beforehand, I am going to show you how the devil deafens the God's Voice and which the reason for the noise of the retreated churches is..."

After the last words of Jesus, the vision with Euphrates stopped, and the silent waters of the Holy Spirit filled my heart. So, I was able to hear and write on paper the life-saving words of my Lord and King.

Amen and Amen!

3. THE VISION WITH THE NOISE OF THE RETREATED CHURCHES

My brother! My faithful friend!

Do you know how great the deceit of the devil in this last time is? Do you know how the spiritual senses of many people are so perverted that, since long time, such men call the good evil, and the evil – good? There was a time, when my heart was striving for noisy meetings, in which pastors- clowns were falling on their backs, were giggling at their pulpits or crying in their microphones. There was a time, when I considered that it was right for the God's people to be noisy, since I thought in my heart that it was the right way for the Gospel to reach the men everywhere. However, the question is: which Gospel? Is this our human "Gospel", by which we have decided that Jesus will enrich us in this world? Or, this is that Heavenly Gospel, by which the men, who submit to the God's Voice, would decide that this world is not worthy for them, neither they have worthy for the world. The truth is that, deceived by the devil in the first years of My faith in God, I preferred "the noisy Gospel", because I believed that it would better open the ears of many. Then, however, I could not realize that the noise exactly was the greatest enemy of the God's Voice. For, the Holy Spirit does not cry in the heart. No! He is whispering! If you want to hear this whisper, you need a quiet and calming place. Only on such place, you would be able to understand the words of the Saviour, Who says:

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light..." (Matthew 11:28-30)

Jesus comes to calm you! However, what is the calm like but silence for your spirit, who has been touched and enlightened by the God's words? Can you imagine that the meek and humble Lord would calm you by screaming? Can you imagine that the Heavenly peace is a place of noisy exclamations? I can not imagine this, neither have I wanted. For, every such notion would be the next lie of the evil one, by which he would like to turn me back in his noisy gathering places. Therefore, let me continue with the next vision, which Lord revealed to my heart. For, this was the vision with the noise of the retreated churches. Here are the words, which Jesus told me before having given to me the vision itself:

“Do not be confused with the clamour, which the devil will provoke against you, after having you appeared My words to My brothers and sisters. This devil has always been making noise against the God’s servants and has been willing in standing against their Holy mission. However, either that the devil makes noise, or Babylon raises a murmur, neither he, not the vainglorious men will escape their doom. Therefore, look at the vision with the noise of the retreated churches, which I am going to give to you now...”

After the words of Jesus, a vision appeared in front of my eyes. I could see how the silent waters of the Holy Spirit were staying over one meeting. They were starving for going deeply into hearts of the men, but the doors of these hearts were closed for them. After a little while, the waters of the devil approached the meeting itself. They were coming like high waves, which were tremendously roaring, as in the previous visions. In the moment, when the pastor of this meeting stood behind the pulpit, the waves of the devil’s waters rushed over his heart. Then, he took the microphone and loud-mouthed cried:

“Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Let us praise the Lord aloud! Let us clap to Him! Let us noisily exclaim!”

So, the whole meeting began to make noise, so that the hearts of the men opened for the devil’s waters. Their leader raised a hand to the Heaven and cried with much louder voice:

“Are we ready to cry to the Lord? Are we ready to thank Him for the perfect benevolence? Are we ready to confess the power of prosperity?” Heard the questions of their leader, the men began to cry “Amen”. Then, I noticed how their hearts were covered with prickles, so that looked from aside, they were like thorns. Their noise was getting stronger and stronger, so that in one moment, the silent waters of the Holy Spirit rose up. It showed me that Father had already raised His benevolence and Mercy from this meeting. These men were already doomed; people, who would no more hear the God’s whisper, neither would they any more humble their hearts before Him. At the contrary – the noisy waters of the devil turned the meeting into a place, where men-thorns and men-prickles were giggling and exclaiming. While I was looking at the vision, I asked the Lord:

"Lord, what is going on? Is not it terribly here? These men gave an access in their hearts to the deceits of the devil. They became noisy exactly then, when they mostly needed silence, in order to be able to hear the God's Voice..."

