

THE WEB OF ETERNAL DEATH

A MESSAGE FROM THE CIRCLE OF OIL

STEFAN GLAVCHEV

www.moriah-servant.org

CONTENTS

The rays of Eternal Life.....	3
1. The vision with the Heavenly Door on Lord's Mount.....	8
2. The vision with the spiders at the wide gate.....	14
3. The "I" of the dragon or about the ties of pride and exalting.....	18
4. The "Me" of the beast or about the ties of egoism and haughtiness.....	24
5. The "Mine" of the false prophet or about the ties of self-seeking, avarice and greed.....	30

THE RAYS OF ETERNAL LIFE

(INSTEAD OF PREFACE)

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

I tell you the truth, without hiding from you that, since the moment, when Jesus revealed to my heart how blissful and pure, tender and Holy the Fruit Immanuel is, I have looked for all possible ways to find Him and so to rejoice that God really abides in hearts and finds delight in our praise and honour before Him. However, over and over again, I was disgusted, when I saw how impure and cruel the spirit of worldly hypocrisy is. For, these days, over and over again, the world tried to grieve and humiliate the faith of our hearts, beginning from the feast mood of the worldly men and coming to all their vain words, exchanged the Holy Birth of Christ for the pagan customs, related to Christmas, called in Bulgaria with the name of the ancient Swedish "god" Koleda. Did you feel this grief, my brother? Did you feel how during the days of overflowing worldly devotion, temptations came to our hearts, so that we might lose our reverence and love to God at the expense of the feasts for flesh? Did you see the restaurants and pubs, full of grinning men, who hurry to eat and drink, because of the holidays? Did you see the full bags and sacs of those, who are looking for an occasion to eat and drink and who can not comprehend that the Birth of Christ has to be feasted inside the heart, and not outside in the flesh? Finally, did you see all the happy faces of men, who have not God's Immanuel? However, what makes them feel so happy? Why are they smiling? What are they laughing at? Why does no one of them have eyes to see how huge the precipice between God and them is? Having looked at this precipice, my heart wept. I saw the whole doom of the religious world. It is a world that has never stopped lying in the evil one, even if there are lots of references to the Eternal and Holy Bible in its calendar.

I was still standing with my deeply moving thoughts and the sorrow was hot on my eyes, when Lord Jesus came to my heart with His Spirit. He touched me with His hand and told me:

"Did you notice how great and terrible your sorrow became these days?"

"Yes, my Lord! I could not find the joy with Your presence, which I long for so much, yet. Here, sincere grief for all the children of God came into my heart now. Since, I want for Yours perfectly to keep and protect the Fruit Immanuel. These days, however, the devil unleashed again his temptations as devastating winds. Having looked at the sorrow that came to my heart, I ask myself what might happen in the hearts of all God's children. How do they withstand? How do they overcome? How do they glorify Your Name in their life?"

In reply to my words, Jesus began to speak to me again, saying:

"Have peace, My boy! Days are really evil, but I am next to you, in order to keep and confirm you. Now, I tell you that the days of the religious hypocrisy are really the hardest ones for the sincere children of God. In these days exactly, the Son of God is being despised, scorned and killed – much more than in all the other days. However, for him who has born Immanuel inside his heart, there is no other lot and other trial than this – by all his faith, to enter the fight between the rays of Eternal Life and the ties of eternal death. This is exactly the present experience of all My brothers and sisters and you, now.

It is a fight, Stefan! It is a terrible fight between the Power of Light and the powers of darkness. Here, you are already a participant in this fight. That is why your heart feels the hits of the enemy, and the enemy feels the beats of your heart..."

The words of Jesus were extremely wonderful for me, because I did not know what He was talking to me about. What He told me about the fight between the Eternal Life and eternal death deeply moved my heart. Therefore, I asked Him again:

"What do You have in mind, Lord? Shall I understand that rays of Eternal Life go out of my heart and fight against the ties of eternal death? At least – how shall I understand these rays of Eternal Life and these ties of eternal death?"

In reply, Lord told me:

"Understand the rays of Eternal Life as the Dwelling, which Trinity has come to make in your heart. From this Dwelling exactly, Father, His Son and the Holy Spirit fight against the dragon, the beast and the false prophet. Since, there will not be any Life for Immanuel unless the Trinity prepares the place for His birth. And, when Immanuel is born, the ties of eternal death come against His birth..."

The words of Jesus made me ask Him:

"Well, my Lord! What are the rays of Eternal Life, by which Trinity has come into my heart? How shall I understand the ties of eternal death, which the devil sent against Immanuel?"

After my last words, Jesus smiled. He touched my head with His hand and told me:

"Now, look at the rays of Eternal Life, by which Father, His Son and the Holy Spirit come into the hearts of all new-born Christians. So, you will surely understand the ties of eternal death, too..."

While Lord was speaking His last words, a splendid vision revealed in front of my heart. I could see how a door opened on Lord's Mount, behind which God shone with the power of sun. Then, the first of the rays of Eternal Life flashed to me from the door. Here, this ray touched my heart with Fire, telling me:

"I am the One Who loved you and gave My Son for your Salvation and Eternal Life. I am your Father, the Almighty One..."

After the words of Father, a second ray came to my heart. When it touched my heart, its words turned into drops of blood, which bore all my faith. Meanwhile, the ray was already telling me:

"In Me you should believe, it is Me, Who you should follow and to Me you should submit! This is the order of the Son to your heart and this is the call of His blood..."

Hardly heard the words of the second ray, I saw how a third ray of Heavenly Light flashed to my heart. In the moment it touched my heart, it turned into a Heavenly Stream of living waters. Here, my heart could hear how the water of the Heavenly Stream was already whispering me:

"I have My origin from Father and His Son and I am coming to give your heart all the goods of God and to bear Immanuel. About Me, the Son of Father told all of you:

"He will bring glory to me by taking from what is Mine and making it known to you..." (John 16:14)

After the touch by the three Heavenly rays, a wonderful transfiguration occurred into my heart. The Fire of Father enveloped my heart and the blood of the Son bore my faith. Those living waters of the Spirit conceived and surrounded the Heavenly Fruit, in order to feed and grow Him up. Then, Lord Jesus appeared in front of my heart in the vision and told me:

“Do you understand the three rays of Eternal Life now? Do you understand how Trinity made His Dwelling into your heart?”

“Yes, my blessing Lord! I could see and understand now that Trinity came into my heart, in order to make Its Dwelling there. Father came with the Power of His Own “I”. For, He is Who He is! You came with the Power of God’s “Me”, in order for me to believe in You and to obey You. And the Holy Spirit came with the Power of God’s “Mine” as the One Who takes from Father and His Son in order to give us the whole Kindness and Mercy of God and to bear Immanuel inside our hearts!”

After my last words, Lord stretched His hand to Heaven and to the opened door. Here, His right hand caught the three Heavenly rays and He Himself was already telling me:

“Go and tell all My brothers and sisters that these are the three rays of Eternal Life – God’s “I”, God’s “Me” and God’s “Mine”!

God’s “I” comes with the Fire of Father and by the Power of His Choice, foreknowledge and predestination.

God’s “Me” comes with the Blood of the Son that is powerful to bear the faith in your hearts!

God’s “Mine” comes with the waters of the Spirit, which bear Immanuel, feed Him and grow Him up!

Then, after having already seen the rays of Eternal Life, tell Me now – which might the ties of eternal death be?”

“O Jesus! These might be those ties, which always hold us far from the “I”, “Me” and “Mine” of Father, His Son and the Holy Spirit. These must be the human “I”, the human “me” and the human “mine”, born by the sin and darkness. They have come from the devil and hurry to do the will of the dragon, the beast and the false prophet...”