Listening to my words, Jesus replied:

"Do you remember My Words? Do you remember those words of Mine, by which I warned you exactly about what you examine in this vision now? Tell Me, if the God's Voice is silent and man would only hear It in the silence of humbleness, who is that one, who deafens the God's Voice? Who is that one, who deafens My Word and makes the men close the doors of their hearts before the gentle puff of the Holy Spirit? Did not I talk to you about the same thing anywhere in My Gospel? Think and answer Me, because you will understand the vision itself only in this way..."

I was listening to the Jesus' questions, when some verses rushed into my heart. These verses reminded to me the parable about the Sower and the seeds. Therefore, I answered:

"My Lord! While You were talking to Your disciples in proverbs, You told them the parable about the Sower and the seed. In the Gospels by Matthew and Mark, You revealed the noisy tactics of the devil in the same way. About his devices, You said:

"The one who received the seed that fell among the thorns is the man who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke it, making it unfruitful..."

(Matthew 13:22)

... and in Mark:

"Still others, like seed sown among thorns, hear the word; but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful..."

(Mark 4:18-19)

Here, Jesus added:

"Is there anything strange that those men in the vision were like thorns and prickles? And, if the thorns and prickles choke My Word, do not they deafen My Voice in the same way? For, what else My Voice might be, but the pure Heavenly Word, pronounced by your Lord through the Holy Spirit? Now, think over something else. Think what happens, when the believers not only put up with the thorns near them, but even give them power and make them masters, enslaving their own hearts. Will not these masters choke the Word by all possible means, so that nobody could hear the God's Voice, but everybody approve their example and deeds? Do you see which in My Word deafens the God's Voice?"

"Yes, Jesus! I see that these are the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other things that do not concern Salvation..."

"Then, remember from your Lord and let all people, who call themselves with My Name, know that this is exactly the noise of the devil:

THE WORRIES OF THIS LIFE, THE DECEITFULNESS OF WEALTH AND THE DESIRES FOR EARTH THINGS BRING IN THE CHURCH THE NOISY SPIRIT OF THE DEVIL!

Those, who have been possessed by this spirit, became noisy. They raise their voices aloud and make noise in their meetings, so that they might deafen the God's Word and the God's Voice by any means. Those, who have been possessed by this spirit, prefer looking for what is worldly, not for what is Lord's deed. They are looking for their own use and prosperity, rather than for the human misery and sorrow. They are noisily preaching from their pulpits prosperity, infecting most people with their noise. However, nobody of those, who stand amidst the thorns and prickles, understand that, sooner or later, he will be like them. For, to stand on noisy place and want for God to talk to your heart, it is the same for you as to stand amidst the sea waves and want to kindle a fire. Since, the fire will surely go out with the waters, as the silent and quiet Voice of the Spirit will withdraw with the noise.

Then, do you understand that it is not possible for you to stay on thunderous places and want in the same time to hear My Voice? Do you understand that, in this way, you will remain not only fruitless, but separated from My Salvation forever? Since, from among the lots of abominations, which the devil created in the last time, the abomination of noise is the greatest one. About this noise, My Father has written in His Word since long:

“The Lord has rejected his altar and abandoned his sanctuary. He has handed over to the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have raised a shout in the house of the LORD as on the day of an appointed feast...” (Lamentations 2:7)

However, I ask you!

Let the Lord’s enemies answer you if they are able to:

Has the Day of the Bridegroom come that you are feasting so noisy in your meetings? Have you already entered the narrow door and the narrowed way, so that you might wash your clothes? Have you passed through the Christ’s Judgment place without any reproach? Have you been tested in the crucible of the grief, so that the written Word that you must go through many hardships to enter My Kingdom, might be true? Have you passed through the painful trials, so that you might stand next to the Bridegroom like a Holy Bride, without any spot or wrinkle? If not, what is then this noise in the God’s Temple? What is this self-worship and this pride? Behold, for this reason, I devote My prophet now! So, you will be able to see that one, who deafens and those, who want to serve him. They are exactly, who make me sick and because of whom I raised the sanctification from My altars.

As to My people, I Myself will care for them and will take them in still and calming places. So, they will hear My Voice and will comprehend My thoughts. If anybody today has eyes to raise them up and see the God’s Sanctuary, then there, among the fiery flames, he will surely see that example of faith, which you all have to follow. And this is the example of Prophet Elijah. Those, who are led by the Spirit and Power of Elijah, they will surely find the silent waters of Siloam. Therefore, follow My prophet and see what the Lord’s hand will show him from the life of Elijah. Now, I give this vision for all those, who despise noise and who want to find silence...”

After the last words of Jesus, the vision with the noisy meeting stopped, and the Power of the Holy Spirit moved me in the next vision by my Lord and God.

4. THE SILENCE OF HUMBLENESS

My brother! My faithful friend!

Do you begin to understand what silence this book talks about? Do you begin to realize that the Holy Spirit is not only Holy, but tender and gentle, too? He is so tender and pure that His puff should always been the most desirable longing of our hearts and the purest dream of our souls. For, if the Spirit came from Heaven to give us the God's Life, then, He will surely be felt by the meek and peaceful men. About these men exactly, the Word says:

"A heart at peace gives life to the body..." (Proverbs 14:30)

If you go deeper in these words, you will surely understand that still and peaceful is only that heart, which strives for the God's Voice and always longs for listening to It. And the men with peaceful hearts will always be striving for silence, so that they might live in the splendid words of the psalm:

"My soul finds rest (peacefully trusts – Greek translation) in God alone; my salvation comes from him. He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will never be shaken..." (Psalms 62:1-2)

Here, about such rest and silent trust in the God, this book will keep talking to you. As to the noisy men, you will find them in every city and will feel their noise from the lustrous posters on the streets. However, if you want to live quietly, you have to be inspired by such example that is more powerful than the example of the men around you; the example, which God Himself has sealed in His Word for hope and target of His children. Here this is the example, which Jesus revealed to me in the life of Prophet Elijah. That is why the title of this chapter is "The silence of humbleness". However, let me continue with the next words of Lord Jesus that came to my heart. Here what He told me:

"Now, I am going to unseal before you one of the greatest secrets of Heaven – the secret, by which you all will teach yourselves to be waiting for the Lord's Voice and to pay the worth to be used by Heaven. Let this uncovered secret became sense of life for My brothers and sisters. As to you, I can always come to your heart and you to hear My whisper. However, it is My wish for all of you to hear My Voice. It is

My wish for all of you to understand how great the spiritual power, hidden in the words of the prophet, is:

“It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD...” (Lamentation 3:26 – KJV)

And, to wait quietly for your salvation by Me, it is not for you anything else, but abiding with the whole your heart in the silent waters of Siloam. Therefore, tell Me – what is for you the stream Siloam?”

“My Lord! I thank you that, for the last years, You enlightened my heart. So, I understood that Siloam responded spiritually to the waters of the God’s Prophetic Spirit. You revealed before my heart the Pool of Siloam, in which the blind man had healed and began to see. However, You also showed me the deep truth that Siloam was a stream that was rising from the river Gihon – that river, which was coming down from the Garden of Eden...”

“Then, think that your Father is especially jealous of the waters of His Prophetic Spirit. So much that for those, who reject them, He promised to be sunk by the waters of the proud Euphrates. In the previous visions, you saw by yourself how great the evil, caused by the waters of Euphrates, was. However, how can My people reach the silent waters of Siloam? How can they understand that, if I am their Shepherd, Who wants to lead them at green meadows and silent waters, then, I have not seen any other waters in My Word, but the gently flowing waters of Siloam? When might these waters of Siloam be found, Stefan? For, your feet had stepped in these waters since long. However, there was one man before you, whom Father gave to discover the waters of Siloam and he was Prophet Elijah. And you, do you know in which instant of his life he found the silent waters of Siloam?”