Jesus shook approvingly His head at my words; then, He told me:

“Do you understand now what the most terrible fight between Life and death is? Do all My people understand that there are no onlookers in this fight, but only victors and vanquished? So, if somebody has caught in his heart the three rays of Eternal Life in order to do the Will of Father, His Son and the Holy Spirit, such man will surely bear the Fruit of God’s Blessing; and, by keeping and protecting Him, he will appear before the God of his Salvation. So, he will be called a son of God and will have a part of Eternal Life in the Kingdom of Eternity.

However, woe, woe, woe to those, who could not get over the ties of death! Such men will be called sons of the devil, a generation of eternal death, for which there will not be any light forever. Here, I will initiate My prophet and will show him the three rays of Eternal Life and the three ties of eternal death, so that the blind men might see, the deaf ones might hear and the stupid ones might become wise; and, by turning their hearts aside of the ties of death, to find the rays of Eternal Life!”

1. THE VISION WITH THE HEAVENLY DOOR ON LORD'S MOUNT

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

I do not know whether my grief summoned Jesus to talk to me or He Himself ordered the heavy burden upon my heart. However, from now on, I would like for you to know that the next visions in this book will be a journey to the depths of our own souls. So, every one of us will be able to understand and find out the place, where his heart is now.

I have no doubt that God perfectly keeps His children and protect them from the attacks and fury of the devil. However, I believe even more powerfully that God will give the men, pointed by His hand, the privilege not only to be protected, but to engage in battle and to become victors. So, what do you think? If the prophetic books from the Mount Moriah became so many, did not this happen, so that we might be found grown up and matured in the Holy Spirit? Does not the Scripture advise us to "...no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching...", as by "...speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ..."?

If God has seen that our faith grows up, He will also show us the killer and destroyer, in order for us to crush him and drive him out of his territories. Exactly here, I would like for you to know that the territory, in which the devil mostly likes being active, is the human soul. This is the place, where the most terrible battle between Life and death is carrying on. Therefore, without any delay, I am going to tell you the next words, by which Lord Jesus led me into the very prophetic visions. Here what He told me:

"Now, I am going to lead your heart to those places, which clearly reveal God's Life and the death of the devil. By ordering My people to follow Me and to be attentive in all My words, I tell them that the Sword of God's Prophetic Spirit will begin to pierce them even to separation. So, every one will see the vision, which I am going to give you, like a corners in his own self. Somebody will see one corner, other will notice another. If somebody has seen in himself the Dwelling of Trinity, he will enlarge it much more. However, if somebody else has seen in himself dwellings for the devil, then, let such man humble himself and allow to My Sword to pierce him. My Apostle Paul has warned all of you long ago:

“You, however, did not come to know Christ that way. Surely you heard of him and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be made new in the attitude of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbor, for we are all members of one body. “In your anger do not sin”: Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold...” (Ephesians 4:20-27)

So, what do you think, My boy? Did all the children of God reach to there as to not giving the devil a foothold? Did you all reach to there, as to put off your old self and to put on God’s Immanuel?”

“O Jesus! If we had reached to there, then, You would already have taken Your Bride in Heaven and Your Eternal Kingdom would have come for all of us. However, I know that, if You are still speaking and exposing, correcting and instructing, then, Your eyes have seen many people, who give the devil a foothold...”

“And, who are those, who give the devil a foothold? Will not they be men, who hold their own “I”, “me” and “mine”, instead of holding God’s ones? Since, as you saw by yourself, the rays of Eternal Life come to sanctify God’s Dwelling, instead of the human one...”

God’s words made me bend my head, since my whole heart felt how great and Holy His rightness was. Therefore, having bent my head, I quietly told Him:

“Lead me, Jesus! Show me what You would like to make clear for God’s children...”

After my last words, Jesus stretched His hand to me and went further; I followed Him. Very soon, a vision appeared in front of my eyes. Here, I could see Lord’s Mount on the earth. On the very top of the Mount, I could see a Door that was shining with God's Light. Beneath Lord's Mount, i.e. in the valley at its foot, my eyes could see another door. So, having seen the two doors, I hurried to tell Jesus:

"My Lord! You have led me again to Lord's Mount, which had also seen in Your first vision to my heart. Now, my eyes see two doors. One of them stands on the top of the Hill; the other is in the valley at the foot of the Mount. How shall I understand this, Jesus?"

In reply, the Saviour told me:

"Understand that from this place here, I will exactly reveal to My brothers and sisters what happens in their own hearts and souls, even in the hearts and souls of all men..."

I was looking again at the two doors, when Lord touched my back with His hand and added:

"Let Me first lead you to the Door That is at the top of the Mount. For, My Father's Will for you is to pass through It..."

After these words, Jesus went to the Mount and I followed Him. Here, we were finally standing in front of the Door. Then, Lord pointed at It and told me:

"I will pass through the Door, and you, follow Me, too... So, you will understand everything..."

After that, Jesus left my hand and went further, going through the Door. Then, His Voice came to my ears; He was giving me an order:

"Come to Me!"

I looked at the Door and went to it. I had hardly made few steps, when fell under the Light of the Heavenly rays. Here, the first of the rays of Eternal Life touched my heart and told me:

"I am Who I am, your Father, the Almighty One! If you follow My ray, your "I" have to die, since it is impossible for him to go through the Door. Are you ready, you, son of man? Are you ready to live for God with His "I", and to burry yours in front of the Door on the Mount?"

The words from the ray of God Father were charged with such seriousness that I knew inside my heart that my step further was the most serious thing for all my life. That is why, being fallen on my knees in front of the Door, I answered God's ray, saying:

"My Father! I bow down before Your "I" and I declare that I want for my "I" to die. Now, let the words of Your psalm-singer become words of my heart, too. For, I tell You, my Father: all my springs are in You! You Are the Spring of my life; the miracle that I am alive, living and breathing, comes from You..."

After my last words, God's ray joint my heart, making it blaze up. When I raised up my face, in order to look at the Door, a second ray came to my eyes; it was telling me:

"It is Me, Who you have sought; it is Me, Who you have found! You should believe in Me and be inspired from Me! Do you want this, My boy? For, if you really want it, you should deny yourself and take up your cross. Only in this way, you will be able to follow Me..."

I looked at the ray and I recognized in it the splendid Voice of my Lord Jesus. Therefore, having bent my head before Him, I told Him:

"I deny myself, Lord! I profess now that it is Your Deed that I believe; it is Your Deed that I have a hope! It is Your Deed that I love! It is Your Deed that I suffer and give over my soul to castigating and my life to disgrace..."

After the last words, God's ray entered my heart. It sanctified it and crucified it on invisible cross behind my back. Then, the blood of the Saviour gushed out of my hands and feet and He Himself was already telling me:

"If somebody has followed Me, he has found My Way. If somebody has found My Way, he has found My suffering, too. If somebody has found My suffering, he has also found My Glory. Therefore, stay crucified together with Me, in order to live, even if you are dying. For, whoever loses his life because of Me, he will find it again. And, whoever wants to keep his life without Me, he will lose it..."

After these last words of Jesus, I raised up my head, when the third of the Heavenly rays came to my heart. Here, the ray was already telling me:

"It is Mine that you have looked for; it is Mine that you have found! Fill your heart with My waters! Give My children freely My goods! The more you give from what is Mine, the more you will have from it. Always give, even if it is the last you have! Be always abundant as I am abundant for your heart. Since, the Holy One gives Immanuel by giving. The bigger your giving from Mine is, the bigger Mine is in your giving! I, the Holy One of Father and His Son, spoke these words for you..."