I thought over the Lord’s question. After that, the life of the God’s servant emerged in front of my heart. Despite the whole abundant enlightening over the life of Elijah, I had not the just answer yet. Therefore, I told Jesus:

“Lord, You have told me about Prophet Elijah many times. Nevertheless, I can not understand in which moment of his life he found the silent waters of Siloam...”

“And how would you be able to understand, if the question I am asking you now, belongs to the secret knowledge of the God? It is knowledge, which the carnal and earthly men will never discover. However, those, who leave the noisy places, they will surely see the silent waters in the life of the God’s servant. Therefore, follow Me! Now, I will show you the waters of Siloam and the way, in which Elijah reached them...”

After His last words, Lord stretched out His hand and touched my head, so that a vision emerged in front of my heart. Then, I saw a splendid view. The Heaven above my eyes was opened and the River of Life was flowing from the Heavenly Jerusalem to the earth. Its waters were descending to the top of one immense mountain and from there, they were flowing down in streams. Jesus raised His hand, pointed at the splendid view and told me:

“Do you see now how the river of Gihon is pouring out on the earth through the Mercy and Love of Father? Its waters are most powerful and majestic just at the high mountain, which I show you now. There exactly, the stream Siloam is flowing, in which silent waters the feet of Prophet Elijah stepped. Tell Me then – which this mountain I show you now might be? Which was the mountain, which God chose in order to visit the mankind and to appear His benevolence to it?”

I thought over the Lord’s question, and the answer was shining in the very words. So, I told Him:

“Jesus! It must only be the Mount of Sinai. And I know that this mountain is spiritual and it responds to the recognition of the Holy Father through You...”

“That is right, My boy! This is really the mountain of the Holy recognition of the God and Father. My apostles, inspired by the Spirit, testified for all of you that they also had such a mountain in their life:

“We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain...” (2 Peter 1:18)

If one mountain is Holy, it is due to the waters of Holiness, which flow in it. And, if My apostles heard the Voice of My Father on this mountain, it was, because they were abiding in silence, too. Now, however, I would like to show you the life of the God’s prophet Elijah.

The example that you should follow is hidden in it. So, follow the way of Elijah, who started for the waters of Siloam..."

After the last words of Jesus, the vision changed and I could already see a desert with sands all over. And here that the Holy Spirit made me see a lonely bush in the middle of the desert, and Prophet Elijah, lying under it. On the face of the prophet, I could read a great desperation and grief. He was looking at Heaven and quietly speaking:

"I have had enough, LORD, ..." Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors..."

Jesus pointed at the prophet and asked me:

"What do you think? Why does the God's servant wish to die? Why does he want Me take his life? By what is the soul of My friend embarrassed?"

I was looking at the prophet and I could not guess the answer of this question yet. Jesus, who had noticed the weakness of my mind, said:

"Do not you remember how I told you that Elijah first started for the silent waters of Siloam? Tell Me then: if anybody is looking for silence, has not such man been disturbed by noise? Only men, who have been confused and hurt by noise, are looking for quiet and calming places. Was there such noise in the life of Elijah? And you, do you want to feel the noise?"

I felt in my heart that I had to answer in the affirmative. Therefore, I told the Lord:

"Yes, Jesus! I want to hear the noise that made Elijah to long for death..."

In reply to my words, Jesus approached Prophet Elijah in the vision itself. He stretched out a hand to his heart and made waters gush out of it. After that, He turned at me and told me

"Here these waters embarrassed and disturbed Elijah. Now, bent down over them and see their effect upon you..."

Listened to the Lord, I bent down over the waters, so that they rushed over my heart. A moment later, a woman Jezebel rose in front of me in monstrous height. The sorceress held in his hands two of the slaughtered heads of his false prophets. After a little while, she began to swing the slaughtered heads, screaming with a shrill voice:

“May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them...”

(1 Kings 19:2)

I felt such withering terror in my heart that I was not able to recover my nerves at all. What is more – the voice of Jezebel as if shrieked in all my veins and entrails. Then, I looked at Jesus and cried to Him, without being able to hear my own voice, because of the noise, come to my heart. Jesus replied something, but I could not hear Him. In this moment, I realized that Elijah had really been embarrassed to death by the noise of Jezebel. Therefore, I stretched out my hands to Jesus, and He immediately reacted, so that the noisy waters flowed out of my spirit. Looking at me with a sharp regard, He said:

“Do you understand now why Elijah was embarrassed? Do you comprehend why he looked for solitude in the desert?”

“Yes, Jesus! I understand that the threat of Jezebel has come like a loud noise into his heart. Exactly then, in the moment of noise, when Elijah has not been able to hear the God’s Voice, he has understood that he is no better than his ancestors and has wanted to die...”

“Remember then that this is exactly the first step for all My people – the step of solitude; the step, by which you should abandon every noisy place, which is an obstacle for you to hear My Voice. This is exactly what Elijah did. He sought the solitude. And My angel came to his spirit to tell him that the journey is too much for him. Now, look where My prophet will go after having received the Lord’s support and appeal in his heart...”

After the words of Jesus, the vision changed and my eyes could see again the Holy Mountain of Father. I saw the God’s prophet come into a cave, and Jesus asked me:

“Do you want that we both enter the very cave now? For, exactly there, you will receive the most precious message for your heart...”

“Yes, Jesus! I want us enter there...” – I answered and, a moment later, I was already walking after Jesus. Then, I noticed the first thing, by which the cave impressed my heart. This thing was silence. After a little while, I felt my feet sunk into the crystal purity of the Lord’s waters. These waters were perfectly quiet and calming. The feet of the God's prophet were standing just in them. In this very moment, Jesus explained me:

"Now, you are into the gently flowing waters of Siloam. These waters are always flowing into the caves, in which you must enter according to the God's Perfect Will. This is the place, where Elijah was abiding. So, look what the Word talks about this stage of his life..."

"Jesus! The Scripture says that he...

"...went into a cave and spent the night..." (1 Kings 19:9)

"You see that Elijah settled in the cave. How do you understand this settling? For, our contemporaries would only go into the cave like tourists. Before having looked at it, they would go out... However, it the Word tells you that Elijah settled in the cave and even spent the night there, does not this mean that the God's prophet behaved very seriously to it? Or, let Me ask you otherwise: you, would you settle in this cave? Would you live in it according to the Will of My Father?"

I looked at the prophet, and my eyes were again captivated by the crystal waters, in which my feet had stepped. So, I told Jesus:

"Yes, Lord! I would settle there because of the silent waters of Siloam. It has pleased My Father that the waters flow just in the caves..."

Jesus smiled to my reply and continued:

"And why has your Father pleased in putting the waters of Siloam just in the caves? What is the cave in His Holy Sight? And, if there are caves of death, are not there caves of Life, too?"

"My Lord! Of course, there are caves of Life. Prophet Elijah entered exactly in such cave..."

"And what is the difference between the caves of Life and caves of death?"

The question of my Lord was very deep, but the presence of the Holy Spirit was so mighty and powerful that the answer went out of my mouth:

"My Lord! In the caves of Life, we go blind for the world, in order to recover our sight for the Heaven, but in the caves of death, people are blind for Heaven, since they look at the world..."