After the last third ray from the Door, my heart felt a strange, but splendid transfiguration. The three rays were interwoven inside me like a triple rope. Then, from the very Door, Jesus drew the rope, so that was already allowed to go through it. Then, He told me:

"This is the test and the trial for all the children of God, which they have had on every time and place. Those, who succeeded in going through the narrow gate, they really became like My Father, Me and the Holy Spirit in everything. They became the generation of Zion, the generation of Eternal Life. And, if you think you have passed through this Door thereby – in a jump, I tell you now that God's Grace has been working into your spirit and heart throughout all these years. Its work has been for you – to purify and form you; to make you dead for everything yours and living for everything of God. However, let Me lead you now to the other door, which is in the valley at the foot of Lord's Mount. Since it was the reason why Father pointed you and commanded that you are given these visions.

Now, have a look and tell Me:

How many are coming here, to the narrow Door? And, how many are the others, who are at the foot of Lord's Mount?"

After the words of Jesus, I looked and noticed that a small group of people, easy to be counted, was coming towards Lord's Hill and Lord's Door. However, down, in the valley itself, my eyes could see a great Babel. There were not hundreds and thousands, but millions of people there. Creeping like ants in their wretched existence, they rushed to pass through the wide door in the valley. This giant multitude was looking out like the waves of a river, doomed to pour out its streams into the depths of hell. The most terrible of the very view was that the bigger the inrush to the wide gate was, the wider this gate was getting. This view made me turn to the Lord and tell Him with eyes, full of tears:

"Jesus! I am looking at this wide gate in the valley and my heart could no longer see it as a gate. It is rather like the wide-open jaws of a terrible monster that swallow everything with terrific appetite. What is this gate, my Lord! What is this terror, which my heart could see?"

In reply, Jesus told me with a firm Voice:

"Once, the Son of Man opened His lips on the earth in order to warn all the men about the narrow Way to Eternal Life and the wide way to eternal death. Once, I seriously warned you with the words:

"Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it..." (Matthew 7:13-14)

However, the wide gate seemed to many to be narrow and they did not think about the narrow one at all. So, going after their earth passions, they hurried to profess the devil as Christ and Saviour. Then, the wide gate became much wider, because it began to swallow not only heathens, but believers, too. Then, what do you think, My boy? If Satan had purposefully deceived and misled most people about his gate for two thousands of years, then now, at the very end of time, what might have become his fallacy? What might have become the ties of eternal death? What might have become the human "I", the human "me" and the human "mine"? Then, why are you terrified with the view in the valley? Is not it the natural end of one constant revolt against the Will of Father, the Example of Son and the Blessing of the Spirit?

Do you understand now why you should not give a rest to your eyelids? Do all My people understand now that somebody has to abide in the breach and intercede for God's children according to God's Will? Do you all, who are alive and sanctified, understand that you have become like a painful prickle for the devil and his worshipers? For, now, at the end of time, I will send Baptists and repairers, who will go down into the valley, in order to draw the prey out of the jaws of destruction. They will follow My example, in order to gather together and raise on Lord's Mount the last generation of survived and redeemed men. And you, follow Me now. For, you have to see the wide gate and the whole deceit, which the devil has used in order to drag away the human souls into the ties of death and hell..."

2. THE VISION WITH THE SPIDERS AT THE WIDE GATE

My brother! My faithful friend! If Lord Jesus gave my heart for a second time to experience the vision with the three rays of Eternal Life, He did it, so that God's children might have the categorical testimony of Spirit and Truth that He calls all of us at the narrow Door on Lord's Mount. To pass through this Door is the most important and Holy deed, which we have to dedicate our life to. I tell you the truth, man can do many deeds in his life, but unless he passes through the narrow Door of Eternal Life, his deeds will not be of any use to him before God's Face. For all those, who have not passed through the Door on the Mount, a moment will come to cry to Jesus:

"...Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your Name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?" (Matthew 7:22)

Then, Jesus Himself will point at the ties of eternal death inside their hearts and will tell them:

"I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!" (Matthew 7:23)

Do you understand now that after entering the narrow Door only, we let Lord know us? For, Father knows well His "I", His "Me" and His "Mine"! They are His and come from His Heart! However, if somebody has held his own "I", after having rejected Jesus... If he has looked for "his own", instead of what is of Jesus Christ... The truth is that such man has been in the way of evildoers in the valley at the foot of Lord's Mount. After having seen the wide gate, such man has decided inside his heart that it is God's criterion for Salvation and Eternal Life.

Here, this wide gate exactly, Jesus showed me in the vision, which I am going to reveal to you. There, behind the gate itself, my heart noticed such striking details that I was sure – I had seen the whole fullness of the wicked devil's heart. Therefore, let me tell you the words, which Lord spoke to me a moment before the very vision. Here what He told me:

"Everything you are to see now, write it on paper and be attentive to not omit anything of what I am going to show you. For, the wide gate is the most jealously kept secret of the devil. Due to this reason, there, he is the most successful in his deceit over human hearts. Now, follow Me in order to see what you have not been given beforehand..."

With excitement, I followed my Lord, Who went from Lord's Mount to the valley. Although the valley was thronged with people, we passed by them as if we were carried by the wind until we reached the wide gate. The view of the gate remembered everybody, who was standing in front of it, of God's Bethel. There, every one of the deceived men could see light Heavenly stairs, coming down from God's clouds in the height. However, it was only at first sight. Having passed through the gate once, the men disappeared from the field of vision of the rest ones, who were interpreting their disappearance like rising and ascending to God and Father. This event seemed to be desirable for the next ones, who were also in a hurry to pass through the gate and disappear, too. So, the long train of people was constantly passing through the gate, without any delay. Finally, Lord raised His hand and pointed at the door, telling me:

"Do not be impressed with the delusion, which the devil has invented in order to deceive the men! Instead, follow Me, since we will both pass at the other side of the gate. So, you will be able to see the real place, where the men, who have passed through it, have landed..."

After these words, Jesus took a good grip of my hand and we both landed on the other side of the gate. While my eyes could still see the deceitful Bethel and Heavenly stairs, suddenly, a space, devoured by horrible darkness, appeared in front of me. Only the Heavenly Light of my Lord, in which my spirit was hidden, protected me from crying with horror. Only now could I see that the very space of the devil was a cave with black and sharp cliffs. It was not horizontal, but rather vertical, because under my feet, which were next to Jesus' feet, I could see a deep precipice, which bottom reached the flames of hell. However, even by this, the view had not revealed its secrets. The space over the precipice was covered by a strong spider web, from which a stink of mould and decay might be felt. Exactly then, Lord spoke to my heart, asking:

"Did you notice the spider web?"

"Yes, Jesus! I noticed it, because it is spread over the precipice in the cave and a nasty stink of decay comes from it; as if all the ties of decay and corruption have been concentrated in this spider web..."

"You are not far from the Truth! – answered Jesus and continued: You, however, look attentively, because at the spider web, its owners will appear soon..."

I looked again at the spider web, and I suddenly noticed how three spiders crawled out from among it. They visibly differed from one another in their size and magnitude, although their web was common. This fact made me tell Jesus:

"My Lord! I can see three spiders round the spider web - one that is bigger and two others that are smaller. Evidently, they must have spun this cobweb. Is this right, Jesus?"

"That is right! However, I will stretch the Sword of Truth to the cobweb now. So, you will be able to see who spiders themselves are in fact..."

After these words, Lord thrust a hand into His mantle. He took out the Sword in His right hand and stretched it to the cobweb. Then, due to God's Light, the spiders were transformed in a moment, so that my eyes could recognize in them Satan, the man-antichrist and the spirit of Antichrist, who is the false prophet. This event made me tell my Lord with excitement:

"Jesus! I see how Lord's Sword illuminated the dragon, the beast and the false prophet. These three are exactly the spiders in this cave..."

Having heard my words, Lord thrust the Sword into His mantle, so that the dragon, the beast and the false prophet were again transformed like spiders. Then, He told me:

"If My Father appeared Himself before your heart with the Ray of His "I", the Son - with His "Me", and the Spirit - with "Mine", then, is there any reason for you to wonder what these spiders are doing? Look at their cobweb, My boy! And, after seeing it, notice that there are millions of fine threads in it, which are very strong and flexible... Do you understand now what happens to the men, who pass through the wide gate?"

"O Jesus! Obviously, these millions of treads are the ties of eternal dead. Every time, when some man fell into this precipice, he is being caught by some of the threads of the cobweb..."

In confirmation of my words, Lord pointed at the entrance of the gate, where a man was already coming in. Just entered, the man fell into the cobweb. Then, one of the spiders skillfully jumped and tied his heart with one of the threads. After the first man, two others came in and also fell into the cobweb. Then, with lightning speed, the two other spiders tied their hearts with other threads. So, being tied by the threads of the cobweb, the men began sinking into the precipice, by falling down. As to the spiders, they immediately crawled along the rocks, hurrying to go down to the bottom of the precipice. This fact made me be at a loss, since I did not know what the aim of the spiders was. Having seen my perplexity, Jesus hurried to tell me:

“Is this that wonders you? You have not seen anything yet. Now, as a testimony to My brothers and sisters, I tell you that the hearts of these men were bound by the ties of eternal death; by the devil’s “I”, the devil’s “me” and the devil’s “mine”. As to the fact that the spiders hurried to go down into the depth of very hell, they did it, because every one of the bound men would have a period of accession to them. The nearer he will be going to them, the deeper he will be sinking. Therefore, I tell all My people: The first of the ties of eternal death is the “I” of the dragon, who is Satan. The second tie of eternal death is the “me” of the beast, who is the man-Antichrist. The third tie of eternal death is the “mine” of the false prophet, who is the spirit of Antichrist.

Everybody who passes through the wide gate is doomed to accept these ties in his heart and to find eternal death and destruction. If God’s children have not known till now how terrible these spiders and the threads of their cobwebs are, then, I tell all of you now that there is not any more flexible, firm and elastic tie than the tie, which a spider can spin. And, when the spider is not alone, but they are three spiders; when they are not spiders in their nature, but the three horrible giants in the kingdom of darkness; then, you really have a reason to keep yourselves away from them and to stand far from their gate. Here, I am going to show My prophet every one of the ties of eternal death – beginning from the “I” of the dragon and finishing with the “mine” of the false prophet. Therefore, be jealous and firm to follow Me in these most fateful visions for your hearts and souls...”

After these last words, the vision with the wide gate stopped and my heart – shaken as never before, hurried to hide and confirm itself much more into the rays of Eternal Life. May you, my brother, find God’s rays, too! May you get over the wide gate and your heart be kept in these days of human decay and corruption. Amen and Amen!

3. THE "I" OF THE DRAGON OR ABOUT THE TIES OF PRIDE AND EXALTING

My brother! My faithful friend!

Judging by the fury, by which the devil reacted to the visions, given to me by Jesus, I dare say that Lord has really led me in the threshold of the full crash of devil's heart. I already stop wondering, when my heart feel devil's fury, for it turns to be an expression of his impotence. No matter how strong a spider is amidst its cobweb, his creation catches fire even at the least spark of God. Therefore, absolute darkness reigns in the cave of the evil one. Nevertheless, Lord went even then, in the kingdom of darkness. For, this dark has devoured millions of souls now. Every one of them has entered the wide gate, being deceived that it will find Bethel. However, how many are those people, who, being caught by the ties of death, are crying to the God of Salvation? How many are like the prayer man, who says in the psalm:

"The cords of death entangled me, the anguish of the grave came upon me; I was overcome by trouble and sorrow. Then I called on the name of the LORD: "O LORD, save me!" (Psalms 116:3-4)

Do you see, my brother, the same, which Lord warned us about in the beginning of this book? Do you see how the word is exactly about recesses of our souls? What else might they be, but places, where ours has not died at the expense of God's?

Here, Lord touches the depths of my heart and gives me testify about all His Kindness and Mercy. Today, He is ready to save. Today, He is ready to stretch His hand and draw out many captives of the spiders from the cave of the wide gate, provided that they themselves would cry:

"O Lord! Redeem our souls from the cords of death!"

However, how would cry to Him those, in whose eyes the wide gate is God's Bethel? How would cry to Jesus the men, who call the devil "Lord", after having called Lord "a devil"? Who would they cry to the devil to be saved? Let me tell you that even when they have fallen into the cave of the evil one, most people could not see their real state, because their spiritual senses are closed. At the contrary – passed once through the wide gate, they hurry to give themselves to the devil with such passion and lust that there is nothing strange that the devil is so successful in the ties of eternal death. Now, let me tell you by what words Lord led me into the vision with the first of the three spiders, who is Satan. Here what He told me:

“If you have not known by now that the “I” of the human heart is a tie, then, be ready to see it now. This is the first of the ties of eternal death and the devil relies on it very much. Therefore, let Me lead you to the wide gate now, so that you might see the cave of the evil one...”

After these words, Lord touched my head and we both found ourselves in the cave. Here, my eyes could see again the cobweb, stretched over the precipice. Very close to it, there was a giant spider; I knew inside my heart that he was the devil. In this moment, Lord gave me a sign with His hand, telling me:

“See now what is going to happen to that satanic worshiper, who is already coming through the wide door...”

I looked at the entrance of the door, when I noticed that a man, dressed in a beautiful suit, appeared there. Just entered, he fell into the spider’s net, suchlike the three men in the former vision. Then, the spider skillfully jumped and stood next to his heart. He took one of his cords and hurried to tie it to his very heart. So, the man hanged on the cord, which was tight holding him. The spider crawled over the sharp cliffs aside of the cave and descended into the precipice until it reached to the very flames of hell. Exactly then, Lord gave me a sign to pay attention, because the spider cried out of the deepest bottom, telling the man:

“I am waiting for you to come to me. I am calling you! I, I, I...”

The words of the spider resounded so powerfully in the sharp cliffs that they drove into the heart of the man like a stream of darkness and shook the thread of cobweb, to which he was tied. This event made the worshiper of the devil repeat its words, saying:

“I, I, I! I am coming, lord!”

Just spoken his words, the man felt that the thread immediately stretched and he sank some meters down. This made him grin. He stretched his hands downwards and cried again:

“I, I, I...”

The effect of his words came at the moment. The cord stretched with some new meters. Then, I asked my Lord:

"What happens, Jesus? Why the cord stretches and becomes longer every time, when the man repeats the word "I"?"

Jesus answered me:

"Here, in the cave of the wide gate, "I" looks for an "I". So, the human "I" is irresistibly drawn to the "I" of the devil. You, however, keep looking at everything that is to happen to the worshiper, who has been caught by the cord of eternal death..."

I looked again at the horrible precipice and at the man, who was sinking together with the devil's cord. Here, I noticed how the black cliffs round him began to change; finally, they stopped being rocks at all. The satanic will had turned them into lodges for high-standing men. So, looking from their lodges at the man, tied by spider's thread, the men were standing up from their chairs and were rapturously beginning to applaud him and tell him:

"You are, you are, you are!"