Jesus smiled and His eyes joyfully shone. He embraced me and told me:

“Go and give this Heavenly message to My children. Go and tell them that I am waiting for them in the caves of Life. For, to go blind for the world, it means for you to humble your souls; to be blind for what tempts and attracts you to the devil. It means for you to be blind for the human honours and politics; to be blind for the whole abomination of the evil one. Only then, when I see you without eyes for the evil, I will command the destiny, hidden in My words; destiny, about which I said:

“...For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind...” (John 9:39)

If anybody is wise and sensible, if he is attentive in My Word, he will also notice that I pronounced these words of Mine, when the blind man found his healing just in the waters of Siloam. Those, who are spiritual, will surely see the recovering of the spiritual sight of the man, blind by birth. The fleshly ones, however, will still be wondering why Lord has spitted and has put mud on his eyes. Tell Me then – was not that man, blind by birth, in the same cave, too? Was not he blind for the world, too? That is why his feet led him to Siloam. Do not you understand that, while you have sight for the world, you are far from My Salvation? Do not you understand that, exactly for this reason, you are given the example of Elijah, the Spirit and Power of Elijah?

Now, continue to examine the next signs, related to this cave. For, Lord your God has no problem to distinguish between humbleness and false-humbleness and between sincerity and hypocrisy. However, trial by Me came in the life of this quiet and humble Elijah. It was a test, by which My Father entirely approved His servant. As to you, you all will also be tested to what extent you prefer the silent waters of Siloam and whether you are impressed by the deceitful noise of the devil...”

After His words, Lord approached Prophet Elijah in the vision itself and quietly asked him:

“What are you doing here, Elijah?” (1 Kings 19:9)

The prophet, who felt the Holy presence of the King of Zion, said quietly, too:

"...I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too..." (1 Kings 19:10)

Jesus replied again:

"...Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD..." (1 Kings 19:11)

After these words, Jesus turned to me again and said:

"Now, My boy, let Me lead you out, in front of the cave. For, the devil stands in front of all caves like this and looks for whatever way to draw the godly men out of the power of silence. Therefore, look at the very signs of the evil one..."

So, Jesus and I, we both went out of the cave. Then, Lord raised His hand, pointed further and told me:

"Look at the wind, which Lord allows as an imposed trial for His quiet children..."

To be entirely confirmed the Lord's words; my eyes saw a strong whirlwind, accompanied by great rumble and roar. So, I could see how the wind began to tear the mountains apart and to shatter the huge rocks. The rumble got terrible. However, I could not see Prophet Elijah at the entrance of the cave. Jesus asked me:

"Did you see what the evil one did? Did you see how he tore the mountains apart and shattered most of the rocks? What do you think? Is the devil looking for natural mountains and rocks, in order to destroy them and make a great noise? What are here the mountains, torn apart, and the scattered rocks?"

"Lord, when I am looking at this furious and the powerful whirlwind, the words of the prophet Isaiah rush into my heart. For, this is the God's Prophet, who wrote about the last time these words:

"Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint..." (Isaiah 40:30-31)

When I am looking at this wind now, I see that neither mountains, nor rocks could stand against it. For, the mountains were torn apart, and the rocks were scattered..."

Jesus added to my words, saying:

"Behold, your Lord clearly talks to you! He proclaims to you that My Father is a jealous God, Who will not allow in His Holy Sanctuary people, who are not attentive in His Voice and who neglect His Will. In this last time, He sends deceit, like powerful and noisy wind. Many church mountains and selfish rocks will find their destruction through this deceit. The mountains will be tear apart, because they have been seeking the noise. The rocks will be scattered, because they have not been attentive in the God's Voice.

"...but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint..." (Isaiah 40:31)

And, to be waiting for the Lord, it means for you to enter the caves of humbleness, where the silent waters of Siloam are flowing. The God's Prophet did not go out at the noise of the powerful wind. He knew in his heart that:

"...the Lord was not in the wind..." (1 Kings 19:11)

You, however, keep looking at the next signs of the evil one..."

In reply to the Lord's words, I felt how the earth shook under my feet. For a moment, I lost my balance and staggered, but Jesus stretched out His hand and supported me. Then, stronger rumble roared. After this roar, the earth began to shake more horribly. However, I could not see Elijah at the entrance of the cave yet. Jesus asked me:

"Why did you stagger? And, why did the earth shake under your feet so terribly?"

"My Lord! You Yourself see that earthquake occurred. That is why I staggered..."