This event made the man grin much more. He stretched his hands to the spider that was in the very bottom of precipice and cried again:

"Yes, I am! Really, I am!"

After these words of his, the thread stretched much more, so that he was sinking extremely fast. The lodges of the high-standing men round him were changed by marble halls and luxurious offices. New and new men, each one more influential and rich than the other, were already bowing before him. They were pointing at him with hypocrisy and were telling him:

"You are, you are, you are..."

Then, the man stretched much more eagerly his hands to the spider that was in the bottom of the precipice and shouted again with a voice of rapture and intoxicant satisfaction:

"I am! I, I, I. I am coming, lord..."

In this moment, Lord gave me a sign to look at the spider, who took the image of the devil himself. Here, the devil stretched his hand to his worshiper, telling him:

"A little more, my servant! Make some more effort and you will arrive at your master..."

Heard the words of the devil, the man visibly changed his face. He pursed his lips in contempt and stretched again his hands to the devil, asking him:

"Who are those, who are bowing and kneeling before my heart? They do not deserve my attention at all, since they are not as worthy as I am. I am the worthy one! I am the chosen one! I!"

The last words of the worshiper were too much liked by the devil. He stretched his hand to the cord and drew it much nearer to the bottom, so that his worshiper was already very close to him. Then, due to the power of devil's delusion, an immense triumphal arch appeared next to the devil. Thousands of crowding men began to throw flowers to his worshiper, crying:

"You are, you are, you are..."

After that, the man approached the devil and stretched his hands to his heart. Here, the face of the devil stretched in a smile. He powerfully drew the thread of the cobweb, thrust a hand into his own heart and took out of it a second thread, by which he tied the heart of the man, too. Then, he told him:

"Now, you are worthy to be raised very highly! Be divine and appear the power, by which I have called you!"

So, the devil loosened the upper cord of the cobweb and it drew back the worshiper above, so that he flew up amidst unstoppable exclamations and applauds. He was rising up and up and was crying round himself:

"Am not I great? Am not I divine? I am really what I am..."

Looking with disgust at everything that was happening to the man, I made analogy in my mind, by asking Jesus about it:

"My Lord! Is not this deceit of the devil just like those "bungee" jumps from high places by the help of a flexible rope, which are so modern among the young men in this last time? At these jumps, the brave men throw themselves down, reach to a certain distance, after which the flexible rope draws them back and they go up again..."

"Yes, My boy! Your analogy is right. However, if the men want to raise their adrenalin by jumping with a flexible rope, this man here wanted something else and he already received it. Now, look and see that no matter how highly the man is raised by the thread of the cobweb upwards, the devil will certainly draw him to the bottom by the thread, which he tied to him, downwards..."

In confirmation to the words of Jesus, I saw that the men reach to some extent amidst the cliff precipice. After that, he began headlong to fall down again. This time, my eyes could see the whole horror of his fall. Since, the upper cord of cobweb was no longer holding him and the devil had pulled the cord that was below. So, the worshiper was sinking at a top speed to the flames of hell. When his soul fell into the fire, he terribly screamed:

"Why am I here, devil? Is there something between you and me? Why has Lord given to me eternal part in these pains?"

With malicious laughter, Satan pulled the lower cord, which he had tied to his heart, and told him:

"You are tied to me. You entered my gate and wished my fates. That is why you are one of my condemned people, by whose pain and suffering I will be comforting my heart..."

The horror of the worshiper was so terrible that I turned my head and did not want to look at him any longer. Then, Jesus asked me with a strict Voice:

"What do you think, My boy? Has My Church understood what the deadly tie of Satan is? Have My brothers and sisters understood what the "I" of the devil is powerful in?"

"O Jesus! The vision is so living here; this cave and precipice are so real that I already know that the man was attracted by Satan through the cord of pride. The more he was repeating "I, I, I", the more the cord approached him to the heart of the devil. Then, Satan deceived the heart of the man much more, by finding him flatterers and admirers. So, as a result of this flattery and admiration, the man got conceited to such extent that he even despised those, who were flattering him, since he considered himself to be greater than them. So, he reached to the bottom of hell and to the heart of the devil..."

"And, what happened after that? What was the second thread, by which the devil tied the heart of his worshiper? And why did his worshiper immediately fly up?"

"My Lord! Doubtless, this was the exalting of this man. By exalting exactly, Satan drove into his heart his own sin and revolt against God and Father..."

In the next moment, Lord told me with very strict and serious Voice:

“Go and warn all the children of God that the most terrible cords of eternal death are these of Satan. These are the ties of pride and exalting.

BY THE CORD OF PRIDE, MAN APPROACHES DEVIL’S HEART, AND BY THE CORD OF EXALTING, HIS HEART REMAINS SEALED AS DEVIL’S ONE.

Then, should you stay with your “I”, or it is better for you to bury it together with your old self? Do not you know that the greatest power of the devil is in the attraction of the human “I”? And, what else might pride be, but a throne of the “I” in the human heart? What else might pride be then, but grave rebellion against God and Father? What else might exalting be, but a seal of eternal death in the hearts of devil’s men?

Here, I warn all of you that the only way for you to protect your hearts from these first cords of eternal death is to give yourselves over to humbleness. For, humbleness elevates God’s children, and pride raises the children of devil! If the reward of humbleness is further above, the retribution of pride and exalting is further below...”

I was listening to the words of my Lord and my heart felt sincere fear of God and His eternal fates. That is why I entreat you, my brother! Keep this vision in your heart as a signal lamp of the living faith! It will always flash, when the “I” tries to turn back into your heart. However, if Jesus abides in you, His words will always be a sun and shield for your heart; words, by which Lord Himself tells you:

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light...” (Matthew 11:28-30)

4. THE “ME” OF THE BEAST OR ABOUT THE TIES OF EGOISM AND HAUGHTINESS

My brother! My faithful friend!

I will not stop worshipping and thanking my God for all His Kindness and Mercy. For, even by now, He remains perfectly concerned about our hearts and souls. In fact, He could stay on His Throne in Heaven, waiting for us to come to Him. However, He did not do this, because He had Pity for all His children. So, He descended from Zion and found His servants, the prophets. He gave them Holy visions from His Heart, ardent words from His lips, exposing staff from His hand. Now, when God’s staff fell over our hearts and punishes us, we have to sing. Maybe through tears and weeping, but we have to sing and glorify His Mercy and Kindness. For, who of us has not been an object of Father’s Love? Who of us has not been punished in order finally to receive the fruit of peace and sanctification?

I tell you, my heart is astounded and shaken as never before. Years ago, Lord Jesus showed me the wide gate. He showed it to me somehow from afar, as to a little child that has to be sucking milk. Then, I wrote the book “The broad way or religion as death”. However, have I been able to know then that the broad way is much broader and the wide gate is much more deadly? Have I been able to know that there are no churches that are insured against the cords of eternal death? Have I been able to know then that if the sins of Babylon have reached even to Heaven, it has happened due to the cobweb’s threads of Satan, which have launched many into orbit round the false Christianity and human religion? Who of us has not seen the applauses, coming from the cliffs of the satanic precipice? Who of us has not seen the pride and exalting of a handful of Babylonian kings, who think themselves to be everlasting? Who of us has not become an object of their contempt and a victim of their coldness? Here, I tell you that every launch by the human pride and careerism will finish in the flames of hell. Let nobody of the men, fallen there, ask Satan why his doom has befallen him. For, the ties with Satan are created while still living, and the judgement over them comes later. Now, let me show you the second of the ties of eternal death. For, this is the tie of the beast; a tie that is the "me" of the Antichrist. Here what words Jesus told me, a moment before the vision in the cave:

"What you are to see in this vision is terrible in the full sense of the word. Therefore, let your heart not fail, but be confirmed in Me. For, I was crying from Heaven to many hearts and I wanted to show them the wide gate and the broad way, but they did not wish to hear Me at all. I was weeping in the eyes of many grieved and oppressed men and I wanted for the church leaders to hear My lament in their lips. However, the church leaders did not hear Me, because they were busy with their own "me". I was bleeding in the hearts of many killed and pierced people and I wanted to find men with the heart of Joseph of Arimathea, in order to wash My wounds and anoint My feet. However, My Voice became like the voice of the prophet in the desert. Since, being impressed by fine clothes and kings' palaces, they refused hearing the Voice of the King covering their heads with His sackcloth. Therefore, I tell you that, with the deep visions in this book, Heaven signs the death warrant and obituary of the whole satanic kingdom, so that the dead souls, whose names are written on it, to be dead forever. For, they have beloved the cords of eternal death, and have hated the rays of Eternal Life. And you, follow Me now, in order to see the very vision..."

After these words, Lord touched my head with His hand, so that the cave of the wide gate appeared again in front of my heart. Here, I could see again the thick cobweb, and aside of it – the second spider of darkness. It was not necessary for me to look any longer, because a man, dressed in a luxurious suit, passed through the wide gate. Just passed, he also fell into spiders' web; then, the spider skillfully jumped and tied a cord of its web to his heart. Then, he threw the man into the precipice and made him hang on this thread. After everything, which the spider did by his tentacles, he crawled upon the rocks of the precipice and descended to the flames of the very hell. Here, out of the depths of the precipice, I could hear the voice of the spider, telling his worshiper:

"Come to me! I want you to be with me! With me, me, me..."

The words of the spider rose from the pit like a dark whirlwind that shook the rocks with hollow echo and then slipped into the human heart. Here, he stretched his hands downwards and asked:

“Are you speaking to me, lord? What do you want from me?”

To which, the spider replied:

“It is to you that I am speaking! Come to me, me, me...”

The words rushed like a dark whirlwind amidst the cliffs and slipped into the human heart. Then, being possessed by these suggestions, he cried:

“There is not anything better for me! This way is exactly for me! This fate is for me!”

After these words of the man, the thread began to stretch, going down some ten meters. Then, having seen that he has gone too close to the spider, the man cried again:

“What happiness is for me to follow you! This is exactly what I need...”

The thread stretched again, by going much below. Then, the cliffs of the precipice changed again. By turning into cozy halls with solemn pulpits, they suddenly were filled with men, who were crying with rapture:

“Come to us! This pulpit is for you! We want you, wait for you, and admire you!”

Being flattered by their exclamations, the man tried with his hands to approach the pulpits and halls. However, after looking downwards, at the spider, he told them:

“There is something much greater for me. I am given by lord much greater privilege...”

This event made the spider increased the fall of spiders' cord. So, new, more tempting pictures appeared before the eyes of his worshiper. The halls and pulpits were changed by congressional seats and rostrums. People in them were no more hundreds, but thousands. Ascended on these rostrums, venerable professors and church noblemen were stretching their hands to him, saying:

“We are only waiting for you! We can not begin without you!”

The worshiper was looking with admiration at the tempting offers and was already crying:

"Here such career is for me, lord! I would do everything for you, in order to achieve it! I would pay any price, so that you might make from me what you are giving me to see!"

In this moment, Lord gave me a sign to examine the spider that had already come too close to the worshiper. Suddenly, the spider was transformed, so that my eyes could see Antichrist, who was nothing but a dark copy of my Lord. This Antichrist stretched his hands to the man, who was sinking down with the cord, and told him:

"Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give it to every one, who loves me. And you, do you love me, my child?"

The questions of Antichrist were like an ecstasy, injected into the heart of his worshiper. So, he shouted:

"It is real happiness for me to serve you. For, I know that you think highly of me and demand from me to serve you..."

Then, Antichrist pointed at the congressional seats and the unstoppable applauses in them, and told him:

"Everything you see is for you! For, you have listened to yourself and have used yourself up completely in order to be successful. Come, my child! Come nearer..."

Having heard the words of Antichrist, his worshiper stretched his hands to the utmost limit. He wanted to touch him, as he said:

"Here I am! It is me, who you have looked for; it is me, who you deign in, lord!"

In reply, the beast smiled, telling the man:

"Yes, that is right! It is you, who I have looked for; it is you, who I have found! The likes of you will do my whole will..."

After the words of the Antichrist, spiders' thread stretched to such extent that the worshiper was already standing before the beast. By stretching his hand, he was already eager to touch his heart. Then, the beast touched his own heart and took out a second cord, by which he tied the heart of his worshiper. Finally, he stretched the first one and was already loosing it, by telling the man:

"Go with this faith of yours and you will overcome the world!"

So, the worshiper was launched up. While he was passing by the congressional seats, he was already thumping his chests, crying aloud:

"Who is like me? Is there anybody like me? I tell you that I will not let anybody be above me! Do you hear me? No one has right to be above me..."

I raised my hands to close my ears, since my heart could not stand at all the last arrogant act of the satanic worshiper. Then, Jesus asked me:

"What do you think, My boy? Where would one go to, if he only relies on his own "me"? Where would all go to, if they have believed in a lord, who mainly stakes on their "me", instead of relying on his own?"

"O Jesus! This is exactly the deceit of Antichrist. He looks for men, full of egoism, who have not denied their own selves, but who want to impose themselves..."

"And, what was the divine appeal to My children? I told you words, which all of you have already forgotten:

"If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me..."(Matthew 16:24)

Then, see you all that the worshiper of Antichrist in the cave was seeking his own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. See that he wished a service for his own self, instead of service for God. And you, My boy, think and tell Me what the second tie of eternal death, by which Antichrist bound the heart of the man, was..."

"O Jesus! This tie is very frightful and deadly. This is the tie of haughtiness. Since the worshiper, while he was flying up, was crying in everyone's hearing that he does not wish anybody to be above him. With this haughtiness of his, he was so similar to the beast that is written about that he will direct boastful words against God and His saints..."

"And, are not boastful men too many today? Does not their haughtiness mean that they have put their "me" over all the rest? Here, I warn you, in order for you to know:

HAUGHTINESS IS THE THRONE OF THE REIGNING EGOISM! THIS IS THE TIE OF ETERNAL DEATH, BY WHICH THE BEAST DEVOURS THE SOULS OF HIS WORSHIPERS!

Therefore, see now what doom expects the haughty one. For, no matter how highly his bow before Antichrist would raise him, a moment always comes, when he becomes to fall down..."

Indeed, after the word of Jesus, the worshiper of Antichrist began to fall. This event made the beast immediately to stretch the second thread of spiders' web. Although the man was trying by nails and teeth to get hold of the sharp rocks, he could not withstand the power of the beast. So, a moment came, when the soul of the worshiper splashed into the fiery flames of hell. As he saw the horror of his own state, he cried:

"It can not happen to me! This fate must not have been written for me!"

Then, with malicious laughter, the beast answered him:

"At the contrary! This is the doom of every "me"! You are not God's child, but mine! Since, God's children deny themselves, in order to follow the Son of Jehovah; as to you, you staked on my cord, in order to be one of the generation of my father..."