"And why was not I, who staggered, but you? Besides, did you notice that the noise of the earthquake was stronger than the noise, caused by the wind?"

“Yes, Jesus! I noticed this. As to the staggering, I confess before You that the earthquake would only disturb those, who live on the earth, since it is not other quake, but earth-quake. In this relation, a part of me is still earth and fleshly...”

“Did not your Lord warn you that there would be a great sorrow in the last days and lots of quakes on many places? If the devil causes these quakes, he does it in order to impress the earth men with the noise of the very quakes, so that such men can never hear the God’s Voice. Here, I warn all of you:

Now, and to the end of the time, the devil will be doing many false signs, so that he might deceive those, who live on the earth. The effect of his signs will be like noisy earthquakes, against which the earth inhabitants will not stand, but will surely be tempted...”

I was listening to Jesus and my heart comprehended Him perfectly well. Think, my brother, over the fact, by which vainglorious noise the anointed men of the evil one are welcomed everywhere. Think, what quake for the earth men is every false sign, which promises them things from this world, not from the future one. However, this splendid God’s servant had not come out of the cave yet. He knew in his heart that:

“...the Lord was not in the earthquake...” (1 Kings 19:11)

Jesus, who was carefully looking at my thoughts, pointed with His hand again and told me:

“Look at the last of the false signs of the evil one now – the sign with his fire...”

After the words of the Lord, I could already see something astonishing. Fiery flames began to fall from the sub-celestial places to the earth. In the moment, when they touched the earth, they blazed up and great noise might be heard, much thunderous and louder than the previous ones. The kindled woods burst frightfully with the fire. Every time, when flame fell from the sub-celestial places, the noise was like thunderous explosion. After that, I look again at Jesus at the entrance of the cave, but the God’s Prophet Elijah was not there yet. Jesus pointed me the damages, made by the fire and told me:

“Do you understand now that this fire will cause the greatest damages on the earth? For, this is the fire of the devil; the fire, which never die and which is kept for the outside darkness...”

“And what is like the fire itself, Lord? Why is it so noisy and thunderous?”

Jesus replied:

“This is the fire for the worms of each flesh. This fire provokes the worms to make the flesh very noisy. This fire says to those, who are kindled by it:

“Be fond of the world and everything in it! Whoever loves the world, he will acquire it!”

What stronger desire for the flesh than acquiring the world? What more powerful noise for the flesh than the noise of the prosperity and worldly wealth, preached everywhere? What more powerful noise for the flesh than clapping, glory and human honours? Then, who would survive amidst the roar of this fire, but My people, who abide in the cave amidst the silent waters of Siloam? For, My prophet did not go out of the cave at the noise of the fire, too. There, in the middle of the silent cave, he could hear My Voice and knew perfectly well that:

“...the Lord was not in the fire...” (1 Kings 19:12)

Here, a moment before having My prophet gone out of the cave, a moment before having he heard the gentle whisper of the Lord, I declare to the whole My Church:

I, Lord and God Jesus Christ, I am not in the noisy wind of every human fallacy and deceitful heresies!

I, Lord and God Jesus Christ, I am not in the earthquake of the deceitful signs, which bring the fleshly men to the noisy rapture!

I, Lord and God Jesus Christ, I am not in the fire of Babylon, which makes the perverted men love the world and everything in it!

I, Lord and God Jesus Christ, I condemn to eternal ruin and destruction all those, who were fond of the noise and despised the gently flowing waters of Siloam!

Only when stand such men before My Judgment place, they will hear My Voice and will receive the just retribution by the God’s anger. As to My hidden and quiet children, eternal Destiny by My Father will come for them. They will be trees, planted by streams of water. And the Holy verses, written by the prophet, will be their eternal part. So, the words, pronounced by the Lord's mouth, and being spoken now, will become true:

"The fruit of righteousness will be peace; the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence forever. My people will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest..." (Isaiah 32:17-18)

I pronounced it! I spoke it!"