The horror of the worshiper was complete. He began to tear his hair, frantically crying:

"Cursed "me", cursed egoism! Why could not I recognize you during my lifetime? Why could not I get you under control while still living?"

While I was listening to the screams of the worshiper, Lord approached me. He looked at me with His strictest regard and told me:

"Write on paper this vision, because it is very, very fateful. By giving it to all My brothers and sisters, warn them about the doom of every human egoism and haughtiness. Let all those, who have dropped out of My Name, fall on their knees before My God and Father, and repeat the words of this wretched man while still living, in order to escape the doom to pronounce them later:

"Cursed "me" and cursed "egoism"! Cut them off from us, You, God of Rightness! Burn them up from us, You, God of Holiness! Let us recognize the ties of death during our lifetime! And, by denying them, let us find the rays of Eternal Life!"

5. THE "MINE" OF THE FALSE PROPHET OR ABOUT THE TIES OF SELF-SEEKING, AVARICE AND GREED

Are your heart bleeding, my brother? For, I am telling you now that mine is bleeding. If you would ask me who hurt me so much to the extent to bleed, I would point at the King of Zion and would give Him thankfulness and honour. Since, who of us has not kept a corner into his soul in order to feed his own "me"? Who of us has not secretly cherished the hope that together with the rays of God's Eternal Life, some tie of eternal death could thrive, too? I tell you the truth and I do not lie that, according to the power of its radical appeal, this prophetic book stands in the first ten, which Lord has given to me to write. For, Heaven, where we go by faith, has not been created for Peter and John, or for Mary and Susan.

No! It is created for Jesus, Who lives inside our hearts! And, if there is a perfect appearance of Father's Kindness and Mercy, these is exactly God's exposing, by which Jesus temporarily punishes our hearts and souls. If a Mary that is pregnant lives inside our hearts, she will become a mother of the Saviour, only when does she bear Him. Until being born, Immanuel is vulnerable - not outside and not to our enemies, but to us ourselves! This is the reason for the grief, which Lord promised to "a woman giving birth to a child". However, is there anything more valuable than Godly sorrow? Does not it lead to life-saving repentance? Does not it purify? Does not it arouse eagerness? So, if I tell you that all the powers of hell came against my heart in attempt to stop me from writing of this book, then, could you understand the sacrifice, which God has commanded for His children?

Here, I tell you that my heart is trembling even by now, because I am standing at gun point of the whole demonic fury. However, no matter how long I am waiting for this gun to shoot, it always misses fire... Indeed, Lord has fates amidst His people; fates that have to be done by His Prophetic Spirit. To be realized these fates, somebody must stand in the breach and listen to His Voice in order to proclaim it.

I am beginning with these words before describing the last vision in this book, because, personally for my heart, the tie of death that reveals in the "mine" of the false prophet is the most terrible and cursed of all. This is the tie, which "Revelation" tells about that the false prophet deceived everybody on earth to bow before the dragon and the beast. This is the tie that drew many hearts and they dropped out of their spiritual communication with the books from the Mount Moriah. This is the tie that made many frenzied pastors tear in pieces my books and curse my name. For, ministry appeared that proclaims Jesus Christ's Will, while most people are looking for their own interest now. Therefore, let me tell you what the words of Jesus were a moment before having He dedicated me in the vision with the false prophet. Here what He told me:

"By this book, once for all, Lord holds in store for you the fate to be one of His victors; those victors, who the Word tells about:

"They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death..." (Revelation 12:11)

Then, tell Me: What is this death, which you neither shrink from, nor was afraid of, but came into cruel collision with it? What is this death, which Lord gave you to overcome by all the prophetic books, for which you were anointed by My Father?"

"O, blessing Jesus! This is the eternal death and its ties "I", "me" and "mine". Since the moment, when I wrote "Chase the merchants away from the Temple" and flourished Your whip over the backs of the merchants, Your Heavenly rays came into collision with the ties of eternal death..."

"And you, why did not you follow the example of most Christian authors? Why did not you bow before the devil and did not look for your own interest? Why did not you put prices on your books, in order to be entitled as one of the best sold authors in the history of Christianity? Here, your books have already become too many..."

"I could not do it, my Lord! I realized that the Word is not mine, but Yours. When I realized this, I began to think over the fact that some day, I will have to stand before Your Judgment Seat in order to respond for my deeds on earth. Then, how would I look at Your eyes? How would I have stepped in Your Holiness if the purse with the silver coins of Judas had jingled inside my heart? Then, would not I have lost the sweetest love of my life that You Are?"

Lord smiled at my words and caressed my head. Then, He told me:

“That is why I tell you that you are one of My victors. Since, you could stand up to the tempter and seducer. However, I am going to give you now to see a man, who has never considered Lord to be the sweet Love of his life. Therefore, follow Me into the vision with the ties of the false prophet...”

After His last words, Lord touched my head, so that the cave of the wide gate appeared in front of my eyes. This time, I saw again the cobweb of the devil and aside of it – the third spider. While I was looking at the spider, the third worshiper passed through the door, too. This worshiper visibly differed from the two previous; he was looking to be poorer and more unsightly. This fact surprised me; so, I asked Jesus:

“My Lord! Why does the third worshiper seem to be poorer than the two previous?”

Jesus answered me:

“Many poor men hurry to take hold of this most deadly tie of the devil, because they have already been tempted by the men, richer than them. You, however, look at the vision! In it, everything will become clear for you...”

I looked again at the cobweb, where the worshiper had already fallen. Here, the spider jumped over him with skillfully movement. It took a thread from the cobweb, tied his heart and threw him down into the precipice. After that, creeping down along the sharp cliffs, he went down to the flames of hell. Finally, the spider moved in the very bottom and cried aloud to his worshiper:

“My son! You have come to mine and you will receive from what is mine! Do you want mine, mine, mine...”

The words of the false prophet rose from the abyss like a dark whirlwind, so that the cliffs resounded at his words. Then, the dark whirlwind rushed over the heart of the hanging man and slipped into him. So, the worshiper cried to the spider:

“Yes, my lord! I want yours, but could you possibly care for what is mine?”

His words made the spider laugh and tell him:

"Do not fear! Come to me, because – here – everything mine is also yours. Yours, yours, yours..."

At this answer, the worshiper began to wave his hand with rapture. He stretched his hands down and was telling himself:

"Mine – how wonderfully this sounds! Mine, mine, mine! This is splendid..."

A moment after his words, the spiders' thread stretched much more and the man sank some meters below. Having seen to be very close to the spider, he cried to him, asking:

"What shall I do in order to acquire what is mine, lord?"

"Follow my marks, my son!" – answered him the spider. Suddenly, the rocks aside of the precipice changed at once, and the worshiper saw a table with plenty of God's goods on it. As he stretched his hands to them, he heard the spider tell him:

"These are my goods; they might become yours. For, I already promised you that everything mine is yours..."

"Well, how might they become mine, lord? – the worshiper excitedly asked. Then, the voice of the spider came to his heart, telling him:

"Everything mine becomes yours, when you give your own. Therefore, hurry to take what is yours; so, you will let me bless you..."

The words of the false prophet liked the man too much. He took the bag, laid next to the table and thrust all the goods from the table into it. Then, the bag became heavier, so that the spiders' thread stretched down much more. So, the worshiper sank some meters more below. Finally, the spider spoke to him again:

"You have my goods. Here, there are others who do not have them. The moment has come what is mine to become yours..."

Together with the words of the spider, hungry men appeared in the rocks before the eyes of the man. They saw his bag, filled with bread, wine and butter, and stretched their hands to him, telling him:

"Give us from these goods, our brother! We are hungry and thirsty..."

He looked at them, held tight the bag and replied:

"How shall I give you something that is mine? I can not give it to you, because it is mine..."

While he was answering them, the spirit of Mammon appeared behind the men. He provoked one of the men to tell the worshiper:

“Unless you want to give us from these goods, then, why do not you sell them to us? So, you will not lose what is yours...”

The words of Mammon were tempting enough not to please the worshiper. So, he opened the bag and told them:

“Now, that is another conversation. Take out the money and you will get what is mine...”

Here, the men took out silver coins in their hands. They paid him down enough from them, gathered all the coins in a purse and gave it over to the man. Having taken the purse, he gave them over the bag. However, because of the purse, the spiders’ thread had already become too heavier and the worshiper sank hundreds of meters below. He was surprised, because his approach to the false prophet was very significant. Here, the worshiper could already hear the spider tell him:

“You really did it wisely. Here, my goods are in your hands. Now, I tell you that you have to take much more from mine and make it yours. So, you become a witness of me and the power of my prosperity. Therefore, look at those, who have less been favoured than me. By buying what is mine from them, you will sell it to others, who have not still known me...”

So, amidst the very cliff walls, I could see men with market-stalls, covered with bread, wine and oil, although their trade was not going well. The worshiper turned to them and told them:

“I have money to buy all your wares. Give them here to me...”

Having seen the money in his hand, the merchants clapped their hands, gathered all the wares in two immense sacks and gave them to him. The worshiper gave them over the purse and took the sacks, due to which the thread of death stretched again below. Here, hungry people appeared again in the rocks. As the men saw the sacks, full of bread, oil and wine, they stretched out their hands to him, saying:

“Give us from these goods, since we are hungry!”

However, the worshiper, whose heart was hardened by Mammon, answered them:

"Now, I am going to understand whether you are really hungry. That many silver coins – for the bread, that many – for the oil and that many – for the wine. Will you pay me?"

The price, declared by the worshiper, seemed to the men unreasonable. So, they held up their hands in helplessness and told him:

"How shall we give you so much money for the bread, oil and wine? Do not you see that we are poor?"

The worshiper pointed down at the spider and cried to them:

"Are you really willing to pay that little for this lord, you have believed in? Are you really incapable of gathering the money for his goods? Then, where is your faith? You have not really known him..."

While the men were listening to the words of worshiper with confusion, a man of good fortune, incited by the spirit of Mammon, appeared among them. He looked at them with contempt and told the worshiper:

"These men are a reproach for God's prosperity. As to me, I have the money for the price you have declared. Therefore, sell God's goods to me..."

So, the rich man paid down a whole bag with silver pieces to the worshiper. He passed them to him and took from him the sacks with the wares. Exactly then, the bag with the silver coins became so heavy that the spiders' thread led the worshiper to the very spider. All of a sudden, the spider altered and took the real image of the false prophet; then, he stretched his hands to embrace his worshiper. This event made the foolish man also stretch his hands to his heart and told him:

"I love you, lord! You taught me how to find your goods. Now, I have so much mine that I worship you..."

With voice of great satisfaction, the false prophet thrust a hand into his heart and took out a second spiders' thread; then, he told his worshiper:

"You know me, my son, but not enough! Indeed, you learnt how to take from my goods and make them yours. However, this is not the real power of prosperity. If I multiplied the fish and bread, how much would yours increase if I multiply everything in this bag? So, do you really want to become a witness of my prosperity?"

The words of the false prophet had an effect of a drug on the heart of the worshiper. With eyes, shining with desire, he told him:

"O god! I am willing to have more, more, more..."

In the next moment, the false prophet tied the second cord to the heart of the man. Then, he drew the first thread and advised him:

"Go then and sow money, in order to reap money! For, everything gives fruit according to its kind. As to the sowing of money, it will make you a great witness of God's prosperity..."

In the next moment, the worshiper was already flying up amidst the cliffs. A meter above him, the spirit of Mammon was flying up, too. The more he was trying to touch the spirit of the worldly wealth, the greedier his words were sounding:

"Prosperity, prosperity! This is the way for his wealth to become ours! This is his will, this is his example, this is his path..."

The disgust in my heart has reached its upper point. I turned at Jesus in the vision, embraced Him and asked Him:

"My splendid Lord! Are You really so cheap for them that they sell You so dear? Are You so dear for them that they sell You so cheaply?"

A moment after my words, a tear of Christ burnt my palm. Jesus looked at me with sorrowful eyes and explained me:

"My Heart is weeping for My people, who do not know Me. My Heart is weeping for all those, who wander about the market-stalls and seek My words at the cost of their money, instead of coming at Lord's springs to drink without money, and at Lord's Table to eat without payment. My Heart is weeping for all those, who did not recognize that the most destructive ties of eternal death are the cords of self-seeking, avarice and greed; cords, by which the false prophet deceived the churches of the last time, by making them love one false doctrine of prosperity. Here, I am telling all My people and you:

From now to the end, the hell will be filled and overfilled with all who have become merchants and criminals. Since, from among all who have been tied by eternal cords of death, these ones are the most dead. They took God's goods and made them theirs. They were violating the orphan and widow and were taking from them their last coin, in order to give them bread that can not satisfy and water that can not quench.

I used ten years of your life against these wolves and foxes! In the course of ten years, they did not repent, but were entangled into the cobwebs of the evil one. In the course of ten years, My Father was gathering your tears in His vessel and was writing down your persecutions in His Book! In the course of ten years, they did not give up hating and disgracing you! However, I tell you now that, even if your example would remain as a voice into a desert, you are not alone, because the whole Heaven is with you. As to this repulsive and depraved generation of merchants and money-lovers that is doomed to decay and corruption, Lord's mouth has rejected such men forever and their doom is in the immeasurably depths of God's furious curses. Therefore, see what doom expects this most cursed from among all the cursed worshipers..."

I looked again at the vision, when I noticed how the upsurge of the money-lover finished. When he began to fall afterwards, the false prophet immediately drew the second thread. So, a moment came, when the worshiper fell into the flames of hell. As he realized his real situation, he began to scream in horror, saying:

"I do not deserve this cursed doom! I was a witness of God's possession that became mine..."

In reply, the false prophet grinned with malicious laughter and answered him, saying:

"This is exactly your lot and it is fair. You are really a crown of my efforts, since I was deceiving all the churches on earth just by men like you. I have always deceived them to make God's things theirs, instead of offering theirs to God. Here, I am losing hold of your hand now, because your doom is further below in the fire. Further below..."

So, the false prophet let go of the hand of his worshiper. His soul tried to scream, but the fire covered it and it disappeared from my sight.

Exactly then, still in tears, Lord touched my heart with His hand, telling me:

"Immanuel lives in your heart and in the hearts of all those, who love Me. Today, I covered My divine presence in you with much stronger armour of confidence, firmness and Power.

Therefore, I command all My people:

Preach the Heavenly rays of Eternal Life! God's I, God's Me and God's Mine! Spread My words all over the world and teach all the men to live a life of Holy self-sacrifice and self-denying! He, who teaches the men in such a way, will be called a great in the Kingdom of My Father! His name will join My Name – so he will be My priest forever! To the one, who does not teach the men in such a way, but is tempted by the broad way and the wide gate, I tell him that the goods of this world will be the last thing he will remember at the realization of God's furious anger! For, such man's worm will never die and his fire will never be quenched!

Here, I am really coming soon! Blessed be Mary and Elizabeth! Blessed be the wombs, carrying Immanuel! Blessed be the hearts that recognized the rays of Heavenly Eternal Life!

I pronounced it! I spoke it!"